

BRANTFORD v. GALT.

The return match between these clubs was played in Brantford last Wednesday, and the home team succeeded in turning the tables on their opponents. The scores were small on both sides, probably owing to the wicket being a little hard. The bowling all round was good and the fielding fair; two or three good catches, one especially by the enthusiastic president of the Galt Club, Col. Peck, were the redeeming features. Yates and Jaffray, for Brantford, did some exceptionally good bowling, the latter obtaining in the second innings 6 wickets for 6 runs. Score:
