DOCTOR URGED
AN OPERATION

Instead I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Was Cured.

Baltimore, Md.—"Nearly four years I suffered from organic troubles, nervousness and headaches and every month would have to stay in bed most of the time. Treatments would relieve me for a time but my doctor was always urging me to have an operation.
My sister asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before consenting to an operation. I took five bottles of it and it has completely cured me and my work is a pleasure.
I tell all my friends about this famous remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—NELLIE B.
BATTINGHAM, 609 Calverton Rd., Baltimore, Md.
It is only natural for any woman to dread the thought of an operation. So many women have been restored to health by this famous remedy, Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after an operation has been advised that it will pay any woman who suffers from such ailments to consider trying it before submitting to such a trying ordeal.

BRITISH FLAG'S POSITION CAUSED DISPUTE

Some Said It Was Upside Down, Others Declared It Was Not, and a Referee Had to Be Called In

NEW YORK, July 3.—The only thing the Waldorf-Astoria asks is a unanimous decision by any four British army officers on the subject of exactly how a British flag should be hung.

The other day a Canadian officer, quite indignant, told the room clerk that the British flag hanging among other allied banners over the room clerk's window was upside down on its standard.

This appeared to the clerk to be a very grave error indeed, if it were an error. He examined the flags and found they all were edged with gold braid and fringe. The man who made them apparently believed he knew his business, else he wouldn't have sewed them to their standards that way.
The clerk meant to be positive about the proper position before acting, so the next British officer who came in was asked his opinion.

His opinion differed from the complainant, and was to the effect that any well-informed British officer should be able to tell if the flag was hanging exactly as it should hang.
Another Canadian was asked his opinion, and after looking at the flag he burst forth with everything short of real swear words and said the flag was hung incorrectly. Still another said it was as it should be, and to change it would be to insult the intelligence of any British soldier.

Now, the Waldorf wants to get that flag hung with the cross-strips in their proper attitude. It is up to the British to help.

[All that is required is to hang the flag with the wide white stripe in the upper corner next to the staff.—Editor MONITOR.]

GIRLS! ITS YOUR
STEP THAT ATTRACTS

Says Women Pay too Much Heed to their Face Instead of Corns

Watch your step! A brisk, lively step is what charms more than a lovely skin, but your high heels have caused corns and you limp a little. That's bad, girls, and you know it. Corns destroy beauty and grace, besides corns are very easy to remove.
Rid your feet of every corn by asking at any drug store for a quarter of an ounce of freezone. This will cost little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

A few drops applied directly upon a tender, touchy corn relieves the sore-ness and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out without pain.
This freezone is a gummy substance which dries instantly and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding skin.

Women must keep in mind that cornless feet create a youthful step which enhances her attractiveness.

Travelling Fakirs

Pictou Advocate: In our Maritime Province news last week there was an item re the arrest of a man on a charge of obtaining money under false pretences at Pugwash, N. S.
This man operated through Pictou County as an eyesight specialist and is reported to have had many victims.
What glasses he did supply were no good and in some cases, it is claimed, he failed to furnish glasses after being paid for them. It is wonderful the ease with which travelling fakirs peddling eye glasses find victims. One would think that by this time everybody would know enough to avoid these swindlers and to entrust the care of the eyesight to none who had not well established reputations.

ROUND HILL

July 9th
Mrs. F. C. Moore, of Kentville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. C.
Rice.

Miss Marjory Merriam is a visitor at the home of her uncle, Rev. J.
Reeks.

Mrs. Cecil Bishop and two children, of Ottawa, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. G. Hervey.

Miss Erena Healy has returned to at the home of her cousin, Mrs. B.
Eaton, at Middleton.

Mrs. Rupert P. Whitman and two daughters, of Hantsport, were weekend visitors at the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. L. C. Whitman.

Miss Charlotte Longley, of Bridgetown, spent the week-end with her friend, Mrs. Fannie Gibson. Miss
day afternoon.

Miss Merriam, of Annapolis Royal, and Mr. W. Walker, of the Entomological Branch at Fredericton, N. B., were Sunday visitors at the home of Prof. George E. Sanders.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Dodge, of Kentville, were week-end visitors with Mrs. Dodge's parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Williams. On their return home to Kentville they were accompanied by Miss Louisa Williams, who will remain with her sister, and rest after her exertions at school.

Mr. F. Reeks, who has been with the Bank of Commerce, Springhill, is spending his vacation with his father, Rev. J. Reeks. We understand that Fred has been transferred to Sydney, C. B., branch of this Bank with a "rise" in salary. We are glad to hear of the success of this splendid young man.

FALKLAND RIDGE

July 9th
Charles Marshall left on Monday for Halifax.

Luetta Peener and Beatrice Dorey left on Monday for Truro.

Women's M. A. Society convened on Wednesday at Mrs. D. D. Starratt's.

