

fixed with the num
represent
ved and e
to repres
represent
n millime
s of anal
the numbe
as from le s, and 4 sp
the sum of

4, 23½, 24½

representin
number of
7. The exte
any two p
. Now it w
is quite sha
and lateral
in the midd
separated
he species
s merge into

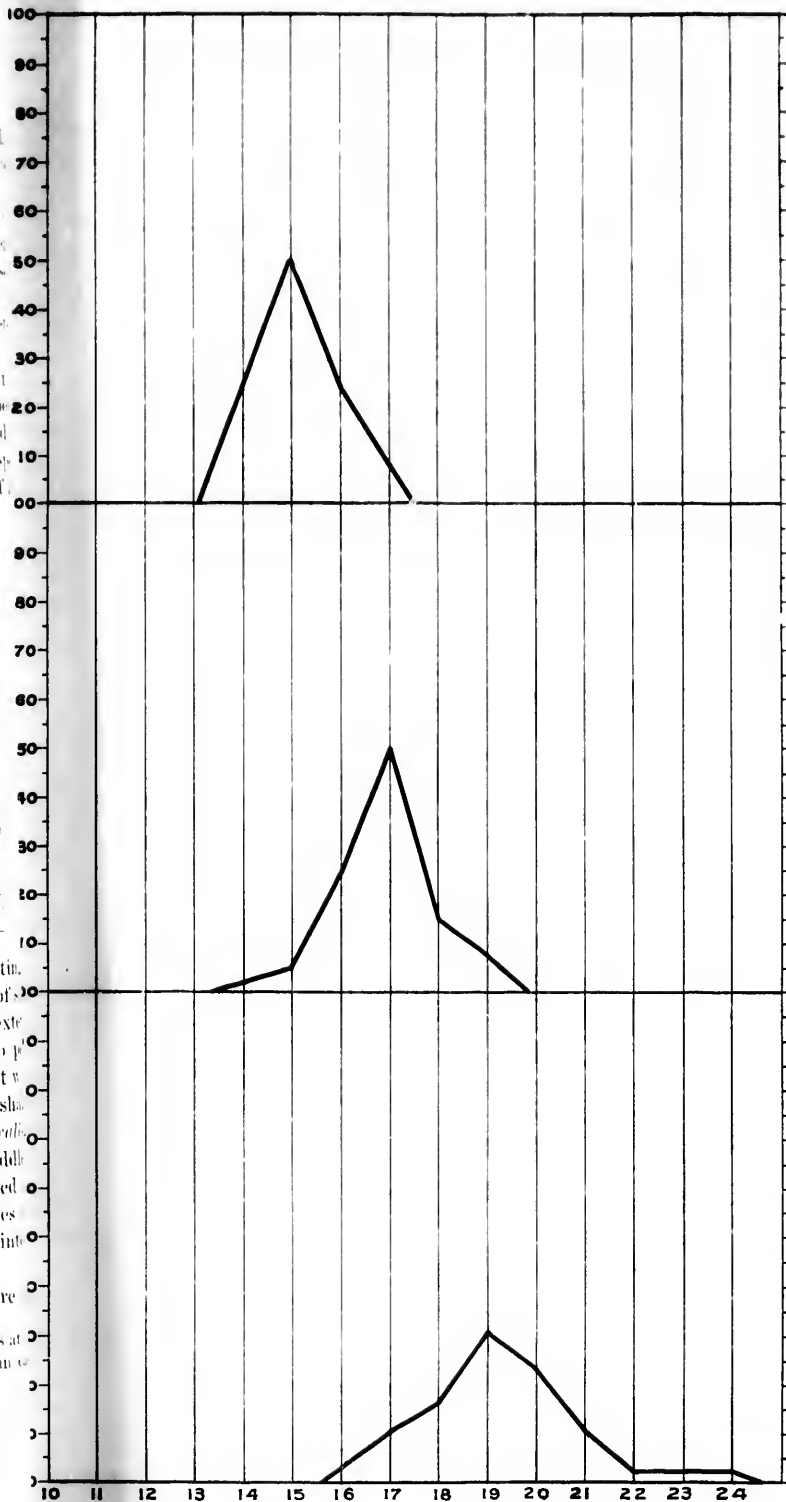

as it were

millimeters at e curve can be

Griffin Lake; altitude,
1,900 feet.

Sicamous; altitude,
1,300 feet.

Mission; altitude, 4 feet.

LOCALITY CURVES OF THE ANAL FIN OF LEUCISCUS LATERALIS AND BALTEATUS IN THE FRASER BASIN.

Below are given the anal rays, on the left the percents to 100. The curves represent the percents of specimens having the given number of anal rays. At Mission the greatest percent have 19 anal rays, at Sicamous 17, and at Griffin Lake 15.