At a young ladies' seminary, during an examination in history, one of the most promising was interrogated: "Mary, did Martin Luther die a natural death?" "No," was the reply; "he was excommunicated by a bull."

An old farmer said to his sons, "Boys don't you ever speculate, or wait for something to turn up. You might just as well go and sit down on a stone in the middle of a meadow, with a pair of twigs for legs, and wait for a cow to back up to you to be milked."

ACCIDENT.—Mr. Samuel Barteaux, of Torrington, was severely gored in the neck and shoulder by an ox, on Saturday last. The accident happened to him by setting his dog on the ox, when the ox ran at him with the result stated above.

The Irish Methodists, who a year ago approved of Irish representation in their annual Conference, but suspending final action on account of their relations with the British Conference, at their recent meeting, encouraged by the vote of that Conference, resolved to admit the delegation at once, only one member dissenting.

About six weeks ago the ship "N. W. Bloethen," 1090 tons, three days out, bound from Baltimore to London, was captured in a hurricane and sunk. The captain, his wife, two children, and all the crew but four were lost. The ship was built at Bear River in 1874, and was owned in Yarmouth.

Last Thursday there were two fires in the Town of Pictou. One of these was a barn—the other was a barn and two adjoining buildings, all these with their contents were destroyed. Later in the evening, there was a fire on the "General Mining Association" property.

At Moral, Mexico, a little company of Protestants designed to build a small adobe church, but afterwards resolved to construct it out of stones. They gave as a reason—"We want to let our neighbors know that the Evangelical religion is to be permanent in Mexico."

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—The new chapel at Upper Abouhgan was struck by lightning on Monday afternoon and caused damage to the amount of about $300. Among four of the carpenters that were knocked senseless for a while. The fire also caught in a pile of shavings, but was put out without much difficulty.—Chinecto Post.

PRIMITIVE BRIDAL TOUR.—A Westville couple the other day, accompanied by a few friends, walked down the Acadia Coal Co's Railway to Stellarton, where they were married, after which they walked back again to Westville. We commend their prudence in beginning life's journey economically.—Eastern Chronicle.

BEAT THIS.—R. H. Bath, has on hand a lot of the Celebrated Howe Sewing Machines. This machine is the best made in the world, and warranted. He now offers them at 25 per cent. off price list to close consignment. Intending purchasers would do well to call at once and secure one.—August 2nd, '76. 4w

ANOTHER DEPARTURE.—A young business man of the North End, who lived on a liberal scale, is missing, and a number of creditors are anxiously enquiring about him. His case will give another point to those who assert the sinners are behaving themselves well in these trying times, while the saints are proving very troublesome.—Halifax Chronicle.

The organ for the Baptist Church, of which we gave a description last week, arrived yesterday morning. It will be placed in the Church during the week, when the congregation worshipping there will have the pleasure of hearing it for the first time.

A CONSTABLE CHEATED.—A King's County constable levied on a load of hay, procured a yoke of oxen and undertook to drive off with the property, on the top of which he took a seat. The hay mysteriously took fire, the oxen ran away, the constable was thrown off the hay, the wagon destroyed and the oxen injured.

MORSE & PARKER.—This is the name of a new law firm, lately entered into by Messrs. Leander S. Morse, and J. G. H. Parker, Esqs. L. S. Morse, Esq., has been for some years the Inspector of Schools for this county, a position which he has filled with satisfaction to all. J. G. H. Parker, Esq., has made his mark also as a good efficient Clerk of the Peace. Both these gentlemen are natives of this county, and they have our best wishes, as regards their future prosperity.

The Times says the capture of Guruzovatz is a severe, if not fatal blow, to the Servians, and warns Turkey that it will not be allowed to make wanton use of the victory. If they think that on the soil of Serbia their troops may safely commit one hundredth part of the atrocities perpetrated in Bulgaria, they are the victims of infatuation. Other States than Russia would not be disposed to let Serbia again fall under the rule of Turkish Paschas or even allow Belgrade to be again occupied by a Turkish garrison.

During the past week petitions have been in circulation, in this county for the purpose of obtaining signatures praying the Privy Council of the Dominion of Canada, to appoint T. D. Ruggles, Esq., Q. C., a County Judge, for the Counties of Annapolis, Digby, and Yarmouth. Mr. Ruggles is a gentleman of long experience at the bar, and is eminently fitted to fill the position, and from the names attached to the petitions, numbering no less than 1500, on both sides of politics, his appointment would it seems give general satisfaction.

