

wait - ing in some dis - tant land And he sees her a - far, in her loved ones he ne'er more will see Then the heart grows sad, and our home be - side the sea, On - ly waiting for the turning of the tide — of the tide.

 eyes with pi - ty fill, At the sto - ry of the turning of the tide — of the tide.

REFRAIN.

Waiting for the tide to turn, Waiting for the tide to turn, Sva.

Waiting, Waiting, Waiting for the tide to turn.