THE AYLESFORD UNION:-

quoted Scripture. He was faint with long abatinence, the temptation was of greatest force, but in his thands, the sword of the Spirit put. to- flight the cnemy. - From this one instance, the weak, inexperienced child ${ }^{4}{ }^{4} \div G$ Gd, trembling with apprehension, learns his lesson of battle. You may. fight. all hell's forces, with the prince of power of the air at their head, and conquer them, provided only that you depend upon God's strength, and use God's worl. The "writer, in his" earliest Christian life, was hard pressed by the temptation to believe that aill men would be saved, that God would not condemn any to die eternally. 'After' much prayer, he decided to leave it to God's word. He then read Matt. 25: 46. Thet settled the temptation, once for all. jesus says so, that is enongh.

Amherst, N. S.

What Think Ye of Christ?

"Pharisees, with what have ye to

"He eateth with publicans and sinners."
"Is that all?"
"Yes.".
"And you, Cairphas, what say you of him?"
"He is guilty; he is a blasphemer because he said: 'Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right haud of power and coming in the clouds of heaven. $r$ r...
"Pilate, ". what is your opinion?".
"I find no fault in this mau."
"And ýou,Judas, why have you sold your Master for silver-have you some fearful charge to hurl against bim?"
"I have sinned, in that I have betrayed thè innocent blood."
"And you, centurion and soldier, who led him to the cross, what have you to suy against him ?"
"I'suly, this was the Son of (xod."
"And you, demons?"
"He is the Son of God."
"Johu Baptist, what think you of Christ?"
"Behold the Lamb of God."
"And you, John the Apostle?"
"He is the bright and morning star."
"Peter, what say you of your Masier?"
"Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living Göd."
"And you, Thomas?"
"My Lórd and my. God."
"Paul. you have. persecuted him; what testify you of him?'"
"I count'all things bat loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Jesus. Christ my Lord."
"Angels of herven, what think ye of Jesus?"
"Unto you is born a Saviour, which" is Christ the Lord."
"And thon, Father in beaven, who: knowest all things?"
"This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

Beloved reader, what think you of Cbrist?-'Translated from the Spanish, in The Standard.

A Glimpse of Buffalo.

There are few cities, if any, in the United States, where the summers are more delightful than in Buffalo, where our great Convention is to be held this year. The cool breezes from Lake Erie temper the heat and maka the air genial and refreshing. The leaves upon the trees keep their freshness. The grass on the trim aud well-kept lawns does not dry up and wither. The flowers in the gardens are bright with blossoms. In such a city there is little need of parks. Yet Buffalo has a beautiful park system over which it is a delight to ride or stroll.' 'There are broad stretches of meadow and fine spreading elm tree3, with ornamental shrubbery and cosy nooks aud bridle paths.: In some phaces the views are so thoroughly rural that one forgets the stir and noise of the city and almost imagines himself in the quiet country. We hope many of our young people will try it for hemselves this summer.-Baptist Union.

A Suspicious Rat-hole.

It is told that a New lork firm applied to Abraham Lincoln some years before he became president for information as to the fiuaucial struding of one of his neighbors. Mr. Lincoln replied as follows:
"Yours of the 10 th, - inst., received. I am well acquainted with Mr. X, anc ${ }^{2}$ know his circumstances. First of all, he has a wife aud baby; together they:
ought to be worth 850,000 . Secondly, bo bas an office, in which there are a. table worth one and a lialf dollars; and three chairs, worth, say, one dollar. Last of all, there is in one corder a large rat-hole, which will bear looking into."-Presbyterian.

One of the greatest difficulties in. teaching children is their liability to turn parrots. A Sunday-school teacher iwas trying receutly: to get from her pupils the names of the three Hebrew children who were cast into the fiery furnace. At last a little fellow raised his hand. "Very well, Jimmie," said the teacher, "you tell us who they" were.', And the little fellow answered: '‘They were I-shac,-ma'am, au' You-shac, an' Me-stac, an'-an'-an' All-in-the-bed-we-go."-Bible Reader.

Copied from the Minstar.

TENEBRAE.

By the Lokd Bishop of Deaby and Raphoy.
Sayest thon then to ull who will to hearken,-
"The saint's star grows not dim,
But still through clouds that climh and deeps that darken,
Is visible to Him-
Still when the sunset comes He taketh. order,
To whom the right belongs
To send His own away across the border, Silvery and with songs?r.

Nay! God prepares the Kings for coronation,
Not as might yon or 1 ,
And being Fiondrous, Forks his prepars-
For Kingship, wourdrously.
Not aiways is the triumph of thesainting,
That which our hearts expect,
Tearfully, roughly; doubtingly, and faint ing,
How many souls elect-
P3ss out from bence within the lifteil cartain:- --
Rooghly into the smooth,
Doubtfully into the forerer certain, The circumfulgent truth !

Tearfully, tearfullr, becoming tearless,
When trouble's all but o'er;
Faiuting, when well they might at last be fearless,
Seeing they touch the shore;
Questioning hard by the school unemulous,
Where half our questions cease,
Scarcely a bow-shot oft their beds-and tremulous-
Upon the verge of peace:
ilcad drooping just before the crown is itted,
Eyes dim at break of day,
Feet walbing icebly through the meariows wetted