GRANVILLE FERRY, Aug. 14.—Our Granville Correspondent sends us the following:— Captain William Parker has disappeared mysteriously from this place, he left home on Tuesday morning 8th inst., in a small boat to go down the Basin. He was seen below Stony Beach at anchor, in a short time he drew in anchor and proceeded up the Basin again, not long after the boat was picked up with one man in it. No tidings have been heard of Capt. Parker since, and it is generally believed that he met with a "watery grave." His friends have been grappling for him, but have not yet succeeded in recovering the body.

Since the above was sent us, we received the following by telegraph from Annapolis:— ANnapolis, August 15.—The remains of Capt. William Parker were found in the river three miles above this Town, a piece of chain weighing about fifty pounds, was wound three times round the body and tied, his pockets filled with stones, and a rope tied around his waist. He was last seen in a boat three miles below here last Tuesday morning. Verdict.—Suicide by drowning.

FOREST FIRES.—For the last ten days our sky has been more or less overcast with smoke from the numerous fires which have been burning in the woods, many hundreds of acres have been burned over between Nictaux, and Meadowvale. On Saturday afternoon the firemen of this town, were called out to prevent the barn on the farm of Mr. Edward Pool catching fire from the burning embers which were flying thick and fast around it, from a fire in the adjoining pasture.

At Nictaux the inhabitants had to turn out and fight the fire off the Baptist Meeting House, the school house close by was also in great danger.

Go Love S. Orth, of Indiana, must be a disappointed man. He resigned the honorable position of Minister to Austria to return to America and run a candidate for Governor of his State and now he has been induced by the party managers to withdraw, because, as he expresses it in his letter, he cannot "receive the united support of the Republican party, so essential to success in the approaching election;" in other words, because there is no hope that he could be elected. Mr. Orth must appreciate the full force of the old adage that a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush.

The "oldest inhabitant," when interrogated respecting the intense heat of our present Summer, shakes his heavy head, and says he "never saw any season like it;" and his juniors regard his utterance in the matter as peculiar—at least, they feel no disposition to contradict him. The temperature of the atmosphere has been tropical. On several successive days the thermometer ranged above ninety in the shade. While panting and sweating under the pressure of such heat, we at noontide have indulged in cooling reveries and pleasant memories of January weather, vainly endeavoring thus to mitigate the withering influence of the fervor which oppressed us. But even imagination failed to afford relief.

FIRES.—On Monday morning, about eleven o'clock, a barn belonging to Mr. James R. DeWitt, containing some 40 tons of hay, was totally destroyed by fire. It is supposed that the fire was caused by boys smoking in the barn as about half an hour before the fire was discovered, two boys were seen in the barn-floor by the wife of one of Mr. DeWitt's neighbors. Loss about $1000.

Pictou has already paid for her steam fire engine which, on Thursday last, saved ten times its cost. We shudder as we think of a fire this hot weather, with wooden houses like tinder boxes, and firemen emervated by the heat. Truro and Pictou have set an example to other towns which they would do well to copy. Cheaper insurance rates follow close upon the heels of fire departments. Windsor, Kentville, Annapolis, and other towns east and west, should see to their fire apparatus, which are by no means as efficient as they should be. In peace prepare for war.—Herald.

The above remarks will apply very forcibly to this town. We have very good fire apparatus, but no adequate supply of water, nor never will have, we suppose, until a serious fire arouses our townfolks to the necessity of preparing for war in time of peace.

A despatch from Lord Derby to Sir Henry Elliott, British Ambassador at Constantinople, sent on the 9th inst., says: "It appears to Her Majesty's Government that the capture of Saitzar-Kalea may lead to the occupation of a considerable part of Serbia by the Turks; therefore I instruct you to urge strongly on the Porte that it is absolutely necessary that its troops be kept under control, that the unarmed population be spared, and that a repetition of the outrages in Bulgaria be avoided. You will point out that a renewal of such outrages would prove more disastrous to the Porte than the loss of a battle. The indignation of Europe would be uncontrollable, and interference in a sense hostile to Turkey would inevitably follow."

UNFORTUNATE OCCURRENCE.—A barn owned by Cyrus Johnson, Esq., Alton, was set on fire by an insane son on Saturday last, and burned to the ground. The young man has been of an unsound mind about ten years, and until quite recently his insanity has been of a mild form—he having shown no dangerous symptoms. Something displeased him on Saturday, and while the family were at dinner he touched a match to the hay in the barn, and before the alarm could be given the whole building was in flames. There were about twenty six tons of hay in the barn, besides a Mr. Johnson's farming implements, &c. The loss is estimated at about $1300. The young man was captured on Saturday night and lodged in jail at Kentville. A medical examination will be held to-day by Drs. H. Shaw and H. B. Webster, after which he will be sent to an asylum.—Kentville Western Chronicle.

