

FEAR OF YELLOW JACK.

Continued From Page 1.

QUANTANAMO REDUCED.

Blick Fort and Earthworks Battered Down by the Texas, Marbled Head and Suvanance.

Camp McClellan, Guantanamo Bay, Wednesday, June 15, via Kingston, Jamaica, Thursday, June 16.—The brick fort and earthworks at Caimanera, at the end of the railroad leading to the city of Guantanamo, were demolished to-day by the bombardment of the Texas, Marbled Head and Suvanance. The warships opened a fire at 2 p.m., and the bombardment lasted one hour and thirty minutes.

The Texas steamed slowly up the channel leading to the fortifications, followed closely by the Marbled Head. The Texas fired two shots at range-finders, both falling short and to the right. The Marbled Head stood off to the east side of the channel and opened with her main battery, firing at the fort. The Texas then fired at the fort, knocking down part of the wall. The Texas then fired at the fort, knocking down part of the wall. The Texas then fired at the fort, knocking down part of the wall.

After badly damaging the fort the Marbled Head stood farther in to shell the earthworks and barracks at the west end of the harbor. She knocked down a new wall, and when the Spaniards fled from the fort, they were shelled by the St. Paul and driven into the bushes. The Spaniards fired only five shots, which did no damage.

After the ships stood out into the harbor the Spaniards in the bush opened fire on the Marbled Head's launch, which replied vigorously. The Suvanance then turned back and shelled the bushes, driving the Spaniards inland.

GUERRILLAS LIKE APACHES.

Make Night Attacks Upon the Americans—Nervous Troops Waste Ammunition Firing at Shadows.

On board the Associated Press dispatch boat Danitsea, Guantanamo Bay, Tuesday, June 14, noon, via Kingston, Jamaica, June 15.—The landing of this small detachment of marines, mostly new men, in the enemy's country, has taught some lessons to the officers and men here, and, possibly, also to the authorities at Washington. The Spaniards are not to be taken for pushovers, and it has proven that every American camp must be compactly built and well protected to resist night attacks as though in the Apache country. It has developed several small details in the navy under service conditions, and it has shown that given a free rein with repeating rifles 500 nervous troops can make 10,000 rounds of ammunition, kill shadows in a single night, and not think even then that they have done much shooting. Through the sixteen dead Spaniards found by Lieut. Neville's men were regular uniforms, most of them seen in daylight attacks were scarcely anything new, but the plantation leaves around their foreheads in lieu of hats. This acted as an effective disguise in the darkness, and striped to a pair of dirt-colored trousers, tied branches around their waists, reaching shoulder high, and moving very easily, they could even cross open ground without being detected, though some of them were caught at the same.

A STRAIGHT POINTER.

United States Will Not Permit German Troops to Be Landed on the Philippines.

London, June 16.—The Berlin correspondent of The Star telegraphs from the German capital, via London, that the United States Embassy declares to me that the United States will not permit German troops to be landed in the Philippine Islands. The Germans, the Americans add, have as little right to occupy any part of the Philippine Islands as they have to occupy New York, and Manila and the Philippine Islands, they point out, are now and will remain United States territory.

Only an Attitude of Surveillance.

The Berlin correspondent of The Daily Mail says: "The Berlin press is in a state of agitation, and the attitude of the United States is one of surveillance of German interests, and that the Philippines are lost to Spain they will not come into the possession of any single power interested in East Asia."

ATHLETIC RECRUITS.

Some of Uncle Sam's Most Muscular Men Have Started Out to Fight Spaniards.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 17.—The train leaving the Baltimore & Ohio station for the South at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon carried a fine body of recruits designed to fill the ranks of Battery A, Pennsylvania volunteers, now doing duty at Newport News, Va., under the command of Barclay H. Warburton, of this city. The recruits are 23 in number and among them are some of the finest athletes that have ever been known in Pennsylvania, Yale, Lafayette, Lehigh and Cornell Universities to victory on land and water. Included in the party were: John M. Longacre, ex-member of the Yale crew and football team; John M. Ruegenberg, jr., ex-captain and stroke of the University of Pennsylvania crew and all-around athlete; William B. Duncan, ex-member of the State football team; Charles C. Bacon, ex-member University of Pennsylvania track team; William E. Kent, member of the Harvard crew of '95 and the Crimson's track team; Thomas A. Hickey, ex-member of the Lafayette football and track teams; J. J. Schoff, ex-member of the University of Pennsylvania football team; Milton W. Hug, ex-member of the University of Pennsylvania baseball team; Hiram Miller, jr., ex-member of the track team, Lehigh University; George D. D. Miller, ex-member of the football team, Cornell and crew Yale University; Frederick Kernochan, ex-member of the track team of Yale and all-around athlete; John W. Logan, ex-member of the football, baseball and track teams of Lafayette College; Hiram E. Doring, president of the "Cloister" Club of Yale University and ex-member of the football team and crew.

