ALDERSYDE;

A BORDER STORY OF SEVENTY YEARS AGO.

BY ANNIE S. SWAN.

12mo, cloth extra, with Six Original Illustrations. Price, $1.25.

The Authoress has received the following Autograph Letter from Mr. Gladstone:—"think it beautiful as a work of art, and it must be the fault of a reader if he does not profit by the perusal. Miss Nesbit and Marget will, I hope, long hold their places among the truly living sketches of Scottish character. I remain, your very faithful and obedient,

W. E. GLADSTONE."

"Sir Walter Scott himself never delineated a character more true to life than Janet Nesbit; eloquent of character and well told; full of quiet power and pathos; has brought us into the presence of a pure and noble nature; this cleverly constructed story; a tale of deep interest; a work of true genius; Hurrah! our good Scotch stories are not going to die out just yet; have not read a fresher, livelier, or wholesomely stimulating story for many a day; Janet Nesbit is a fine portrait of a noble woman; the Doric is pure and cultivated, while the descriptions of border scenery are admirable; written in a style that cannot fail to interest; tells us, with much literary grace and variety, a many-sided story."

Opinions of the Scotch, English, and Irish Press.

"Full of lights and shadows; written with much ability and feeling; a fascinating story of humble life; a very effective story; will assuredly take its place beside 'Rab and his Friends' and Professor Wilson's Tales; a tender-spirited story of mission work among the slums; a capitally written sketch; should find a place in every Sunday-school or temperance library; never saw a better of its kind; a good and easily told tale; the Christian heart, yearning over the fallen and lost, will find in it much to enjoy and much to learn; graphic and wholesome; the story is capitally told.

"The narrative is swift and flowing, lit up with flashes of humour; a very sweet little story; a simple idyll of everyday life, naturally and pathetically told; fitted to do good service like in connection with temperance and general mission work; a good stock of healthy, mischief-making, but generous good nature about the lad, he is the very soul of tenderness to the little blind girl."
