MAIL ORDERS

We solicit out of town orders which receive our personal attention. The length of time taken to fill orders is governed very largely by how busy we are in the department of our factory in which the particular goods are made. While we have exceptional facilities for promptly turning out goods, it is important to place orders as far ahead as possible. Orders are filled by us in the rotation in which they are received, and customers can always depend on our doing everything in reason to give prompt despatch.

INTERNATIONAL IS NOW PART OF I. C. R.

Road is Taken Over by the Government From August 1st as Part of I. C. R.

Word was received this week at the International Railway offices that the long expected transfer has at length been accomplished, and the International Railway will be taken over by the government, and be operated as part of the Intercolonial system.

Interviewed by our representative, the officials of the International could give no particulars of the transfer, the only intimation they had, being that the road would be taken over on August 1st, but whether the road will continue as the International with the same officials or not they could not say.

The International Railway was constructed by Messrs. Malcolm and Ross, and after the death of Mr. Ross, was completed by Mr. Malcolm, who became the general manager of the road. It was opened for traffic in the fall of 1910, and since that time has become an important factor in the opening up of the great stretch of country to the south of Campbellton. The railway is 112 miles long, its terminus on the southern side being St. Leonard's, on the banks of the St. John, opposite Van Buren in the State of Maine. At the time of the opening of the railway there were no settlers along the line from Upsalquitch to within a few miles of St. Leonard's. Now there are towns, Richards, Anderson, as well as settlements, and altogether 1500 families are now situated in this district which but a few years ago was virgin woodland.

The officials and staff of the International are now busy getting ready for the transfer which will take place on Saturday. The amount of money involved has not been stated.

ONLY TWO MORE DAYS OF CONTEST

Buy at Home Campaign Ends at Store Closing Time Saturday Evening

Only two more days of the "Buy at Home" contest, but they will be the two most strenuous days of the contest. At a meeting of the merchants participating in this contest, a committee composed of Messrs. J. G. Christie, A. T. LeBlanc and John T. Reid were appointed as scrutineers to total up the votes polled. The results will be made public if possible at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening, a card bearing the results will be placed in each of the stores interested.

On Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in front of the Lounsbury Co's store, His Worship Mayor Andrew will award the prizes.

At the meeting the different merchants interested, each impressed it upon the others, the necessity of being more particular than ever at the close in giving out votes, and guard against mistakes, so that there would be no cause for complaint from the different contestants. This contest has been run strictly on the square, and the contestants themselves admit that everything has been done to guard their interests.

The contestants are requested to deposit their votes as early as possible. Put all you have in the ballot box on Friday, and then during Saturday deposit them at frequent intervals.

Now let us all work together to make this one of the cleanest contests ever conducted in this province. Of course, some one must be disappointed, and the contestants should take the results in a sportsman like manner. Let the best of feeling which has prevailed during this contest continue until the conclusion.

Contestants and their friends should lose no effort to poll every vote possible. Four of the most energetic of the contestants are thought to be pretty equal, and a few thousand votes may win the car.

Remember the increased votes for Graphic subscriptions are still in force this week. For new subscriptions the following:—
1 year, $1.00 4,000
2 years, $2.00 10,000
3 years, $3.00 15,000
5 years, $5.00 $35,000
As an inducement to pay up arrears, we are offering 15,000 votes for a $5.00 renewal.

CELEBRATE THEIR THIRTIETH ANNIVERSARY

Rev. J. H. and Mrs. Jenner Were the Recipients of Many Congratulations on Wednesday

On Wednesday evening, July 29th, Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Jenner celebrated the thirtieth anniversary of their wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Jenner received their guests in the drawing room, which was prettily decorated with ferns and potted plants for the occasion. They were assisted in receiving by their daughter-in-law, Mrs. H. B. Jenner. There were some sixty or more guests. Little Miss Muriel Jenner, the eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jenner, assisted by their grand son, Teddy Jenner, attended the door.

Miss Gladys Currie, of Acadia Ladies' Seminary officiated at the piano during the whole evening, and her music was much enjoyed by all. In the dining room, the Misses Stella McDonald, Lou Gilker, Sadie McDavid, Jetta Gray and Mr. Ogilvie Ferguson served.

