

ARTICLE 1

1. In this Convention the following terms shall mean:

(a) "Race" shall mean the various human groups defined by their physical characteristics, such as skin colour, hair texture and facial features;

(b) "Discrimination" shall mean any distinction, exclusion, restriction or preference based on race which has the purpose or effect of nullifying or impairing the equal enjoyment of the rights of the individual;

(c) "Racial discrimination" shall mean any distinction, exclusion, restriction or preference based on race which is prohibited by this Convention.

2. The term "racial discrimination" shall include the following:

(a) Denial of equal treatment with other members of the community in the enjoyment of political, economic, social, cultural, religious and other rights;

(b) Segregation in public places, educational institutions, health services, housing, employment and other spheres of public life;

(c) Restrictions on the free movement of persons and on the right to change their place of residence;

(d) Restrictions on the right to marry and to found a family;

(e) Restrictions on the right to own property, to inherit, to acquire and to dispose of movable and immovable property;

(f) Restrictions on the right to work, to choose one's occupation, to join trade unions and to participate in workers' organisations;

(g) Restrictions on the right to equal access to education and to the same opportunities for professional advancement;

(h) Restrictions on the right to equal access to public places and facilities, to public services and to the same opportunities for participation in cultural, religious and social activities;

(i) Restrictions on the right to equal access to public places and facilities, to public services and to the same opportunities for participation in cultural, religious and social activities;

(j) Restrictions on the right to equal access to public places and facilities, to public services and to the same opportunities for participation in cultural, religious and social activities;

(k) Restrictions on the right to equal access to public places and facilities, to public services and to the same opportunities for participation in cultural, religious and social activities;

(l) Restrictions on the right to equal access to public places and facilities, to public services and to the same opportunities for participation in cultural, religious and social activities;