s. Mead Is President of West Kent Institutes

ular Officer Is Returned By Acclamation At Annual District Meeting Held In Chatham.

ham, June 29.-Mrs. W. T. of Blenheim was re-elected nt of the West Kent Women's tutes for the ninth term, at the cis Moore Shelter Thursday. er the direction of Mrs. Mead nstitutes have carried on a great and she was re-elected by ac-ation. The president gave a very address on "Institute Work," address on "Institute Work," was full of helpful hints. Res for the year were most en-aging, and included the branch tts from Mrs. Hickson of raging, and included the bands of the form Mrs. Hickson of eatley, Mrs. Cecil Huff of Thames er, Mrs. Roy Jordan of Irwin, Mrs. d of Cedar Springs, Mrs. Bedford the auditors, and Mrs. J. Flem-

as district secretary.

Irs. Buchanan of Thamesville e an inspiring address pertaining he care of children, the homeless dren, the young girls, and the er way of bringing up children. dealt with the question of cing, and in conclusion made an eal for federation money. Mrs. id. in vacating the chair for the tion of officers, told of how she enjoyed the institute work, and there was no greater honor than the their president. She said that ould be her ambition always to mote and carry on the work as g as her strength permitted. Mrs. chanar presided, and all the ofers were re-elected by acclama1, with the exception of Mrs. Of-treasurer, Mrs. Fleming, Thames River; representative to London, Mrs. Mead; auditors, Mrs. Bedford and Mrs. J. W. Ward.

and Mrs. J. W. Ward.

Mrs. Mead spoke on poultry demonstrations she had seen, and stated that a demonstrator from Guelph would visit any farm during the month of July. She added that poultry grading is an essential thing. The president extended an invitation to all members to the annual picnic of the Cedar Springs and South Harwich Institutes at Erie Beach. The addresses and reports were interspersed with very attractive numbers, including three pretty dances by Miss Dora E. Foy and Miss Winnifred Trousdale, who received bouquets of roses; vocal solos by Miss Kathleen Pinder of Blenheim and Mrs. Lounsbury of Wheatley; reading by Miss Myrtle Parry, and an instrumental by Miss Bernice Ward. The ladies gathered at the ley; reading by MISS Myrico and an instrumental by Miss Bernice Ward. The ladies gathered at the shelter at 12 o'clock, and dinner was the dining-room. The shelter at 12 o'clock, and dinner was served in the dining-room. The hour was a very pleasant one, and speeches were given by Mrs. James Fleming of Dover, Mrs. George Brown of Irwin, Mrs. Pinder of Blenheim, Mrs. Lounsbury of Wheatley, Mr. Appleyard, executive officer of the Children's Aid Society, and Mr. N. McGuigan of the board. The district secretary's report showed that much secretary's report showed that much attention is being given to community g as her strength permitted. Mrs. chanan presided, and all the ofers were re-elected by acclaman, with the exception of Mrs. On ane, an auditor, who is in poor alth. The officers follow: President, Mrs. ad; first vice-president, Mrs. own of Irwin; second vice-president, Mrs. Bessie Scott of Wheat; third vice-president, Missing third v

June Weddings

KEENE-CROOKS.

A pretty wedding took place at St. corge's Church, London West, Friat noon, when Marguerite Eliza-Crooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs hn Crooks, was married to Fred A sene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A ene, senior. Rev. Canon Sage per rmed the ceremony. The bride wore a graceful gown of The bride wore a graceful gown of ory orange blossom satin with edrgette trimmings. It was draped to the right side, and fell in pleated anels. Her hat was of white satin.

also wore white slippers and cared a shower of roses and sweet peas. Miss Eleanor Crooks acted as idesmaid and was gowned in gray nton crepe with a becoming hat ad she carried Ophelia roses. Mr n Knightley acted as best man. llowing the ceremony a reception sheld at the home of the bride in incess avenue. The guests num-red twenty-two. The bride's ther was gowned in black duchess med twenty-two. The bride's other was gowned in black duchess of the groom, ore a gown of black canton crepe vith a corsage of sweet peas.