FIGHTING IN THE PHILIPPINES.

Skirmishes Are Taking Place Day and Night—Bravery of Spaniards.

Madrid, June 16.—10 a.m.—Admiral received here to-day by The Liberal from Manila, under date of June 6, practically repeat the news contained in the dispatch of June 15 from the Shanghai correspondent.

The London Daily Telegraph, that on June 5 the insurgents forced the passage of the Zapote River and captured Las Plenas and Banaqui, since which time the fighting between the insurgents and the Spaniards was continuous, and the latter were being gradually driven into Cheu Bay, and the Spanish correspondent also says: "The fighting continues incessantly. There are skirmishes at intervals day and night, and lack of provisions has compelled the Spaniards to yield at certain points. Both ammunition and food are most scarce. Nevertheless, the Spaniards are animated by the best spirit and are fighting heroically. The wounded, who are crowding the churches and convents, have been placed under the protection of the Red Cross. The Jesuits are seeking places of refuge in the Province of Batavia, and the sisters are fleeing to the Province of La Gona."

"It is not expected that Manila will capitulate until the American troops arrive."

What Britain Must Do.

London, June 16.—The Daily Mail says: "If a new European concert is patched up against the United States, we must not delay to declare ourselves on the side of America. It is to be hoped that if Germany attempts a demonstration at Manila the British will be at hand with one or two of its fine ships to make the demonstration nugatory and ridiculous."

The Daily Chronicle, referring to the report that the United States will send a fleet against Cadiz and Barcelona, says: "The Spaniards will not fail to make use of the sensitivities which the United States would do better to let sleep. It will be time when Santiago de Cuba and San Juan de Puerto Rico have fallen."

Significant Movements.

Berlin, June 16.—Advices received here to-day say that the German transport Darmstadt has arrived at Kiao Chou Bay, and that the second-class cruiser Princess Wilhelm sailed yesterday from Nagasaki for Manila.

Doomed to Disappointment.

London, June 16.—The Berlin correspondent of The Standard says: "The Spanish hopes of a German demonstration at Manila are doomed to disappointment. Even if Germany were willing to grant Germany a point d'appui (a base), with a view of inducing her to interfere, it would come to nothing, while others than Germany will undoubtedly claim a point d'appui if Spain loses the Philippines."

Spanish Troops Deserting.

New York, June 16.—A Key West dispatch says: Junta advices from the headquarters of the Cuban Civil Government at La Guajana, in Camaguey, report that more than five thousand Spanish volunteers and many regulars from Puerto Principe and Santa Clara have deserted to the patriot army. The immediate cause of desertion was the fear of the American fleet. Santa Clara has been devastated by the Cubans and communication by rail has been established with Jamaica.

Anarchist Sentenced to Death.

Paris, June 16.—Elephant, the anarchist, who, on Jan. 10, last, during a demonstration growing out of the Dr. F. J. agitation and the Zola trial, attacked M. Renaud, an agent of the Paris police, inflicting some twenty wounds on him with a knife, has been sentenced to death.

China Is Advancing.

Peking, June 16.—An Imperial decree has been issued sanctioning the creation of the office of Minister of Trade. The decree also instructs the Tsung-Li-Yamen (Chinese Foreign Office) to provide facilities for the sons of noblemen to be sent abroad to be used of facilitating future international intercourse.

Canada and the Spaniards.

St. Thomas, Ont., June 17.—Louis Preffer, aged 70, and very deaf, a well-known resident of St. Thomas, was riding in the afternoon yesterday across the Air Line track at the second crossing west of the bridge over the river. He was struck by an eastbound Wabash freight train and killed. It is thought he did not hear the approach of the train.

Sentenced to Death.