The brothers Rev. F. M. and John Pickles occupied the pulpit in the Methodist Church, St. Andrews, on Sabbath last 6th of August, the former in the morning, the latter in the evening. Their services were very much appreciated. In the evening, after the regular service, they conducted a service of sacred song, which was a season of most spiritual comfort to those privileged to partake in the same. Both these gentlemen are natives of the town. Mr. F. M. Pickles said that, as many persons had been enquiring for his father, he would state for the information of all that his dear father and mother had arrived in England, having been blessed with a most favorable passage, and that they were in the enjoyment of good health; and that his father had had the privilege of preaching in the same pulpit in England from which he had delivered the gospel message forty-nine years ago. The brothers remain in St. Andrews a few days, after which they will return to their homes in the United States.—Telegraph.

OBITUARY.—A fortnight ago it was our melancholy duty to chronicle the somewhat sudden demise of the Hon. Jared C. Troop. Only a few days after that mournful event, his little daughter Maggie also suddenly died. When her father was attached by the prostrating malady which terminated fatally, his youngest two children were taken by a relative at Annapolis, to lighten the mother's cares which were pressing heavily on her at the time. The one, whose name is mentioned, took the scarlet fever, and in a day or two died. To the heart-stricken mother and other members of the bereaved family, this was another severe stroke which intensified the great grief which they were already enduring. They have our sympathy.—"Little Maggie" was an upright child, and was endeared not only to her home friends, but also to the visitors of the family.—It must be a consolation to the mourning ones to know that our Blessed Lord said: "Suffer little children to come unto me."

FLOATING ISLANDS IN A LAKE.—It is announced from Superior City that the recent storm on that lake started two quite large floating islands from near Rice's Point, blew them across the bay out through the canal and several miles out in the lake, when the wind changed and blew them across the lake and on to the Wisconsin shore. The islands were covered with a growth of trees, and as they were floating across the bay, presented a very novel sight, and were watched by hundreds of spectators.—London (Ont.) Free Press.

EUROPE.

LONDON, Aug. 12.—It is reported that Darnell is about to be raised to the House of Lords, with the title of Earl of Beaconsfield.

Different columns of the Turkish army are drawing together, as they approach Belgrade so as to completely surround the city.

The Servians on their part are strengthening the fortifications of their capital at every point.

There is a report that the Emperors of Russia and Austria agreed when peace was concluded that the Porte might take a guarantee from the Servians for not again assaulting Turkey, but that the Turks should never be permitted to occupy a Servian town, neither should Prince Milan be deposed.

Stocking accounts of Turkish barbarities in Bosnia are published; whole villages are empty, their inhabitants having been slaughtered and hundreds of dead bodies are floating down the river.

The morning papers warmly congratulate Mr. Darnell on his elevation to the peerage. The Times says he is the greatest member of Parliament that ever lived. The Telegraph says the leadership next session will probably devolve upon Sir Stafford Northcote, who is to be Chancellor of the Exchequer.

Mr. Darnell closed the debate last evening on the Bulgarian atrocities defying Mr. Darnell will remain Prime Minister.

It is rumored that other changes will place after prorogation, namely: Sir Charles B. Adair, President of the Board of Trade, and Lord John Manners, Postmaster-General have been offered peerages. Wm. H. Smith, once Under-Secretary of Treasury, is to replace Sir Charles Adair, and some subordinate member of the Government will replace Lord John Manners.

Dagnan's correspondent of the Times says that the Porte has refused all pacific overtures, declaring it will risk everything. It also persists in employing Caracassians and Baschi-Bazouks.

Intense heat has prevailed in Spain. Forty field laborers died from heat near Seville.

The vines in Andalusia are scorching and falling.

LONDON, Aug. 13.—The Queen held a council at Osborne House on Saturday; she delivered the seal of office of Lord Privy Seal, and then took oath, and kissed her hand on appointment.

President MacMahon has liberated 161 persons imprisoned for participating in outbreaks during the Commune troubles. He proceeded to Belgium; he is considered unpopular, and threats are made to remove him.

The Ottoman embassy in London offers to employ the services of the Ottoman villages or carry petroleum for the purpose, as has been charged. The embassy alleges that sixty villages in the Ottoman territory have been burned by the Servians.

