

- f) a statement of the estimated time expected to elapse before a final confiscation order may be given in the Requesting State; the Requesting State shall advise the Requested State of any alteration in this respect;
  - g) where the Requested State so requires, a statement describing the evidence which would be available for proceedings in the Requested State; and
  - h) where a confiscation order has been made, a copy of that order.
4. In addition to the requirements of paragraph 1, a request for the confiscation of proceeds of crime or the enforcement of a confiscation order shall include or be accompanied by:
- a) where available, a copy of any order made in the Requesting State relating to the proceeds of crime, including a confiscation order or an order imposing a fine or pecuniary penalty, and a statement that neither the order nor any conviction to which it relates is subject to appeal and that the order, but for the location of the property, would be enforceable in the Requesting State;
  - b) a description of the property to which the measures of confiscation are to be applied, including its location, and its connection to any offence and any person against whom an order referred to in subparagraph (a) has been made; and
  - c) such evidence as may be required by the Requested State.
5. If the Requested State considers that the information contained in the request is not sufficient to enable the request to be dealt with, that Party may request that additional details be furnished.
6. A request shall be made by any means affording a record in writing. Where electronic means of transmission are used, the original of the request shall be transmitted as soon as possible. In urgent circumstances or where otherwise permitted by the Requested State, a request may be made orally but shall be confirmed in writing promptly thereafter.
