

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

Some of the "dramatis personæ" introduced—Retrospective glances—Causes of future effects—Our hero's early life at sea—A pirate—A terrible fight and its consequences—Buzzby's helm lashed amid-ships—A whaling-cruise begun.....9

CHAPTER II.

Departure of the "Pole Star" for the Frozen Seas—Sage reflections of Mrs. Bright, and sagacious remarks of Buzzby—Anxieties, fears, surmises, and resolutions—Isobel—A scarch proposed—Departure of the "Dolphin" for the Far North27

CHAPTER III.

The voyage—The "Dolphin" and her crew—Ice ahead—Polar scenes—Mast-head observations—The first whale—Great excitement.....35

CHAPTER IV.

The chase and the battle—The chances and dangers of whaling war—Buzzby dives for his life and saves it—So does the whale and loses it—An anxious night, which terminates happily, though with a heavy loss....46

CHAPTER V.

Miscellaneous reflections—The coast of Greenland—Upernavik—News of the "Pole Star"—Midnight-day—Scientific facts and fairy-like scenes—Tom Singleton's opinion of poor old women—In danger of a squeeze—Escape.....56