ENGLISH PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD,

THE ARTICLES OF THE FAITH. Church of England continued its sit- and expressed sympathy with the Wal tings in Regent-square church until densian Church in the proposed bi-Friday night, May 3rd, under the Mod- centenary of the ' Glorieuse rentrès" consideration of the Atticles of the Forsyth appeared as a deputation from the Principal Dykes submitted the Atticles as revised by the Committee, in the light of the amendments suggested by Presbyteries, and he moved that the Synod approve of the document and accept the Atticles as a sufficiently full statement of the Church's Dr. Monto Gibson gave in the remainded of the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the upper air passages and eustachian tubes. The eminent relicities, Tynidall, Huxley and Beale endorse this, and these method of treating these diseases is to apply an interior. belief on the fundamental doctrines to port of the Committee on the Instrucform a summary of her creed. Dr.

Dykes described the not very important changes which the document had undescribed to the processing and treatment and treatment of the processing and treatme mas and inclass gained in examinations thanges which the document had undergone since it was presented to the Synod last year, and as it appeared at the time in our columns. He dealt specially with Article NIX, treating of Holy Scripture, which sets forth that the Rev-lation has been "so far as needful committed to writing by men inspired of the Holy Sprit, so that the Word of God is now contained in the Striptures of the Old and New Testaments." This, Dr. Dykes explained, was mainly adopting the language of the older Confessions, and in that word ing the Westiminister divines appeared to have been inspired of God, enabling it to stand the extending the Next minister divines appeared to have been inspired of God, enabling it to stand the test of time. He gred the Synod to be careful how it stiffened to have been inspired of God, enabling to stand the test of time. He gred to have been inspired of God, enabling to stand the test of time. He gred to have been inspired of God, enabling to stand the test of time. He gred the Synod to be careful how it stiffened to have been inspired of God, enabling to stand the test of time. He gred the Synod to be careful how it stiffened the Synod to be careful how it stiffened to synod to be careful how it stiffened the Synod amountations. He thought Article NIN. gave a very low view of Scripture and could be subscribed by Rationalists. He would have it declared that it contains the Word of God, and not that it contains the Word of God. He said he was staggered when he heard Dr. Dyke's argument that it was not the writings which were inspired, but the writing which were inspired white in the mean intensical and a strict vegetarian.
