

cal men. If the views which may be promulgated meet with their endorsement they subsequently might be presented for adoption by our various Canadian Medical Societies. Certainly the subject is one which commends itself to the older members of the profession, especially in our larger cities, where now-a-days medical ethics is rarely heard of, and but little acted upon. The managers in Paris are making every endeavor to arrange for the comfort of those attending, and the Secretary has sent out circulars recommending agencies. These undertake for very moderate prices to obtain rooms in advance, from 6 francs per day up, and to meet the member of the Congress at the station on arrival, look after the transport of the baggage to the lodgings, afford interpreters and so on. Such, for example, are the Agence Desroches, 21 Rue du Faubourg Montmartre ; La Société des Voyages Duchemin, 20 Rue de Grammont ; Voyages Pratiques, 9 Rue de Rome and the Voyages Modernes, Rue de L'Echelle, No. 1, Paris. All these different agencies are strongly recommended by the officials of the Congress.

Dr. J. G. Adami, of Montreal, is the member for Canada of what is called "The Committee of Patronage."

THE MINISTER OF MILITIA.

It must be a source of pride to all Canadian Medical men that a medical man—the Hon. Dr. Borden—who is Minister of Militia, has proved so efficient in the working of his department, in connection with the various contingents which Canada has sent to the war in South Africa. Few could have done as well, and certainly none better. The first contingent, collected as representative of our Militia from the Pacific to the Atlantic Ocean, sailed from Quebec fourteen days from the date of the issue of the first order for its formation. We can form an idea—from this promptness—how hard the Minister must have worked, and how ready for an emergency is his department. We hope to, in time, see some official recognition of this work. In the meantime, he may be assured that the country and medical profession recognize the splendid work he has done.