Mr. and Mrs. Keene left later on a moneymoon, which will be spent in Buffalo. The bride traveled in a sport suit of white wool with a white that. Upon their return they will relate the manufacture of the groom, and the bride of John R. Mackintosh, charlam the bride of John R. Mackintosh as port suit of white wool with a white that the bride of John R. Mackintosh as port suit of white wool with a white that the bride of John R. Mackintosh as port suit of white wool with a white the bride of John R. Mackintosh as port suit of white wool with a white wo Upon their return they Out-of-town guests included the oride's sister, Mrs. C. W. Pike and amily of Detroit, and Misses Keene WELLINGTON-CAIRNS.

Camlachie, June 29.—A quiet but etty wedding took place at the home Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cairns, Camthie when his sister, Jean Mildred, ame the bride of Mr. Thomas rold Wellington, second son of Mr. Mrs. David Wellington, Lake nmediately at high noon, to the the latter traveling in a navy tricotine suit, gray hat and slippers. Among the bride took her place beside the vaiting groom, beneath an arch of brange blossoms, peonies and roses.

Rev. J. D. Bannatyne of Ilderton, cousin of the bride, officiated in the presence of the immediate relatives of contracting parties.

After the ceremony, the bride and groom led the way to the dining-

After the ceremony, the bride and groom led the way to the diningroom, when a sumptuous wedding luncheon was served, the color scheme being carried out in pink and white.

The happy couple left on the 4:55 Crowder of Essex.

Train, amid showers of confetti and coord wishes for Niegare Falls and coord with the color scheme to the col good wishes for Niagara Falls and Coronto, where they will spend their coneymoon. The bride traveled in a lue suit, opening over a sand crepe louse and donned a picture hat On their return they will reside on the groom's farm on the Lake road.

HYATT-RALPH.

Quietly solemnized at the Wellington Street Methodist parsonage at 2:30 on Thursday, June 28, the marriage of Edna Mae Ralph, eldest daughter of Adam Ralph, 85 Front street, to Cecil Clayburn Hyatt, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Hyatt, Frey street, was one of the most in-eresting nuptial events of the season. Rev. Geo. T. Watts officiated.

The bride was lovely in her gray anton crepe gown with plaited anels and trimmings. A wide-rimmed hat of canton crepe was forn, also gray shoes, and a shower bouquet of Sunset roses and sweet peas completed her costume.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Blanche Ralph, who wore a pretty gown of black georgette with crystal trimmings. The groom was attended by Mr. Cal Howard. After a dainty luncheon served at the home of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Hyatt left for an extended trip to nts east. C. their return they

BLOSDALE-BRADDISH.

Delaware, June 29 .- Christ Church, Manworth, was the scene of a pretty ummer wedding on Tuesday, June 6, at 2 p.m., when Dora Adelaida, Idest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. eldest daugnter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Braddish, "The Grange," Glanworth, became the bride of Irvine Frank Blosdale, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blosdale of Delaware. The greeneny was performed by Rev. Mr. ccleston. Appropriate bridal music as played by Theodore Gray of home of the bride, the Misses a and Isabel Braddish and Miss

Mr. and Mrs. Blosdale left on the 4:5$ train at St. Thomas for Detroit, the bride traveling in a suit of navy blue poiret twill with hat to match. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Blos-dale will reside in Delaware. "The Grange," the Errington home-stead, has been in the family 70 years, Mr. James Braddish having been married from the home 32 years ago.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked charming in her wedding gown of white satin trimmed with radium lace and seed She carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and sweet peas.

Her only attendant was Miss Bessie Smith of London, who wore a mauve organdy frock with picture hat, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Attending the groom was his brother, Mr. Reg. D. Blosdale. The ushers were Mr. William Braddish and Mr. C. E. B'osdale.

MACKINTOSH-McINTOSH. der a beautiful arch of white bells, rosebuds and ferns, and was performed by the Rev. A. S. Orton, pastor of St. Andrew's Church. A most becoming gown of white canton crepe was worn by the bride, who was given away by her father. Her flowers were Ophelia roses. Miss Irene Bishop was the bridesmaid, and was prettily attired in white, with corsage bouquet of sweet peas. The best man was Mr. Clarence McIntosh, the bride's brother, and the wedding music was played by Miss Gladys. Terry, a cousin of the bride. Mrs. McIntosh, the bride's mother, was gowned in black charmeuse.