Paris, June 17.—Elephant, the anarchist, who, on Jan. 10, last, during the anti-Jew demonstration growing out of the Dr. F. J. agitation and the Zola trial, attacked M. Renaud, an agent of the Paris police, inflicting some twenty wounds on him with a knife, has been sentenced to death.

Castelar on the Pope.

London, June 17.—The Madrid correspondent telegraphs an interview with Senator Emilio Castelar, the distinguished Republican statesman in the Province of Alicante. Castelar thinks that the Pope acted in a manner hostile to Spain in proposing to President McKinley that peace should be made on the basis of a non-interference of the independence of Cuba, the cessation of Porto Rico by Spain and the pledging of the Philippines to the United States pending the payment of an enormous sum of money.

FOOD SUPPLIES FOR CUBA.

Kingston, Jamaica, June 16.—A Base for Supplying Both Cuban Armies.

New York, June 17.—A dispatch from Kingston, Jamaica, to the Evening Telegram says: "A heavy cargo of food supplies has been landed here by the steamer Castle Edin, from New York. The cargo bears similar marks to that of the cargo of the city of Kingston, which has been transferred to the Purissima Concepcion."

"The cargo on the Castle Edin was shipped by the same people—Llera & Roa, of New York—who furnished the cargo of the city of Kingston."

"The Purissima Concepcion will sail probably to-morrow. She has obtained an English captain, Alexander Hennie, who is a Spanish naval officer, was aboard the Twickenham, but had landed at some port before her capture. Strong protests have been made by Mr. Dent, the American Consul, against the ship being made the base for the shipment of provisions and supplies to the Spanish troops in Cuba."

"Many Spanish ships which have called recently have been allowed to change to British register, and to take on cargo for Cuban ports. These, in many instances, have been landed at Batambano and sent by railway to Manzanillo, consigned to private persons, but later sold to the Spanish consular agents."

"The British cruiser Talbot sailed to-day for Nassau. She will go again to Havana to take off refugees, at the request of Mr. Gollan, the British Consul."

COWAN-AVENUE CHURCH TO MOVE.

From Their Present Site Within Two Years—Holding of the General Assembly.

Montreal, June 16.—The dispute between Cowan-avenue and Dunn-avenue Churches, Toronto, was brought up at the Presbyterian General Assembly, when the report of the Committee on the report on "Church Union" was read.

Rev. Mr. Turnbull spoke for the Presbyterian Church in Toronto, and the side of Toronto and Kingston supported the course of the commission in favoring the Cowan-avenue Church to be allowed to stand. R. J. Glasford was followed by Mr. S. H. Bradford of the Cowan-avenue Church, in support of that congregation. Rev. D. C. Hossack, pastor of Dunn-avenue Church, was the last speaker heard on the subject of this morning's sitting, and the most interesting statement made by him was to the effect that the matter was the result of friction in the Dunn-avenue Church. The man who rented Cowan-avenue Church had resigned from Dunn-avenue Church some time before, because he was asked to make a statement regarding certain matters with which his name had been connected. The whole matter was the outcome of a dispute between the two churches. The Dunn-avenue Church was not fair, he said, to put a church, which had been the subject of a long and bitter dispute, in a position of inferiority, while it carried its own debt.

The matter was finally disposed of, after a protracted debate, at the evening session. A motion was made by Principal Forrest of Halifax that the report of the Committee be adopted, and to allow the Cowan-avenue Church to be allowed to stand. The motion was carried, and the Dunn-avenue Church was allowed to stand.

OVERWORKED HIS EMPLOYEES.

A Knitting Factory Proprietor at St. Catharines Fined $10.

St. Catharines, Ont., June 17.—While in the city on Wednesday S. K. Brown, Provincial Inspector of Factories, paid a visit to many of the manufacturers here, and one of the first he visited was the Knitting Factory of St. Catharines. He found that the proprietor, E. R. Watson, was overworking his employees, and fined him $10.

SELECT KNIGHTS SUING.

To Obtain Six Months' Back Assessment From Delinquent Members of the Order.

St. Catharines, June 16.—A case that is exciting a great deal of interest among insurance people is the action which is proceeding to-day before Mr. F. W. Macdonald, Master in Chancery, with regard to the liquidation of the affairs of the Select Knights of Canada.

There are about twenty lawyers from outside the city, including Mr. M. McWatt, Barrie, representing the Select Knight; W. R. Riddell, Q.C., Toronto; J. V. Peetzel, Q.C., Hamilton; W. M. Gorman, Q.C., Toronto; Dr. J. Howard Hunter, Registrar of Insurance, Toronto, and others.

