THE
ETHICS OF LITERARY ART

By MAURICE THOMPSON.

Carew Lectures for 1893.

THESE lectures, by a distinguished poet and critic, are unusually brilliant and pithy in style. They discuss, with freedom and downright common sense, the current question of the moral influence of literary works, especially fiction, and the general relation of literature to Christian civilization. The excesses of "the realistic school" are handled with manly vigor, and the claims of a true Christian idealism strongly upheld.

A book for every library, private and public, and a beautiful gift-book.

Elegantly printed on extra heavy paper, bound in dark-blue cloth, gilt top, untrimmed.

Price, $1.20, postpaid.

Keep pushing, 'tis wiser than sitting aside
And sighing, and watching, and waiting the tide;
In life's earnest battle they only prevail
Who daily march onward and never say fail.
