A Big Clearance of Boys' Tweed and Blue Cotton Serge Suits, Today, $3.95

Generally speaking it's a hard proposition to clothe the boy cheaply these days. However, this offering will solve the suit item in a most satisfactory manner. For it furnishes you with an opportunity for getting a good suit at little expense. And the lad himself will be pleased with these suits, for they are good fitting, well modelled and attractive. The tweed suits are broken lines of previous specials, while the blues are special purchase, consisting of strong wearing blue cotton serge. The tweeds have loose belts at the waist, plain coats, patch pockets, and lined throughout. The serges have knife pleats in front and back, sewn belts and yokes. The pants are well tailored and good wearing. These are selling at less than what they would cost to produce, therefore we cannot promise to fill phone or mail orders. Extra special today, $3.95.

Boys' Suspender Rompers, Today, 49c
 Most people think that the romper is the only thing for children—especially in summer. For they are cool, comfortable and easily washed—a great asset, indeed, as children so easily and so often soil their clothes. These are in mixed, light or dark shades of blue, with plain or cluster white stripes. They have plain red or blue trimmings, belt, and strap over the shoulders. Sizes 2 to 6 years. Special, pair, 49c. —Main Floor, Queen Street.
