CURLING.

PURDOM RINK WON. An interesting game took place at the Thistle rink last night between the two rinks that won the Colts' League cup ast month. There has been a question ever since the Colts' League series closed as to which was the stronger of the two rinks, and last night's game was arranged in order to settle the matter. A box of cigars was the prize for which the curlers battled, and victory rested in no uncertain manner upon the banner of the Purdom rink, which won by the folthe Purdom rink, which won by the fol

A POPULAR SPORTSMAN.

An enthusiastic supporter of Ottawa's athletic clubs is Mr. Fred. W. Carling, says the Ottawa Journal, and he is one of the comparatively small number of Ottawans who stand by the organizations in fair and stormy weather. In the lean years Mr. Carling has stayed right with, the clubs and lent them every assistance in his power. He came to Ottawa from London in 1883 and immediately became an admirer of Ottawa's achietes. It was in 1893 that he became a member of the executive committee of the Capital lacrosse club, and he held that office until 1901. He was one of the organizers of the club, and he held that office until 1901. He was one of the organizers of the Rongh Riders, and that they have won so many championships has been due, in no small measure, to his energy and executive ability. This is the first year that he has seyved on the executive committee of the Ottawa hockey club. Mr. Carling has been president and vice-president of the Rongh Riders and vice-president of the Capital lacrosse club. He was quite an athlete in his younger days, being at one time a prominent player on Gait's Regby team.

Mr. Carling is a son of Sir John Carling and is manager of the Ottawa branch of the Carling Brewing and Malting Com-

LORNE'S FIRST DEFEAT.

In a game that was exciting from start to finish the Lornes received their first defeat of the season last night at the Jubilee Rink at the hands of the Waterloos. The score was 3 to 1. The game was to play off the tie match at the Jubilee Rink the other night, and to say that it caused excitement is placing it mildly. Although the crowd was not large in numbers each team had enthusistic rooters, and the East End rink rang with applause from the start to the finish. The game was without doubt the fastest seen here this season with the juniors and was most interesting from the spectator's standpoint. Both teams showed good combination work, although the Lornes were somewhat weaker than on opeyious occasions. The combination work of the Waterloos was exceedingly good, but on several occasions when the LORNE'S FIRST DEFEAT. work of the Waterloos was exceedingly good, but on several occasions when the members of that team had the puck near the goal they failed to score owing to bad judgment in shooting. Reid, of the Waterloos, was struck in the face by the puck during the progress of the game, and systained a nasty cut, and was forced to retire. The game started at 8.20 o'clock. After eight minutes' play Jackson scored a goal for the Lornes. Six minutes later Towe scored for the Waterloos, and from thence on until full time the game was stubbornly contested by both teams, neither of them being able to make a goal. Ten minutes extra time was allowed, when Reid and Marshall both scored for the Waterloos. Line-up of teh teams:—

BASE BALL.

AMERICAN LEAGUE SCHEDULE COM-MITTEE. AMERICAN LEAGUE SCHEDULE COMMITTEE.

New York, Feb. 29.—The annual schedule meeting of the American League of professional base ball clubs was held here to-day, those present being President Ban B. Johnson, Charles W. Somers, of Cleveland: Charles Comiskey, of Chicago; T. J. Loftus, Frank J. Farrell, of New York, and R. L. Hedges, of St. Louis, President Johnson said he expected that the schedule committees of the American and National League would meet in joint session to-morrow to compare schedules as to conflicting dates, and that the schedule of his league would not be given out to-day. When asked if he expected any trouble in the schedule dates between the two leagues Mr. Johnson replied:—"Why, no. The leagues had very little trouble last year, and I don't anticipate any trouble this season. Of course I don't know what the Xational League committee will have to say." After a four-hour session, during which only routine business was transacted, the meeting adjourned for the day.

JEFFRIES AND MUNROE TO FIGHT. JEFFRIES AND MUNROE TO FIGHT.

