HAY AND OATS TODAY

These Were the Only Offerings on the Local Square.

About fifteen loads of hay and three or four loads of oats were the only offerings on the local market today. The price of oats was the same as has prevailed for the last two weeks, from $1 05 to $1 13 per cwt.

Hay, although there has been a plentiful supply for some time past, was slightly higher in price today, when the sales were made at prices ranging from $13 to $14 50 per ton.

No vegetables or poultry were offered.

BALKAN ALLIES OWE SUCCESS TO RUMANIA

Turkey Out.

London, Dec. 25 .- Among the grave problems which the Balkan war prought into prominent view there is hardly one so fraught with far-reaching consequences as the mutual relations of Bulgaria and Rumania. The ordinary observer probably discerns ittle to interest him in the friendship or enmity of those two States. But the political student will realize that the most vigorous currents of national vitality in the peninsula are Bulgarian and Rumanian, and that the future of the Balkans will be the resultant of destructive and constructive forces of grafted on again without the hearwhich they are the sources. At the present moment the relations of the two States are in flux. Rumania is eagerly looking forward to Bulgaria for the keynote to their future intercourse, while M. Gueshoff and his cabinet, with their eyes still unaccustomed to the new position and its possibilities, are hesitating, wavering, try ing to gain time. Rumania expects, but has not formally demanded a free gift of a strip of territory from King Ferdinand's Government, more as token of good will than for any strategical benefits which would result from No territorial changes-which she could reasonably ask for, now that her neutrality has had its effect, or that to bestow, now that she has attained her end-would give Rumania a reasonable military frontier. WILSON HAS LA GRIPPE

President-Elect of United States Obliged to Remain Indoors. [Canadian Press]

Princeton, N. J., Dec. 26 .- More as a precaution than as a consequence of his slight illness, President-elect Wilson decided to stay in his room all day today, so as not to expose himself. He had his appointments transferred from the State House to his home here.

The governor had been fighting what he thought was a mere cold since Monday, but he learned today from his physician that he had met and conquered a second attack of la grippe. The governor spent a restful night, and said he felt much better today; nevertheless he took his physician's ad-
