DAY OF HUMILIATION.

From a Supplement to the London Gazette of Friday, Sept. 25.

BY THE QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION FOR A DAY OF SOLEMN FAST HUMILIATION, AND PRAYER.

VICTORIA R.

We, taking into our most serious consideration the grievous mutiny and disturbances which have broken out in India, and putting our trust in Almighty God that He will graciously bless our efforts for the restoration of lawful authority in that country, have resolved, and do, by and with the advice of our Privy Council, hereby command, that a public Day of solemn Fast, Humiliation, and Prayer be observed throughout those parts of our United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Wednesday, 7th day of October next, that so both we and our people may humble ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain pardon of our sins, and in the most devout and solemn manner send up our prayers and supplications to the divine Majesty, for imploring his blessing and assistance on our arms for therestoration of tranquillity; and we strictly charge and command that the said day be reverently and devoutly observed by our loving subjects in England and Ireland, as they tender the favor of Almighty God: And for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, we have given directions to the Most Rev. the Archbishops, and the Right Rev. the Bishops of England and Ireland to compose a form of prayer suitable to this occasion, to be used in all churches, chapels, and places of public worship, and to take care that the same be timely dispersed throughout their respective dioceses.

Given at our court at Balmoral, this 24th day of September, in the year of our Lord, 1857, and in the 21st year of our reign. God save the Queen.

(By a similar proclamation the same day is appointed for prayer in Scotland.)

PROVINCE OF NOVA SCOTIA.

PROCLAMATION.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY MAJOR GENERAL SIR JOHN GASPARD LEMARCHANT,

Knight, Knight Commander of the Orders of Saint Ferdinand, and of Charles the Third of Spain, Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief in and over Her Majesty's Province of Nova Scotia and its Dependencies, &c. &c. &c.

J. GASPARD LE MARCHANT.

HER Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, having appointed a day of Fast, Humiliation and Prayer, in the United Kingdom, in consequence of the calamitous events in India, and I deeming it proper that Her loyal subjects in Nova Scotia should unite in a similar observance, have resolved, and do, by the advice of the Executive Council, recommend that a public day of solemn Fast, Humiliation and Prayer be observed throughout the Province of Nova Scotia, on FRIDAY, the Thirtieth day of October instant, that so we may humble ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain pardon of our sins; and in the most devout and solemn manner send up our prayers and supplications to the Divine Majesty for imploring His blessing and assistance on our Arms for the restoration of tranquillity.

The Venerable the Archdeacon; in the absence of the Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia, will, as hath been usual on former occasions, compose a form of Prayer suitable to this occasion, to be used in the Church over which he presides.

Given under my hand and Seal at Arms, at Halifax, this twenty-first day of October, in the Twenty-first year of Her Majesty's Reign, A. D. 1857.

By His Excellency's Command, CHARLES TUPPER.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!