New York, Feb. 29.—"Jim" Jeffries and "Jack" Munroe signed articles to-day to fight for the heavy-weight championship of the world at the Yosemite Athletic Club, San Francisco, during the last week in May. A purse of $25,000 is guaranteed. The purse is to be divided—65 percent, to the winner and 35 per cent, to the loser. The stake-holder will be Harry Corbett, of San Francisco, Each man is to put up a forfeit of $5,000 and the club also is to post a forfeit of $5,000. James C. Kennedy, of the Yosemite Athletic Club, offered $20,000 first, but when this was declined he raised his offer of $25,000. "Billy" Delancy represented Jeffries and Harry Pollok spoke resented Jeffries and Harry Pollok spoke for Munroe. Eddie Graney, of San Fran-cisce, was agreed on for referee.

ELEVEN FIERCE ROUNDS

Fought at San Francisco, in Which "Young Corbett" Had Decidedly the Best of It.

(By Special C. P. R. Wire.)

(By Special C. P. R. Wire.) San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 29.-The fight for the world's featherweight championship between "Young Corbett," of Denver, and "Dave" Sullivan, of Boston did not prove the attraction expected by the Yosewith odds of 3 to 1. Sullivan was reported to have wagered $500 against $1,500 that he would be victor. Eddie Graney that he would be victor. Eddie Graney was referee.

The preliminary events were better than the average contests of this kind. Charley Seiger, of Chicago, and Frank Rawins, furnished the curtain raiser, and Caesar Attell, of San Francisco and Geo. Sanfanson of Alaska were scheduled to go eight rounds. The Sanfanson-Attell bout was declared a draw after eight rounds of fierce fighting. The referee in the first round awarded the decision to Attell on a foul, but rescinded the decision when Attell expressed his willingless to continue the contest. ontinue the contest.

Corbett received a popular demonstra-tion. Sullivan was warmly received. Both men were in perfect condition. The fight was scheduled for twenty rounds. The crowd velled for Jimmy Britt, who en-tered the ring and shook hands with the principals tered the ring and shook hands with the principals.

Round 1—After some sparring Suliivan led twice with left, falling short. Corbett then swung ineffectually with right for the iaw. He tried a left cross, which failed to connect. Corbett missed a left and right swing for the face, and Suliivan neatly blocked a similar attempt. Sullivan landed lightly with left on the ear, and they closed in. Sullivan again blocked left and right swings for the head. Finally Corbett got his right to the body lightly, and a left jab to the face. Sullivan tried a left swing, missed and slipped to the floor. Upon rising Corbett chopped a right to the face, and as the bell sounded sent in a straight left to the face. There was no damage done and but very little fighting occurred that was of consequence. There was no damage done and out very little fighting occurred that was of consequence.

Round 2—Sullivan missed left for the face, and the champlon countered with left and right swings to the face. Corbett began his usual game of talking to his antagonist, and then, as quick as a flash, drove his right to the body, following it with a left to the face. Corbett had Sullivan laughing at his badinage. The champion missed right and left swings for the body, and Sullivan just missed a vicious left swing that just grazed Corbett's face. Sullivan pranted a right swing over the kidneys and received a straight arm to the face. After landing a straight arm to for a count of seven from a well directed right on the jaw. He was up quickly, and before the bell mixed it viciously with the champion, but received much the worst of the rally. Round 3—Corbett swung with right for the ear, but it went wild. He then missed a left for the body, and the referee cautioned both men about holding. They mixed it. Corbett missing some lefts for the body. A vicious left swing by the champion grazed the top of Sullivan's head. Then followed a mix, Corbett missing several lefts and rights for the face. Sullivan made the champion stop talking by planting a left and right hard on the face, while in a mix Corbett sent Sullivan's head back with a straight left to the iaw. The latter clinched and in a mix Corbett got in two short-arm rights to the body. Corbett rocked Sullivan's head with a right on the face, and the bell found Sullivan slugging ineffectually at the champion's body.