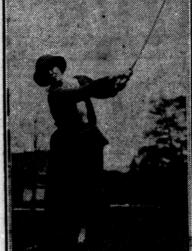

immediately at high noon, to the ains of the wedding march, played Mrs. Bannatyne, the bride, gowned in black charmeuse. A buffet supper was served in the dining-room, effectively decorated with flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Mackintosh left on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, where they will be guests of the groom's mother, and points east, the latter traveling in a navy tricotine suit, gray but and slipners. Among gowned in black charmeuse.

TITE-McCABE.

A very pretty but quiet wedding took place at 8:30 o'clock on Wed nesday morning, June 27, when Rev. W. K. Hager of Watford, performed the marriage ceremony for Florence Scelena McCabe and Mr. William Galloway Tite, of Mount Pleasant avenue, London. The bride looked avenue, London. The bride looked charming in a pretty gown of white novelty crepe, with picture hat to match, and carried a bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley. The bridal pair were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Orval McNally, Mrs. McNally wearing a gown of ivory crepe, a picture hat and corsage bouquet of red roses and lilies of the valley. After the signing of the register the happy couple left on a short honeymoon, going by motor to Niagara and other eastern points, the bride traveling in a three-piece suit bride traveling in a three-piece suit of sand poiret tuill and chic French hat. The bride is a graduate of the Port Huron training school for nurses. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Tite will reside in Detroit.

CRUMP-CONNORS. An interesting event took place in Our Lady of Help Church, Detroit, Wednesday morning, when the mar-riage of Miss Margaret Connors of place of Miss Margaret Connors of Detroit, and Mr. Harry Crump, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Crump of this city, was quietly solemnized. Miss O. Harahan was the bridesmaid, and Mr. W. Houle attended the groom. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Connors, 1741 Canton avenue. After the extended Canton avenue. After an extended motor trip, Mr. and Mrs. Crump will reside at their home in Wellington

OBERLE-BEINGESSNER. Blosdale, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs.
Frank Blosdale of Delaware. The premeny was performed by Rev. Mr. ccleston. Appropriate bridal music as played by Theodore Gray of ondon.
During the signing of the register, liss Irene Bartlett of London sang libe Crown."
A wedding breakfast was served at he home of the bride, the Misses Reta and Isabel Braddish and Miss Reta Braddish and Miss Reta Creamony being performed by Rev. Father Broham.
OTHER WEDDINGS ON PAGE 9.

Mrs. George Little, captain of the London Ladies' golf team, who won the Smart Cup in the finals played yesterday against Mrs. E. H. Nelles. Mrs. Little won with a score of two up and one to go.

CLEVER PIANO PUPILS GIVE FINE RECITALS

Mrs. Gertrude Penhale-Harrison's Class Is Heard In Hyman Hall.

The junior and senior pupils of Mrs. Gertrude Penhale-Harrison presented two very fine musical re-citals in Hyman Hall this week. The numbers, which made up a most in-teresting program in both instances, were cleverly executed and reflected the hard study and excellent training which had preceded the recital. The large audiences which were in attendance were most enthusiastic in their applause.

their applause.

The program for the senior recital follows: "March Brilliante" by Dorothy Vanstone; "Gypsy Rondo," by Meta Rhodes; "Salut-a-Pesth" by Eleanor Pollock; "March Militaire" by Alberta Smeltzer; "The Glow Worm" by Eric MacKay and Lewis White; "The Witches' Dance" and "Rondo Capriccioso" by Isabel Rooks; "Polonaise in F Minor" by Miriam "Polonaise in F Minor" by Miriam Pearson; "Dancing Waves" by Cleota "Zampa Overture" by Eric Barrett; "Zampa Overture" by Eric Mackay; "Rhapsodies Hongroise" by Miss Fowler; "Theme With Variations" by Marjorie Pirie; "Second Valse" by Lewis White; and two songs "The Daisies" and "The Immigrant Song" by Alex Knox.