The Select Knights Benefit Society went into compulsory liquidation, there were a large number of persons who had dropped out of the society, one, two or three years, and the receiver of the society is suing the delinquent members for six months' assessments. These parties were not entitled to all the benefits of the society during the time they were suspended, but the society seeks to compel them to pay this amount.

Some of the time of the court was taken up in discussing the merits of the case. Mr. Riddell asked that the defense might be allowed to develop with the case.

The Master decided to allow Mr. Riddell to develop his case, but the society's counsel, and proceeded on the most comprehensive line of defense.

Mr. McWatt, who represented the society, outlined the progress of the society since its incorporation in October, 1883. In October, 1883, the order was registered and remained in force until the year 1887, when the registration was cancelled by the registrar of Friendly Societies. In 1887, a new order was formed, and the old order was dissolved. The new order was a new order, and the old order was dissolved.

Mr. Riddell asked that the defense might be allowed to develop with the case.

The Master decided to allow Mr. Riddell to develop his case, but the society's counsel, and proceeded on the most comprehensive line of defense.

Mr. McWatt, who represented the society, outlined the progress of the society since its incorporation in October, 1883. In October, 1883, the order was registered and remained in force until the year 1887, when the registration was cancelled by the registrar of Friendly Societies. In 1887, a new order was formed, and the old order was dissolved. The new order was a new order, and the old order was dissolved.

Mr. Riddell asked that the defense might be allowed to develop with the case.

The Master decided to allow Mr. Riddell to develop his case, but the society's counsel, and proceeded on the most comprehensive line of defense.

Mr. McWatt, who represented the society, outlined the progress of the society since its incorporation in October, 1883. In October, 1883, the order was registered and remained in force until the year 1887, when the registration was cancelled by the registrar of Friendly Societies. In 1887, a new order was formed, and the old order was dissolved. The new order was a new order, and the old order was dissolved.

Mr. Riddell asked that the defense might be allowed to develop with the case.

The Master decided to allow Mr. Riddell to develop his case, but the society's counsel, and proceeded on the most comprehensive line of defense.

Mr. McWatt, who represented the society, outlined the progress of the society since its incorporation in October, 1883. In October, 1883, the order was registered and remained in force until the year 1887, when the registration was cancelled by the registrar of Friendly Societies. In 1887, a new order was formed, and the old order was dissolved. The new order was a new order, and the old order was dissolved.

Mr. Riddell asked that the defense might be allowed to develop with the case.

The Master decided to allow Mr. Riddell to develop his case, but the society's counsel, and proceeded on the most comprehensive line of defense.

Mr. McWatt, who represented the society, outlined the progress of the society since its incorporation in October, 1883. In October, 1883, the order was registered and remained in force until the year 1887, when the registration was cancelled by the registrar of Friendly Societies. In 1887, a new order was formed, and the old order was dissolved. The new order was a new order, and the old order was dissolved.

Mr. Riddell asked that the defense might be allowed to develop with the case.

The Master decided to allow Mr. Riddell to develop his case, but the society's counsel, and proceeded on the most comprehensive line of defense.

Mr. McWatt, who represented the society, outlined the progress of the society since its incorporation in October, 1883. In October, 1883, the order was registered and remained in force until the year 1887, when the registration was cancelled by the registrar of Friendly Societies. In 1887, a new order was formed, and the old order was dissolved. The new order was a new order, and the old order was dissolved.

Mr. Riddell asked that the defense might be allowed to develop with the case.

The Master decided to allow Mr. Riddell to develop his case, but the society's counsel, and proceeded on the most comprehensive line of defense.

Mr. McWatt, who represented the society, outlined the progress of the society since its incorporation in October, 1883. In October, 1883, the order was registered and remained in force until the year 1887, when the registration was cancelled by the registrar of Friendly Societies. In 1887, a new order was formed, and the old order was dissolved. The new order was a new order, and the old order was dissolved.

Mr. Riddell asked that the defense might be allowed to develop with the case.

The Master decided to allow Mr. Riddell to develop his case, but the society's counsel, and proceeded on the most comprehensive line of defense.

