The Canadian public ought to encourage the Dominion Illustrated, which loses no opportunity of bringing Canada to the front—its resources, its scenery, its leading men, its national and social life. The last issue (Sept. 7) devotes some well-filled pages to the illustration of the annual games of the Montreal Caledonian Society, and also gives portraits of its president and vice-president. All Canadians will be proud of the record of Miss Gregory, B. A., Mus.-Bac., and of that of Sergeant-Major Rogers, winner of the Governor-General's gold medal at Kingston Military College. The Dominion Illustrated is published by the Dominion Illustrated Publishing Company, of which Mr. G. E. Desbarats is managing-director, at 73 St. James Street, Montreal.
