For the Season of 1892 and 3, we will give Teachers special prices for

PIANOS & ORGANS,

Which can be selected from the largest stock now on sale in the Lower Provinces. Our continual and uninterrupted Piano Business for the last thirty years, with the fact that we continue to lead in the magnitude and character of our goods, should make our prices very much lower than can be had clsewhere. In fact the piano trade, as well as the public gen erally, know quite well that by calling at the warerooms of C. FLOOD & SONS they can get the best goods and an immense stock to select from. Teachers can rely on the best treatment and the most liberal terms of payment by calling personally or ordering by letter, which can be sure of prompt attention.

Catalogues, Terms of payment and every information furnished on application.

Subscribers should promptly notify the REVIEW of change of address, giving old as well as new address. Communications from New Brunswick should be addressed EDUCATIONAL REVIEW, St. John; from Nova Scotia and Newfoundland to W. T. Kennedy, Academy, Halifax; from Prince Edward Island to J. D. Seaman, Charlottetown.

It is hardly necessary to urge upon the teachers the necessity for the pupils to study current events, so that when they go out into the world they may be intelligent actors in its affairs. The pupils now in the schools are to be the future voters and office holders, and it is the duty of the teacher to see that they are acquainted with all matters of current interest. Increased attention is being given to this subject in the schools in these provinces. The REVIEW intends tc help along such an excellent movement, and the better to do so is making clubbing arrangements with the publishers of Our Times-a bright 16 page paper entirely devoted to current events-by which that paper can be obtained by all subscribers to the REVIEW at a merely nominal cost. Full announcements will be made in the December REVIEW, which will be a special number sent to many outside of those embraced in its large subscription list.

The increased attention given to kindergarten methods both in the primary schools and in homes, brings many inquiries where the cheapest material may be obtained. It is not generally known that Messrs. Selby & Co., whose advertisement in another column, has been before the readers of the Review for several years, are perhaps the only dealers in the Dominion who keep a complete supply of kindergarten material. That their business is on the increase