The junior program follows: "Pixies Waltzing" by Dorothy Durham; "Sonatina in G" by Bert Lashbrook; "The Curious Story" by Marjorie Forreste; "Pittypat and Tippytoe" by Hugh Douglas; "The Robin's Lullaby" by Marjorie Lavarie; "The Pixie's Drill" by Billie Tatterton; "New-Mown Hay" by Alice Cook; "Valse" by Willie Waite;

Fashions By Wire

Dogs Change With Frocks. London, June 29.—With the long, slim lines prescribed by Dame Fashion today there has come a change in pets. The fluffy little lap dog formerly carried with a fluffy dog formerly carried with a nuny little frock is vanishing. In his stead comes the long, slim Alsatian wolf-hound, which is being taken to luncheon and afternoon affairs at such places as the Savoy.

Parasols Match Hats.

London, June 29. — The parasol matches the hat today. If there is a festoon of silken fruit and flowers on the parasol, this is repeated on the hat brim, while a scrawling cocard on one means the same on the other. Sometimes the entire hat is made of the same materials as those in the Night Robes Change in Style. New York, June 29.—Night robes are now forsaking the cream and white for colors such as heliotrope, white for colors such as nellotrope, peacock blue and orange. The material for summer is sometimes voile and sometimes linen. These brightly-colored nightgowns have very little ornamentations beyond a bit of em-

Black and Brown.

New York, June 29. - Black and New York, June 29. — Black and brown are colors seen more and more today in conjunction, though they would seem rather odd for hot weather except for the lightness of the materials. A black chiffon restaurant frock has a cape of brown tulle, closely pleated.

Silk Muslin Lingerie. New York, June 29.—Summer lingerie today is being made in silk muslin. The favorite shades are those of green, ranging from nile to jade and a deep leaf tint. Many rows of narrow creamy lace are used on this type of underthings.

ENGAGEMENTS

A charge of 75 cents for one insertion, or $1 for two insertions is made for notices under this heading.

Orders for insertion of engagement notices must bear the name and address of sender and will not be taken over the taken over

Social and Personal

Miss Lorene Blanchflower of Nor-rich was a visitor in London this has left on a delightful motor trip to Waterdown.

Miss Jennie Steele left this week for Muskoka, where she will spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. McKenna are occupying their cottage at Port Stanley for the summer months.

Mr. J. W. Glover of the postoffice department, Ottawa, has been holidaying in London this week.

Miss Helen Winkler of Saginaw, Mich., is a guest with her aunt, Mrs. J. F. Cody, Stanley street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Austin and Mrs. C. F. Wright of Chatham were recent guests in the city.

Kennels.

Mrs. George D. Davis, Monroe Park avenue, Toronto, daughter Ruth and son Hugh are visiting with Mrs. Davis parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McLoud, St. George street.

Mrs. Thomas Mortimore left yesterday to spend the summer in Edmonton, where she will be the guest of His Honor Dr. R. G. Brett, lieutenant-governor of Alberta, and Mrs. Brett at Government House.

ecent guests in the city. Mr. and Mrs. John Daly and family, Princess avenue, leave today for their summer home in Bayfield. Mrs. L. T. Hayman was a tea hostess this week, entertaining at her home in the Hayman Apartments.

In honor of her guest, Mrs. Jeffries of Sarnia, Mrs. Ralph McPhillips entertained at the tea hour this Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lethbridge and daughter Alice, Princess avenue, leave on Tuesday for Lake of Bays,

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Fisher of Toronto motored to London this week and were guests with Mr. and Mrs.

Mr. Ralph Prendergast of Toronto is spending the holiday in London with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Prendergast. Mrs. E. A. Gibson, Queen's avenue, Mrs. E. A. Gibson, Queen's avenue, entertained the Snelgrove-Stephen-son wedding party at an informal supper party last evening. Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Fuller motored to Toronto for the week-end. Mrs. Fuller will go on from there to their home on Georgian Bay. Miss Florence Mitchell, one of the Bethesda Hospital graduates of last evening, leaves today to take over new duties in the United States.

Mrs. T. H. Brown and daughter Bettie of Orland, California, are visiting Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Barrell of Oxford street. Mrs. J. A. Jackson and son Harold, Becher street, are leaving Monday to spend the summer at their cottage, Maple Lodge, Kingsville-on-the Colonel F. B. Ware and Mrs. Ware, Colborne street, entertained at an in-formal supper party last evening in honor of the Cook-Love wedding

Mrs. Woolverton of Grand avenue today, the attendants will be the guests of Col. and Mrs. Francis Ware, at the dinner dance at the kennels.