The whole family with the exception of one son, were at home for the anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Jenner were the recipients of many beautiful and valuable presents, among which was a beautiful silver tea service from the family. They have received many telegrams and words of congratulations from friends in St. John, North Sydney and other cities, and from the class-mates of Mr. Jenner, who graduated from Acadia University in '91.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dean of Inch Arran and Miss Goss of Moncton.

SPECIAL FEATURES FOR THE GRAPHIC

Arrangements Made For Illustrated Articles on European War

The Graphic has made arrangements to publish each week for some time illustrated articles on important news of the world. For a time present war will be the chief subject of illustration.

We have also made arrangements to get a special despatch each Thursday, giving a short report of news happenings up to noon.

The first of these articles appear on page 7.

RETURNING ENGINEERS STOP OFF

Visitors to Halifax Convention Stop Off at Moncton and Enjoyed Sights of the City

A number of visiting locomotive engineers who attended the convention at Halifax stopped off in Moncton to see the "Bore" and they included the following: Mr. E. J. Rose, of the Maine Central, Belmont, Mass., and wife; W. K. Wright, of the Pennsylvania Railway, and wife, Kittanning, Pa.; S. Moodland, of the Grand Trunk, Belleville, Ont., wife and family; Edgar Shirley, of the I. C. R., Campbellton, and wife; Mr. Fred Jordan, of the Baltimore and Ohio, Toledo, Ohio, and wife. Prior to their departure, the visitors were given a drive about the city, in cars assembled by Mr. W. H. Price, secretary of the Board of Trade. Among those who kindly loaned their cars were Messrs. H. H. Warman, W. Sanford Smith, Dr. P. E. Burden and Ald. A. J. Tingley.

JUMPS TRACK

Bannerman's east-bound special freight from Campbellton jumped the rails about two miles from Moncton about 7 o'clock on Sunday morning, and caused a bad spill. Eleven cars left the rails and several were considerably damaged. No one was hurt. The wreck was cleared in time to cause no delay to passenger trains.

PREACHES LAST SERMON AT ST. ANDREW'S

Large Audience at St. Andrew's Church on Sunday Evening at Rev. T. P. Drumm's Farewell

Last Sunday evening about the largest crowd that ever St. Andrew's church held, was present to listen to Rev. T. P. Drumm, who preached his last sermon as minister of the church. The rev. gentleman took his text Duet. 32, Verse 27. "The Eternal God is they refuge and underneath are the everlasting arms".

During the service many of the congregation were visibly affected, and at the close of his sermon he said:—

"This is the last public occasion upon which we shall meet one other as minister and people. I am neither able nor willing to make the parting more difficult than it is by dwelling upon it. It is but right however, that I should express publicly the love which is in my heart for St. Andrew's Congregation. It is unnecessary to recall the events of the past years, for they are fresh in our memory, events which have drawn us very close together and made us as a congregation what we have been called "a big family." As I speak to you tonight, I feel that it will be very difficult for me to love another people as I love you—my first charge. We have worked together in perfect harmony. No cloud has darkened our horizon. We have suffered together, we have enjoyed together, we have passed through the shadow of bereavement together. Into a comparatively short period of time have been crowded the experiences of ten or even twenty years. We came amongst you absolute strangers and we shall never forget your hospitality, your kindness, your loyalty. We thank God humbly and gratefully for the many good friends he has given us here. You have borne with my many mistakes and blunders, you have overlooked my faults, you have helped and encouraged me in the work I was trying to do in every possible way and the great regret of my heart as I look upon you all tonight is that I have been so undeserving of all your kindness. Office bearers and members, adherents and friends, young and old, I want to know that everything you have done for us has been appreciated to the fullest extent. Words are utterly inadequate to express the deepest feelings of the soul—I cannot trust myself to say anything further along this line. I feel that I must express my admiration and esteem for the people of the town of Campbellton generally. Few communities could have emerged from a trial so great as yours with such courage and optimism. I feel more and more convinced that there is a great future before you and that the darkness of the past is but the prelude to the brighter day which is to be. Members of all the churches have shown me kindness and sympathy and it is a trial to part with them. One of the most delightful features of our social life here is the co-operation of all the denominations. There is but little of that jealousy and unseemly rivalry which make religious life so irreligious in some places. With every minister in this town, and I include my brother who is pastor of the Roman Catholic Church, I have lived on terms of friendship and respect. Friends of all denominations, we all rejoice in the name Christian and that is a greater name than the name, however honorable of any denominations or sect, I thank you for the courtesy you have shown me and the loving words many of you have spoken.

