CITY NEWS.

Miss Laing, of Ridgeway, is on a visit to friends here.

Miss Flo Maddison, of Ottawa, is home from London for her holidays.

Miss Helen Bradburn, of London, is visiting her many friends at Delmar.

Miss Mary Cullen, of Leamington, will reside in this city for a few months.

Miss Kate Collins, of Seaford, is enjoying the holiday season with friends here.

Miss Bella Boon, of this city, is spending the holidays with her parents at Bothwell.

Miss Hattie Thompson, of Blenheim, is on a visit to friends in London and Toronto.

Mrs. David Foster, of this city, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. W. Saxton, at Lucknow.

Mr. James Campbell, of 155 Wharncliffe street, London West, has returned from a trip to Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Smart and daughter, Miss "Kit," have returned to London from Port Hope.

Miss Mary McDonald, of Goderich, is visiting here, as also Miss Aggie Washington, of the same place.

Miss E. K. Evans and family, of this city, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Box at St. Mary's.

Mr. John Wilkie and wife, of East London, are recent westward trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Paxton, Misses Ella and Edith, of Ottawa, are spending the holidays with relatives here.

Mr. H. J. Thompson, of West Wawanosh, has secured a position as travelling agent for a company in this city.

Mr. Will Dymond, lately in the employ of J. W. Wood, furniture dealer, St. Mary's, has been removed to the hospital here.

The four men of Lucan and neighborhood, accused of burning a hay stack belonging to John Bawden, have been bailed to appear on Monday.

Miss McDermott has severed her connection with Messrs. E. J. Batchelor & Co. at Leamington, and will return to her former home here in a few days.

169 DUNDAS STREET

One of those pleasant events so frequent at this season of the year occurred on Christmas day, at the residence of Mr. J. Holt, 238 Wellington street, being the marriage of his daughter, Ida J., to Mr. Max Smith, of this city. The bride, who was handsomely attired in pink satin, carried a bouquet of pink roses and was attended by Miss Aggie Laird, of Hamilton, and two little maids of honor, Belle Dudley and Ida Atul, nieces of the bride, while the groomsmen were Mr. J. Wilson, of St. Paul, Minnesota. After the ceremony the guests, about fifty in number, adjourned to the dining room to partake of the sumptuous repast provided. The many presents received showed the esteem in which the young couple were held. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for Chicago on their honeymoon amidst showers of good wishes and the from their many friends.
