An Epoch in Canada's Industrial History

THE House of Hobblerlin, Limited, has the pleasure of announcing the adoption of a forty-hour week of five days, giving the whole of Saturday to its employees ALL THE YEAR AROUND, commencing June 1st, 1919.

IN making this announcement before a meeting of directors and heads of departments in the Hobblerlin organization, Mr. A. M. Hobblerlin the president, pointed out that the House of Hobblerlin were THE FIRST TAILORING ORGANIZATION in Canada to adopt the forty-four hour week in January, 1906.

Wants an Auto Speedway Says Horse Racing Crael

Sporting Editor The Toronto World: After reading about the auto races in the States and the Yanks breaking the records, it makes you mad to think that we haven't even a speedway to try our luck. A speedway would soon be a fact. It would be something exciting like that. Horse racing is cruel, a thing of the past. Hoping you will help along this project and boost auto racing in Canada. An Interested Driver.