A London despatch says the dry Centenary put into Abercrombie, Perthshire, Wales, on Saturday, for provisions, and proceeded to Liverpool. The despatch reports that he was captured once during the voyage, but succeeded in righting her.

LONDON, Aug. 14, p. m.—The report that Lord Ashurst's mission to Belgium, he has been appointed, and that he will be sent to a Madras newspaper asserts that the Duke of Buckingham has been proposed for the reversion of the Government.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 13.—The French mission chapel, in the province of Nanchow, was attacked by the populace during the celebration of the feast of St. Vincent, and many of the congregation were killed.

New York, Aug. 12.—Another battle with the Indians is reported, in which they were defeated; Sitting Bull was badly wounded.

HEAVY ROBBERY AT THE NORTH BRIDGE.—On Saturday, Justice Fairley, lumber merchant on the South-West, procured from the Bank of Montreal five hundred dollars in three parcels of five hundred dollars each. Wrapping up the cash he deposited it in the boot of his wagon and proceeded home. He made a halt at Christopher Parker's, Derby, where he took the money from the wagon, placed it in his coat upon a bed in his room, and went out for a few moments. When he returned the coat was disturbed, the parcel open at one end, and five hundred dollars missing. Officers are on the thief's track, but no account as yet of cash.—St. John Globe.

DEER SEA HERRING FISHERY.—The schr. Pearlus, Capt. Wm. C. Cunningham, has inaugurated a new feature in the herring fishery of this Province. A few days ago, about 40 miles from land, off this port, she fell in with large schools of herring. The first haul, which was made with a "purse seine," being small, herring, she released, and made for a school of large ones, of which she captured about 200 barrels, both hauls occupying not more than three hours. They were brought to this market, and a portion retailed for $1 per 100. The remainder were worth about $4 per 100. The fish are large and fat, equal to the best Labrador herring. Capt. Cunningham is concerned in three mackerel "traps" which are located between Yarmouth and Barrington. One of them, which is attended by himself, has already captured $700 worth of mackerel this season, and we understand the other two have been equally successful.—Yarmouth Herald.

A Nova Scotian Drivener.—A young man named Archibald McKinnon, belonging to Westwood, C. B., was lost on board the steamer St. Clair, on Lake Superior. The ill-fated steamer left Duluth on the 6th of July, bound for Hancock, Mich. She was destroyed by fire soon after putting to sea—two passengers out of seventeen were saved. The crew appear to have made no efforts to save the passengers, but took to the boats, leaving them to their fate. The young man, McKinnon, left Cape Breton about nine years ago; he owned some property in Michigan, which he wished to dispose of preparatory to returning to his native land. In the course of these preparations he undertook the voyage which terminated so fatally.—Halifax Chronicle.

The attempt to restrain the progress of the East River Bridge, which is to connect Brooklyn and New York, has failed, and the work of hauling the first wire cable across from shore to shore will go on at once. An injunction had been applied for and the judgment of the Court has been given, refusing the application. Work had gone on for years and large sums of money had been spent with the sanction of Congress, yet the opponents of the scheme, who had had ample opportunities of making their views known, had said and done nothing. They waited till the contractors were ready to begin stretching the first cable and then stepped in to endeavor, by means of law, to stop the whole affair.—Halifax Chronicle.

CENTENNIAL NOTES. THE BURDETT ORGAN CO.

Exhibit four of their famous organs in the Main Building, which, for elegance of finish and richness of music, are marvellous in design. One of the organs—a three-manual thirty stop instrument—is of beautiful design, and is probably one of the largest and most costly organs ever made. Its tone-power has the commanding character of that of a "pipe organ," while its tone variety is as richly beautiful and extensive. It shows, as no other organ we have ever examined does, the exceedingly great musical resources of the reed, which are apparently limitless, and which American ingenuity is now developing, so as to make the heretofore insignificant harmonium a rival for public favor with the finest concert grand piano.

The Burdett Organ Company is a credit to the State of Pennsylvania, they having located their works at Erie since their destruction at the late Chicago fire. The Burdett Organ is a credit to the musical art of our time, and proves itself at the Centennial Exposition to be pre-eminently worthy that article and critical admiration which it has won here, and throughout the country. We advise those of our readers who have not examined the Burdett Organ Co.'s exhibit, that, would they see a "thing of beauty," to send their way to the Burdett Organ stand, and see it eye and ear with the $5000 Burdett. The handsome pavilion occupied by the company may be found on the first aisle south of the great nave of the Main Building, about midway between the centre and east end of the Building.—Philadelphia Inquirer.