Mr. McWatt, who represented the society, outlined the progress of the society since its incorporation in October, 1883. In October, 1883, the order was registered and remained in force until the year 1887, when the registration was cancelled by the registrar of Friendly Societies. In 1887, a new order was formed, and the old order was dissolved. The new order was a new order, and the old order was dissolved.

Mr. Riddell asked that the defense might be allowed to develop with the case.

The Master decided to allow Mr. Riddell to develop his case, but the society's counsel, and proceeded on the most comprehensive line of defense.

Mr. McWatt, who represented the society, outlined the progress of the society since its incorporation in October, 1883. In October, 1883, the order was registered and remained in force until the year 1887, when the registration was cancelled by the registrar of Friendly Societies. In 1887, a new order was formed, and the old order was dissolved. The new order was a new order, and the old order was dissolved.

Mr. Riddell asked that the defense might be allowed to develop with the case.

The Master decided to allow Mr. Riddell to develop his case, but the society's counsel, and proceeded on the most comprehensive line of defense.

Mr. McWatt, who represented the society, outlined the progress of the society since its incorporation in October, 1883. In October, 1883, the order was registered and remained in force until the year 1887, when the registration was cancelled by the registrar of Friendly Societies. In 1887, a new order was formed, and the old order was dissolved. The new order was a new order, and the old order was dissolved.

Mr. Riddell asked that the defense might be allowed to develop with the case.

The Master decided to allow Mr. Riddell to develop his case, but the society's counsel, and proceeded on the most comprehensive line of defense.

Mr. McWatt, who represented the society, outlined the progress of the society since its incorporation in October, 1883. In October, 1883, the order was registered and remained in force until the year 1887, when the registration was cancelled by the registrar of Friendly Societies. In 1887, a new order was formed, and the old order was dissolved. The new order was a new order, and the old order was dissolved.

Mr. Riddell asked that the defense might be allowed to develop with the case.

The Master decided to allow Mr. Riddell to develop his case, but the society's counsel, and proceeded on the most comprehensive line of defense.

Mr. McWatt, who represented the society, outlined the progress of the society since its incorporation in October, 1883. In October, 1883, the order was registered and remained in force until the year 1887, when the registration was cancelled by the registrar of Friendly Societies. In 1887, a new order was formed, and the old order was dissolved. The new order was a new order, and the old order was dissolved.

Mr. Riddell asked that the defense might be allowed to develop with the case.

The Master decided to allow Mr. Riddell to develop his case, but the society's counsel, and proceeded on the most comprehensive line of defense.

Mr. McWatt, who represented the society, outlined the progress of the society since its incorporation in October, 1883. In October, 1883, the order was registered and remained in force until the year 1887, when the registration was cancelled by the registrar of Friendly Societies. In 1887, a new order was formed, and the old order was dissolved. The new order was a new order, and the old order was dissolved.

Mr. Riddell asked that the defense might be allowed to develop with the case.

The Master decided to allow Mr. Riddell to develop his case, but the society's counsel, and proceeded on the most comprehensive line of defense.

Mr. McWatt, who represented the society, outlined the progress of the society since its incorporation in October, 1883. In October, 1883, the order was registered and remained in force until the year 1887, when the registration was cancelled by the registrar of Friendly Societies. In 1887, a new order was formed, and the old order was dissolved. The new order was a new order, and the old order was dissolved.

Mr. Riddell asked that the defense might be allowed to develop with the case.

The Master decided to allow Mr. Riddell to develop his case, but the society's counsel, and proceeded on the most comprehensive line of defense.

Mr. McWatt, who represented the society, outlined the progress of the society since its incorporation in October, 1883. In October, 1883, the order was registered and remained in force until the year 1887, when the registration was cancelled by the registrar of Friendly Societies. In 1887, a new order was formed, and the old order was dissolved. The new order was a new order, and the old order was dissolved.

Mr. Riddell asked that the defense might be allowed to develop with the case.

The Master decided to allow Mr. Riddell to develop his case, but the society's counsel, and proceeded on the most comprehensive line of defense.

Mr. McWatt, who represented the society, outlined the progress of the society since its incorporation in October, 1883. In October, 1883, the order was registered and remained in force until the year 1887, when the registration was cancelled by the registrar of Friendly Societies. In 1887, a new order was formed, and the old order was dissolved. The new order was a new order, and the old order was dissolved.

Mr. Riddell asked that the defense might be allowed to develop with the case.