The patients of the Ontario Hospital, numbering over 500, enjoyed a picnic on the lawns of the hospital yesterday afternoon. An orchestra provided a splendid program of music, d later the patients enjoyed a picnic supper.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. McMahen, Huron Mr. and Mrs. H. P. McMapen, Huron street, have left for two months of travel in Europe. While in Scotland Mr. McMahen will play on the old St. Andrew's golf links, the most famous course in the world, having requisitioned his game in advance.

Miss Elva Pearson of the teaching staff of Victoria School, whose mar-Toronto motored to London this week and were guests with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sweet.

Master Bruce Neil Cooper of Lakefield Preparatory School, Peterboro, is home visiting his aunt, Mrs. A. Harold Jennings.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Fisher of Staff of Victoria School, whose marriage takes place next month, was presented with an electric toaster and handsome work basket from the children of her class. Master Orville Zavitz read a charming address and the presentation was made by Miss Ruby Werner.

A. Harold Jennings.

Mrs. Margaret M. Fraser, her daughter, Mrs. Munoz, and baby of Detroit are guests with Miss Alice Mills, Duchess avenue.

Ruby Werner.

Mrs. Van C. Gordon, Waterloo street, was the hostess of a small tea given yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Jeffries of Sarnia, a charming visitor in town. At the tea hour Mrs Arthur Brickenden presided over the tea table, and the tea-room assistants were Misses Connie Masuret and An

A delightful supper party was held by the employees of R. W. Wray & Company at the factory this week which was given in honor of Mrs Isabel Lortie, whose marriage takes place today. Following supper a theatre party was enjoyed, Dr. David Arnott and Mrs. Arnott acting as hostesses. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Munroe and Mr. and Mrs. R. Wray.

Out-of-town guests for the Bankes-Gay decorations and lanterns. Dickson wedding, taking place today, include Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Adamson, strung across the lawns, were most effective. Rose and white streamers Mr. and Mrs. A. Munro, Mr. and Mrs decked the candy booth, which was in charge of Miss Gladys McEvoy, and W. Dickson, Misses F. and A. Mc-Callum, all of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. green and white decorations were used at the ice cream booth, where J. H. Munce of Melbourne; Mr. and Mrs. W. Cochran of St. Thomas; Mr. A. Woodward of Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. Spencer acted as convener. Mrs Trout convened the home-cooking Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Angus P. Waterworth and son Theron of Chatham

Mrs. J. B. Adamson of Orangeville; and Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Bankes of Thamesford. stall, where tempting homemade cakes and pies were for sale.

Colonel Gartshore and Mrs. Gart-shore welcomed the many guests, assisted by Miss Lola McLeish, president of the choir, who acted as gen-Zona Gale Says: "The Fact That Mrs. Smith Is a Woman Is No Reason For Not Letting Her Drive the Smith Car."

Alex behind it thousands jungle superiority. He does not be-lieve in women driving.

Probably the ancestor to this same smile greeted Eleanor Ormerod when sinile greeted Eleanor Ormerod when she proposed the audacity of trying to earn the degree of LLD. from the University of Edinburgh. But Miss Ormerod not only won her degree but also became a great entomologist. Perhaps Mrs. Smith could be made. Perhaps Mrs. Smith could be made into a fairly careful driver by a little patient instruction. Certainly there is no more reas for refusing Mrs. Smith her chance to drive than there was for the university to refuse its first woman LL.D. her chance to learn. No reason inherent in the fact that Mrs. Smith is a woman. Eleanor Ormerod might have Special to The Advertiser.

Copyright.

Paris, June 29.—An evening frock at present sometimes imitates the tones of a summer night. One such frock shown here today is of starry silver tissue, touched here and there with deep soft blue. The train and a long streamer ribbon hanging from one hip are lined with black plush.

Eleanor Ormerod might have proved incapable after she had her opportunity. But her incapability would have been because she could not study or could not marshal her knowledge after she had her opportunity. But her incapability would have been because she was a woman.

