LIFE INSURANCE FOR YOUR HOME

Unspiced wood means decay. Not to paint your house, means a constant expense for repairs. Paint protects against wear and weather. When you take our "100% Pure" Policy, your house is insured against decay.

Such paint protection resists the destructive effects of climate and temperature, besides adding beauty and distinction to the home and value to your whole property.

MARTIN-SENOUR "100% PURE" PAINT

means life insurance for your home. The genuine White Lead, Oxide of Zinc, Pure Colors and Linseed Oil—ground to extreme fineness by powerful machinery—form a combination that protects against decay. "100% Pure" Paint makes protection sure. It covers every surface completely and is the cheapest in the end because it covers more space per gallon. We have it in all colors for spring painting.

Call and get a copy of our new book, "The House That Jack Built." It is full of scientific, chemical and mechanical facts that you will enjoy as well as the children. Free to all.

Montreal on Tuesday, returned again by Wednesday's train.

The heavy rain of Saturday and Sunday will be a great help to bring on the grass, as it was very backward for the want of rain.

NEW CARLISLE
It is with deep regret that we heard on Tuesday of the sudden death of Mr. S. J. Riopel, advocate of this place. It appeared that the deceased walked from his boarding place at Caldwell's Hotel about eight o'clock in the morning to look after his farm, as was his usual custom. After going into his house he was attacked with illness and passed away in a few minutes before any aid could reach him. The deceased was about seventy years of age and had always been in good health.

Mrs. H. Miller returned by Monday's train after being away to Montreal and Ottawa for the past month.

Rev. Mr. Buckland who has been away for a few days returned by train on Thursday.

Mr. Walter Mitchel has purchased from Mr. J. O. Sherar part of the property known as the old Chisholm property with buildings thereon on the south side of the road and is now living in his own place.

The farmers have been very much disappointed in not being able to sell their potatoes this spring. Many of them however have disposed of them at the Robin, Jones & Whitman Limited for the small sum of fifty cents per barrel but there is a big quantity yet and the stock is very good.

Mr. Easter, a very appropriate words expressed their thanks to the friends present, after which dancing and other amusements were indulged in till near morning. About midnight a dainty lunch was served by the young ladies. The party ended by all wishing Mr. and Mrs. Easter many returns of the day and expressing their thanks for such a pleasant evening.

CAPLIN
As we seldom see any news from our charming little country, I take the liberty of sending in these few notes which I hope will be of interest to all. The spring seemed early this season, but still farming prospects are very late.

We regret to note that there are many people sick in this vicinity, amongst whom is Mr. Raphael Bourk, one of the oldest citizens of this place. The spring seemed early this season, but still farming prospects are very late.
