Mr. GOTT: I was paired with the hon. member for Kent, Ontario (Mr. Rutherford). Had I voted I would have voted against the amendment to the amendment.

Mr. MERCIER (St. Henri): I was paired with the hon. member for West Hamilton (Mr. Bell). Had I voted I would have voted against the amendment to the amendment.

Mr. BOULANGER: I was paired with the hon. member for Lake St. John (Mr. Duguay). Had I voted I would have voted against the amendment to the amendment.

Mr. MERCIER (Laurier-Outremont): I was paired with the hon. member for South Toronto (Mr. Geary). Had I voted I would have voted against the amendment to the amendment.

Mr. McGILLIS: I was paired with the hon. member for St. Mary (Mr. Deslauriers). Had I voted I would have voted against the amendment to the amendment.

Mr. SPEAKER: Is the house ready for the question?

Some hon. MEMBERS: Question.

Mr. SPEAKER: The vote is on the amendment to the main motion.

Mr. J. S. WOODSWORTH (Winnipeg North Centre): Mr. Speaker, it is not my intention to delay the house for more than a few minutes, but to-night the Prime Minister brought into the debate the organization known as the League for Social Reconstruction. As I happen to be the honorary president of that league—

Some hon. MEMBERS: Oh, oh.
[Mr. Neill.]

Mr. WOODSWORTH: Mr. Speaker, you were good enough to defend the Prime Minister against disorder a little while ago; I must ask for the same right.

Mr. SPEAKER: Unless the hon. member wishes the vote to go over until to-morrow it will be necessary to have unanimous consent to proceed after eleven o'clock.

Mr. MACKENZIE KING: Unanimous consent.

Some hon. MEMBERS: Go ahead!

Mr. WOODSWORTH: Mr. Speaker, as I happen to be the honorary president of the organization, I feel it incumbent upon me to clear it of some of the aspersions that have been cast upon it by the Prime Minister. I am not certain whether or not Mr. Massey is a member of the society, but I do not imagine he is. However, the Prime Minister sought to make a great deal of political capital out of the fact that apparently Mr. Massey had left in the city of Calgary a copy of the manifesto issued by this organization. As a matter of fact—

An hon. MEMBER: Massey's in de cold, cold ground.

Mr. WOODSWORTH: The hon. gentleman does not like it and I have no doubt the Prime Minister does not like it either. I will make my speech, and I will take my time to make it. I have already told the house that I intended to take only a few minutes. If hon. members opposite will do me the courtesy of maintaining order I will be brief. I say the Prime Minister has brought in the name of Mr. Massey—

An hon. MEMBER: You told us that.

Mr. WOODSWORTH:—and linked with it the League for Social Reconstruction. An effort was made apparently to show there was something very curious about this league; that it represented a new political alignment of some kind, that this manifesto was delivered to the faithful after a lecture had been given to the Canadian Club, and all that kind of thing. Now, as a matter of fact, as I attempted to say in a word to the Prime Minister, the organization of this society was publicly announced some time ago. The organization was commented upon and the manifesto published in the April number of the Canadian Forum. The Canadian Forum is quite a reputable journal published in Toronto by J. M. Dent and Sons. It is obvious that the Prime Minister and his immediate associates do not read such journals as the Canadian Forum. I know in some
