

of the Sacred Heart, in order that he may find among other advantages, the encouragement of good example, which he so greatly needs.

96. What other advantages do those societies offer?

That of faithfully performing one's religious duties, the grace of the sacraments of Penance and Holy Eucharist being the best means of supporting good resolutions.

97. Should not a young man who loves his country also love Sobriety?

To be a true patriot, a young man should also love Sobriety, because it assures national as well as individual prosperity.

98. Are you determined never to drink spirituous liquors?

Yes, I am firmly resolved never to drink spirituous liquors, and it is with a determined will that I take this resolution.

END.