Very imperfectly and feebly I have tried to proclaim the greatest thing in the world—the love of God to sinful men—the glorious truth that He will save to the uttermost all who call upon Him. I began my ministry here with that message, I now close it with the same message. It is a love that will not let you go—God loves every one of you and sent His own son to die for you. I have two requests to make before I close. Will you pray for me as I go to a large and arduous field, will you pray that I and mine may be kept in God's effectual keeping, that he may ever feel the tender clasp of those everlasting arms we have been speaking about tonight, that we may always have a glimpse of the "rainbow through the rain" and know the promise is not in vain that morn shall tearless be." Will you ask the Good Shepherd to direct my way through the unknown future for never did I realize my need of Divine strength more than I do now. Forget my imperfections, the feebleness of my witness bearing, my failure to measure up to what is highest and best.

ADDRESS TO REV. T. P. DRUMM

On His Removal to Moncton Ministerial Association Honor one of Their Members

On Tuesday evening at the home of Rev. J. E. Purdie, the members of the Restigouche and Bonaventure Ministerial Association with their wives, met to do honor to the Rev. T. P. Drumm and Mrs. Drumm on their removal to Moncton. During the course of the evening, Rev. Mr. Drumm was presented with the following address.

Campbellton, N. B.,
July 24th, 1914.

To
The Reverend,
T. P. Drumm, B. D.,

The officers and members of the Restigouche and Bonaventure Ministerial Association desire to congratulate you upon your appointment as minister of St. John's Church, Moncton.

We heartily express our high appreciation of your ability, character, and disposition and desire to show our most cordial esteem and affection for you. We are pleased to be able to bear testimony to the success that has attended your work in this place.

We ask you to accept this address as a token of our love and esteem. We pray that God, Who has blessed you as Minister of St. Andrew's Church, will continue to richly vouchsafe his favour to you and to your wife in all the future years of your ministry.

CHISHOLM WINS SPECIAL PRIZE

Good Work Done in Graphic Contest Last Week—Over 300 New Subscriptions

Weston Chisholm was the winner of the special $10.00 prize offered in the Graphic contest last week, with a total vote of 666,700; George Wilkins was a close second.

There remain only two more days for contestants to work, and they are working hard to win.

Friends of all should lose no time in sending in their subscriptions and getting votes for their favorites.

The increased votes for new subscriptions are still in force as follows:
1 year, $1.00 4,000
2 years, 2.00 10,000
3 years, 3.00 15,000
5 years, 5.00 35,000
The Graphic office will be open Saturday evening to accommodate contestants.

Letters, containing votes mailed Saturday and plainly dated stamped August 1st will be counted.

A sealed ballot box will be placed in the Graphic business office Saturday and all votes received the last day will be deposited therein. This box will be handed to three Campbellton business men on Tuesday morning, and they will tabulate the returns. The result will be announced Tuesday evening if possible.

Keep my memory green in your hearts and remember me at my best. I always wanted to help you and I always endeavoured to make Jesus Christ real to you. Thank God there have not been wanting testimonies that in some cases I have succeeded. My second request is one that I know you will accede to. It is that you give my successor the same loyal support you gave to me. If you send upon the great head of the Church in prayer he will send you a minister who will lead you into wider fields of service than I have been able to do. You in Campbellton—how I love the name—and I in Moncton. If I am spared to begin work, there are in the arms of our Father, God. In our sorrow at this time let us not forget that this is His doing, not ours and that underneath the saddest, loneliest, most sinful life, are the everlasting arms. May God bless every one of you and lead you by the still waters of the deepest spiritual life. May be all meet some day in that land where partings and sorrows are unknown."