And Mrs. Smith may chronically do the wrong thing with the Smith car. But if she does it will be because she becomes confused or impatient in a crisis (as some men do). cause she becomes confused or impatient in a crisis (as some men do), patient in a crisis (as some men do), or is aggressive and discourteous, (as some men are), or develops with small skill (as some men do), a fancied superiority to accident which may land her (as it often does them) in the ditch.

But Mrs. Smith in the ditch will prove nothing. Not even that the female of the species is more deadly than the male—with a motor car.

She will only prove that women, as well as men, need the qualities of coolness, care and courtesy in driving.

Mrs. Smith should be as good a driver as Mr. Smith. Perhaps bet-For Mrs. Smith may fortunately lack Mr. Smith's juvenile urge to beat the other fellow to the choice position on the road.

position on the road.

Mrs. Smith's competitive complex may not rise to the danger point in traffic.

Mrs. Smith may be above the childishness of jockeying for place on the crowded corner.

Mrs. Smith may not feel mortally insulted when passed by another car on the open highway.

on the open highway.

Mrs. Smith may have grown up enough to realize that it is more agreeable to reach her destination with car and Mrs. Smith intact than it is to arrive there sectionally through losing her temper or her

The traffic problem is largely dourtesy problem.

Mr. Smith has behind him thousands of years of seizing and grasping, thousands of years of playing what they call a man's part in what they call a man's world.

SIMPLE WAY TO TAKE OFF FAT TAKE OFF FAT
There can be nothing simpler than taking a convenient little tablet four times each day until your weight is reduced to normal. That's all—just purchase a case of Marmola Prescription Tablets from your druggist for one dollar, the same price the world over. Follow directions—no starvation dieting or tiresome exercising or absurd salves and greases. Eat substantial food—be as lazy as you like and keep on getting silmmer. And the best part of Marmola Prescription Tablets is they are harmless. That is your absolute safeguard. Furchase them from your druggist, or send direct to Marmola Company, 4612 Woodward Ave.,
Detroit, Mich.—Advt.

Mr. Jones shares the driving of Mrs. Smith has behind her thousands of years of keeping and con-Mr. Smith smiles. That smile has serving, in the midst of disorder, the decencies and securities of life. She Mrs. J. M. McEvoy of London stands against the background of l > thousands of years of woman's wist-fulness for little things—little things, like courtesy and kindness and a world in which the predatory in-stinct should be unloosed no more. Which is more likely to act like a civilized human being on a danger-ously congested highway? (Copyright, 1923, by the Bell

Sir Robert Jones Sends Message

Wires From Ship To Thank London For Entertainment.

An interesting message came to the city yesterday from Sir Robert Jones, distinguished orthopaedic surgeon of Liverpool, England. The message, which was in the form of a cable from S. S. Mauretania, was addressed to the Academy of Medicine, and reads as follows:

"Deeply appreciate the kind message (a message had been forwarded to him from London). Enjoyed every Delivers Interesting Address thousands of years of woman's wist--Others Speak.

MISS NORMA DICKSON.

COL. GARTSHORE LOANS

HIS GARDEN FOR FETE

Choir of Knox Church Holds

Successful Garden Party

Last Night.

The lovely grounds of Colonel William Gartshore and Mrs. Gartshore in London South were en fete last evening for the garden party given under the auspices of Knox Church Choir.

Masses of roses were in bloom, and tea was served at small tables at the border of the garden. Mrs. Charles Percy and Mrs. H. Sutherland presided over the tea table, which was adorned with roses.

During the evening music was supplied by the Centennial Orchestra and a charming program, including readings by Miss Margaret Campbell, Miss Gladys McEvoy and Stanley Chardwick were enjoyed, also humon and Jarvis.