Aubrey Marshall motored to Bridgewater on Friday with a party of four.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Veno left Wednesday for Bridgewater to visit old friends.

Mrs. Maud Mosher, of Lunenburg, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. B.
Kaulbach.

Little Francis and sister Mabel Stoddart, of Lawrencetown, are the guests of Iona Marshall.

Ray Whynot and Bertha Hirtle, of New Germany, spent the 30th, guests of Mrs. Willard Swallow.

Five days of rain and fog. The rain will be great for the grass crop, but bad for the hood crops.

Etta Marshall and sister, Marjorie, who have been writing the examinations at Middleton, returned home on Saturday, June 29.

Frank Young and children, of Aylesford, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs.
Elijah Charlton. They were accompanied by Mrs. A. Zwicker.

HAMPTON

July 9th Herring struck in last week and those who fish made several good catches.

The Sea Side House has a large share of patronage, there being over a dozen boarders at present.

Miss Frances Titus has gone to Wolfville for an indefinite period.
She will be missed by all.

Mr. Elias Langley, the proprietor of the St. James Hotel, Bridgetown, spent last week the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Milbury.

The dry spell of weather has been broken and the much needed rain has come in time to save the crops. Grass has been given a start and things look better.

Miss Annie Chute, who has been teaching school two years at Lower Granville, is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chute.

Mr. Norris Mitchell, one of our most progressive farmers, has a field of turnips that is hard to beat. He also has three quarters of an acre of beans that is worth looking over.

PREFER TO BE IN THE DARK

Churches With Money to Burn Set Poor Example

[Gold Hunter]

Daylight Saving has been no benefit to the Caledonia Churches. Instead of having their services begin at the usual hour and get through before dark, they changed the hour to 8 o'clock so they could continue to burn good oil. Quite inconsistent, or else they have money to burn.

Number One Has Returned

Among the returned officers who were in Halifax on Wednesday, was one who went over with the First Contingent as a sergeant, and won his commission overseas. He was evidently one of the first men who signed up with the First Contingent, as his regimental number is "one."

Ask for Minard's and take no other.

CORRESPONDENCE

Good Roads Appreciated

To the Editor of the MONITOR:

DEAR SIR: Allow me through your valuable paper to express my appreciation of the work being done on the roads from Phinney Cove and Young's Cove districts. Mr. Robert Bent, the foreman in charge of the roads in ward five is not only a man to see that his men earn their money, but is a worker himself, with his coat off and armed with crowbar and pick he has taken out rocks from the road bed that has been run over for half a century, ditches have been opened and turn outs for water, small bridges repaired and a thorough building up of a road that before was not fit to run a dump cart over and now our merchants, Mr. Norris Mitchell and Mr. L. D. Brooks can trot their teams loaded with goods over the roads in comfort and safety, and all who travel along the shore are highly delighted with the work done by Mr. Bent. As I travel the route three times per week I feel it my duty to let Mr. Bent know that his work will long be remembered by the travelling public.

Thanking you in advance for printing this in the MONITOR, I remain, Yours with respect,

GEORGE R. SNOW.
Hampton, July 2nd, 1918.

ONE HUNDRETH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Stephen Beals Passed the Century Mark on Sunday.

[Middleton Outlook]

On Sunday last, Mrs. Stephen Beals reached her 100th birthday. In observation of the event she enjoyed an auto ride; posed for a picture in which were included four generations and entertained three of her special lady friends.

The three lady friends were Mrs.
George, Nelly, Mrs. Rebecca Middle-mas and Mrs. Sarah Craig. The combined ages of these, with her own totalled 364 years.

On Sunday and the proceeding following days, Mrs. Beals received many callers, who came to offer congratulations. The mails also brought many tokens of remembrance. The latter included flowers from Mrs.
Beals' grandson, Stephen Beals, of Concord, N. H.

A telegram of congratulations also came from Mrs. J. L. Batty and Miss Olga Sponagle, of Winnipeg.

The friends who called upon Mrs.
Beals found her in possession of all her faculties despite her age. She is slightly dull of hearing and complains of failing memory, but she converses with ease and with the aid of a cane can walk about the house.

BRITISH PEOPLE SURPRISED

When Announcement Was Made That Million American Troops Had Arrived in France

LONDON, July 3.—United States Secretary of War Baker's letter to President Wilson, announcing that more than a million American soldiers had left the United States for France, was published in the early editions of the London afternoon newspapers under great headlines. The statement was featured in connection with the success of the American troops in capturing the town of Vaux on the Marne front.

The figures came as a great surprise, for although it was known that many Americans were arriving at British ports weekly, few realized that the million mark had been exceeded.

The Westminster Gazette considers the successful moving of this large body of men across the Atlantic to be proof that the U-boat has absolutely failed in its endeavor to prevent the coming of the Americans, especially as, despite the strain on shipping, supplies for the civilian population is maintained.

It is the man with but one suit of clothes who stands the best chance of having his registration card with him on all occasions.
