

ARTICLE 24

Adherences

This Convention shall be open to adherence by all non-signatory American countries.

ARTICLE 25

Divisibility of Convention

The ratifications or adherences to the present Convention may refer to totality thereof or to two or more of its parts; provided, that, in every case Parts One and Four (Conferences and General Provisions) be ratified or adhered to.

ARTICLE 26

Reports of Ratifications and Adherences

On June 1, 1938, and subsequently at intervals of six months, the depository government shall request those governments of the Americas which may not have ratified or adhered to this Convention, to report regarding such ratification or adherence. These reports shall be communicated to all the other governments of the American Continent.

ARTICLE 27

Denunciation

(A) This Convention may be denounced in its entirety, or Parts Two and Three separately, by notice addressed to the depository government. This notice shall become effective one year after date of receipt thereof, and shall be effective only for the government denouncing.

(B) The depository government shall notify all the governments of the States of the Americas of the denunciations received.

ARTICLE 28

Languages

The present Convention has been drafted in Spanish, English, Portuguese and French, all of which shall be authentic.

ARTICLE 29

Special Agreements

The contracting governments reserve for themselves the right to make special or regional agreements which do not concern the governments in general. These agreements, however, must be within the limits of this Convention and the Regulations annexed thereto so far as concerns the interference which may result from such agreements with the services of the other countries.

ARTICLE 30

Codification

At future conferences all provisions of this Convention remaining unchanged shall be included with the new provisions that may be adopted.