ous numbers by Messrs. Westland

The Fourth District W. M. S. meeting was held at the Rodney at St John's Presbyterian Church this week. Rev. C. J. Wolland gave a short address in which he congratulated the women on the splendid progress of the W. M. S. Mrs. J. M. McEvoy, president of the London Presbyterial, also gave an ineresting address, in which she spoke of the great importance of the work of the vice-presidents, stating that it was most essential that the city workers get in touch with the workers throughout the country. A short talk was given by Mrs. Stewart of Dutton, who called attention to the great shortage of funds for missionv work in India. Mrs. B. McGugan, district vice-president, also spoke, pointing out that the object of the meeting was to get together and to offer suggestions, and she invited discussions on the various reports. The reports were presented by the following members: Mrs. Cooke of Duff's Church; Mrs. Kendal, Dutton W. M. Church; Mrs. Kendal, Dutton W. M. S.; Miss McMillan, Kintyre; Mrs. J. Kelly, New Glasgow; Mrs. Fisher, West Lorne; Mrs. Bisnett and Mrs. Thompson, Rodney.

Solos by Miss Wolland were great-moment of a memorable visit." Then ly enjoyed, and at the close of the in Latin: "May your project flourish." meeting a dainty supper was served.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL HOLDS GARDEN PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Robbins Loan Their Pretty Grounds For Successful Function.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Robins kindly gregational Church. The grounds, which overlook the Thames River. which overlook the Thames River, made an ideal setting for the affair. Red, white and blue bunting, combined with flags, decorated the grounds, and during the evening music was supplied by the Sunday school orchestra, under the direction of Miss Marion Wrighton.

During the evening an enjoyable program was presented, including solos by Miss Sparrow-and Mr. Standaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dickson, whose marriage to Mr. Harold Banks takes place today.

selections by Miss Charlotte Reid.
The conveners in charge of the various booths were: Miss Gladys Graham, cake; Mrs. William Johnston, ice cream; Mrs. Brougham, candy; Miss Phyllis Bock, balloons, and weiners and coffee, Misses Farrow and E. Moule.

PRESENT CLEVER RECITAL AT HALL IN THAMESFORD

The pupils of Mrs. Grant Harris gave a most interesting recital in the paned the grounds at the rear of Orange Hall at Thamesford. The their home for the garden party last evening under the auspices of the Young People's Society of First Congregational Church. The grounds, erson, Coza and Inza Truefitt, Sophia Galbraith, Edward Lance, Jack Otterbein, Bessie Rutledge, H. McKay, Miss Jean McGee, Miss Moir, Mrs. Miss Jean McGee, Miss Moir, Mrs. Grant Harris, Theresa Hennessey, G. Veale, Miss Agnes McGee, Mrs. Frank Smith Miss H. McLeod and Howard James of London.

Fuchsia a Favorite Shade.

program was presented, including solos by Miss Sparrow and Mr. Stanley Chadwick, numbers by the male quartet, which includes Messrs. G. Bock, A. Bock, A. Annundson and gandy. Such a hat, though small, is W. S. Robins, and charming violin worn with an ordinary summer gown.

Pure Green Tea-

is guaranteed the finest when it bears the name

Famous for its Flavor-Just try a sample.

Vin St-Michel

(ST. MICHAEL'S WINE)

This Medicated Wine brings prompt relief and permanent benefit in most cases of Loss of Appetite and Poor Digestion.

AT ALL DRUGGISTS

Wash Day Relief

WET WASH PLAN 15 Pounds 75c

clean, sent home ready to iron or starch and hang on the line. FLAT WORK PLAN

12 pounds $1.00 Bed and table linen washed separately. No marks. Include small pieces with large. No service cheaper.

ECONOMY WASH PLAN 15 pounds $1.50

Everything washed separately. No marks. No starch. Everything ironed: just a few fussy SEMI-FINISH PLAN

10 pounds $1.00 Flat work ironed. Pieces that ought to be starched are starched. Flannels fluffed up.

A wonderful cheap service.

SOME WAY AND SOME HOW.

The Parisian be Your Laundry

Launderers, Dry Cleaners, Dyers and Rug Cleaners. TRY US ON WASH DRESSES.

Keep Your Food Crisp Cool and Healthful—

Well-kept foods revive your appetite on those muggy, humid days that Protect your food supplies with Artificial Ice—the only ice made from London's pure spring drinking water.

Open the icebox and chip off a piece and drop it in your lemonade with confidence in its germ-proof, sparkling clarity.

SE ARTIFICIAL ICE

DEPENDABLE SERVICE

The London Pure Ice Co., Limited