

Brother Monaghan reported from a majority of Committee on Bye-Laws :

REPORT.

TEMPERANCE HALL,
Halifax, Oct. 28th, 1852. }

The majority of the Committee on Bye-Laws beg leave to report, that they have had under consideration the Bye-Laws submitted by Cumberland, Chebucto, Wilberforce, Britannia, Compeer, and Victoria Mines Divisions, for approval of this G.D., and find them in accordance with the Constitution of Subordinate Divisions, except as hereinafter mentioned, viz. :

CUMBERLAND DIVISION, No. 35.

Art. 8., Sec. 3.—Appropriates eight dollars to a brother beneficial on the decease of his wife, while the Constitution provides for ten dollars.

WILBERFORCE DIVISION, No. 28.

Art. 2, Sec. 2.—Returning half the initiation fee to a brother is unconstitutional.

Art. 2, Sec. 4.—The Committee would recommend that the words "this shall be a non-benefit Division," be erased.

VICTORIA MINES DIVISION, No. 108.

Art. 6, Sec. 4.—Appropriates but ten dollars as a funeral benefit on the death of a brother, while the Constitution provides that fifteen dollars shall be appropriated.

Art. 6, Sec. 5.—Appropriates but seven dollars on the decease of the wife of a brother beneficial, while the Constitution provides that ten dollars be appropriated.

All of which is submitted in L., P. and F.