Round 4—Sullivan iabbed the champion on the face with a straight left and some fast infighting followed, Corbett planting fis left to the jaw, and then following with left to the body. Corbett shot his right viciously to the jaw, and Sullivan resorted to infighting, in which he was worsted. Sullivan planted two hard rights on the champion's ear, and the men refused to break. They fought breast to breast, both giving and taking hard face blows. Finally Corbett broke

Round 5-Corbett drove fearful rights and lefts on his antagonist's jaw, and sullivan went to the floor twice for counts of seven. Corbett met Sullivan with a fearful joht to the stounach, and the latter clung desperately to the champion. A wild swing by Sullivan caught to the ropes with a left hook to the jaw.
They mixed it. Corbett delivering terrific punishment on the body and face. Sullivan bled from the nose. Corbett drove his left straight to the face, but Sullivan surprised the champion by sending in two terrific lefts—one to the body and one to the face. Both men fought desperately, Suldvan making a rally that set the pavilion into an uproar. Sullivan inflicted severe punishment on the champion as the round ended.

Round 6—They rushed together without result. Sullivan appeared to have receperated somewhat. Corbett swang left to the jaw lightly, and was countered with a left hook to the stomach Corbett missed a terrific left swing for the jaw, and a right swing also went wild, as did a straight left by Sullivan. Corbett missed two left hooks for the body and failed in an attempt to land a right swing. Sullivan put in a straight left to the face and followed it with a right swing to the head, and they canched. Corbett sent Sallivan back with straight left to the face, and in a mix-up they exchanged lefts to the body. Just as the bell rang Corbett sent in a straight right to the face. Sullivan showed great improvement and Corbett acted more cautionely. Round 7—Sullivan was short with both swung ineffectually with rights, and Corbett put two rights over the kidneys, and then a wicked right swing to the body. Sullivan planted a vicious left hook to the body that made Corbett wince. They clinched, and Corbett, after the breakaway, missed a fearful left swing for the jaw. He offset this by a hard right swing to the head, and escape a counter. Corbett swung his right to the ear, and missed a swing with his tinued to show improvement.

Round 8—Corbett missed a right swing for the ear, and they went together. Corbett jolted Sullivan with a right to the jaw, and quick as a flash planted his left hard to the nose, and a moment later got in a left to the head and a right to the jaw. They stood close together, and finally as Sullivan backed away, two rights caught him on the jaw, and he quickly sought refuge in a mix-up, in which he received two fearful rights to the body. Corbett missed a right swing, and after receiving a straight left to the face, drove in a terrific on Sullivan's face, forcing him right to clinch. Vicious infighting followed, with Corbett having considerably the better of it. Sullivan looked a bit worried as he went to his corner. Round 9—They at once mixed it, the champion landing several rights on the body and lett to the face. Sul-livan was out-matched at this kind of fighting and Corbett had no difficulty in landing. Sullivan backed Corbett against the ropes, nearly forcing him through. They worked their way to the centre of the ring, and Corbett the centre of the ring, and Corbett finally landed two rights and a left swing on the jaw. Sullivan fought back gallantly, but his blows failed to find a resting place. They again fought breast to breast, Corbett doing the most execution. However, Sullivan most execution. However, Sullivan drove his right twice to the body, and a left to the same place. He forced Corbett against the ropes in his op-

Why the Coreans Decided to Join the Japanese. London, Feb. 29.-The New Chwang

correspondent of the Daily News says no further news has been received regarding the Ping Yan skirmish. The Daily Telegraph's Shanghai correspondent expresses the belief that the Russian report of hanging of three Japanese officers in connection with the Sungari incident is fiction. The correspondent gives a report that the Japanese have destroyed a large Russian store of provision and forage at King-Chow, thirty miles from Port Arthur. According to Seoul reports, the decision of the Coreans to join the Japanese in the field is due to the killing of some Coreans in North Corea by the Russians, who justify the attack upon the Coreans by the fact that Corea has concluded a treaty with Japan with Japan. The Russian squadron in the Red Sea continues to stop and examine British steamers.
