

THE FREEHOLD

Permanent Building and Savings Society,

TORONTO,

INCORPORATED APRIL, 1859, PURSUANT TO THE ACT OF THE PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE,

9TH VICTORIA, CHAP. 90, AND AMENDMENTS.

Shares, $100 each, payable either in Advance or by Monthly Instalments.

DIRECTORS.

WILLIAM McMASTER, Esq., PRESIDENT.

WILLIAM P. HOWLAND, Esq., M.P.P., VICE-PRESIDENT.

GEORGE MICHIE, Esq.

WILLIAM HENDERSON, Esq.

LAWRENCE HEYDEN, Esq.

JAMES AUSTIN, Esq.

ALEXANDER MURRAY, Esq.

JOHN EWART, Esq.

JOHN BOYD, Esq.

This Society is now in full operation, under the Management of the above-named Directors, who desire to draw the attention of the public to the advantages offered for the profitable employment of Capital either deposited with the Society, or invested in Stock, as it combines the best security with a high rate of interest, and is well calculated to supply the want so generally felt in Toronto of a central and reliable

SAVINGS BANK

Deposits of $10 and upwards will be received, and interest allowed at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum.

Depositors may withdraw their money at any time, in accordance with the Rules of the Society.

Men of capital, who frequently have large sums remaining either entirely unproductive, or yielding but a small percentage, will readily understand the advantages offered them by this Society. The Directors, in organizing the Institution, were actuated, principally, by the desire of inducing habits of economy among the industrious classes, who are now invited to make the trial of what can be done towards providing for declining years and other contingencies in their families, by depositing a small portion of their earnings in the Society, which, with the interest allowed, will be found to accumulate much more rapidly than is generally imagined.

The Shares of the Society, being only $100 each, present a favorable opportunity of investment for those desirous of securing a large permanent yearly income, removed from all the fluctuations of trade.

In thus presenting the claims of the Society to the public, the Directors feel justified in stating, that the safety of Investments and Deposits are placed beyond a doubt, being based on real estate security of the first class.

Further particulars may be learned on application at the Office,

Corner of King and Toronto Streets.

CHARLES ROBERTSON,

Secretary.

TORONTO, August, 1859.