The Master decided to allow Mr. Riddell to develop his case, but the society's counsel, and proceeded on the most comprehensive line of defense.

Mr. McWatt, who represented the society, outlined the progress of the society since its incorporation in October, 1883. In October, 1883, the order was registered and remained in force until the year 1887, when the registration was cancelled by the registrar of Friendly Societies. In 1887, a new order was formed, and the old order was dissolved. The new order was a new order, and the old order was dissolved.

Mr. Riddell asked that the defense might be allowed to develop with the case.

The Master decided to allow Mr. Riddell to develop his case, but the society's counsel, and proceeded on the most comprehensive line of defense.

Mr. McWatt, who represented the society, outlined the progress of the society since its incorporation in October, 1883. In October, 1883, the order was registered and remained in force until the year 1887, when the registration was cancelled by the registrar of Friendly Societies. In 1887, a new order was formed, and the old order was dissolved. The new order was a new order, and the old order was dissolved.

Mr. Riddell asked that the defense might be allowed to develop with the case.

The Master decided to allow Mr. Riddell to develop his case, but the society's counsel, and proceeded on the most comprehensive line of defense.

Mr. McWatt, who represented the society, outlined the progress of the society since its incorporation in October, 1883. In October, 1883, the order was registered and remained in force until the year 1887, when the registration was cancelled by the registrar of Friendly Societies. In 1887, a new order was formed, and the old order was dissolved. The new order was a new order, and the old order was dissolved.

Mr. Riddell asked that the defense might be allowed to develop with the case.

The Master decided to allow Mr. Riddell to develop his case, but the society's counsel, and proceeded on the most comprehensive line of defense.

Mr. McWatt, who represented the society, outlined the progress of the society since its incorporation in October, 1883. In October, 1883, the order was registered and remained in force until the year 1887, when the registration was cancelled by the registrar of Friendly Societies. In 1887, a new order was formed, and the old order was dissolved. The new order was a new order, and the old order was dissolved.

Mr. Riddell asked that the defense might be allowed to develop with the case.

The Master decided to allow Mr. Riddell to develop his case, but the society's counsel, and proceeded on the most comprehensive line of defense.

Mr. McWatt, who represented the society, outlined the progress of the society since its incorporation in October, 1883. In October, 1883, the order was registered and remained in force until the year 1887, when the registration was cancelled by the registrar of Friendly Societies. In 1887, a new order was formed, and the old order was dissolved. The new order was a new order, and the old order was dissolved.

Mr. Riddell asked that the defense might be allowed to develop with the case.

The Master decided to allow Mr. Riddell to develop his case, but the society's counsel, and proceeded on the most comprehensive line of defense.

Mr. McWatt, who represented the society, outlined the progress of the society since its incorporation in October, 1883. In October, 1883, the order was registered and remained in force until the year 1887, when the registration was cancelled by the registrar of Friendly Societies. In 1887, a new order was formed, and the old order was dissolved. The new order was a new order, and the old order was dissolved.

Mr. Riddell asked that the defense might be allowed to develop with the case.

The Master decided to allow Mr. Riddell to develop his case, but the society's counsel, and proceeded on the most comprehensive line of defense.

Mr. McWatt, who represented the society, outlined the progress of the society since its incorporation in October, 1883. In October, 1883, the order was registered and remained in force until the year 1887, when the registration was cancelled by the registrar of Friendly Societies. In 1887, a new order was formed, and the old order was dissolved. The new order was a new order, and the old order was dissolved.

Mr. Riddell asked that the defense might be allowed to develop with the case.

The Master decided to allow Mr. Riddell to develop his case, but the society's counsel, and proceeded on the most comprehensive line of defense.

Mr. McWatt, who represented the society, outlined the progress of the society since its incorporation in October, 1883. In October, 1883, the order was registered and remained in force until the year 1887, when the registration was cancelled by the registrar of Friendly Societies. In 1887, a new order was formed, and the old order was dissolved. The new order was a new order, and the old order was dissolved.

Mr. Riddell asked that the defense might be allowed to develop with the case.

The Master decided to allow Mr. Riddell to develop his case, but the society's counsel, and proceeded on the most comprehensive line of defense.

Mr. McWatt, who represented the society, outlined the progress of the society since its incorporation in October, 1883. In October, 1883, the order was registered and remained in force until the year 1887, when the registration was cancelled by the registrar of Friendly Societies. In 1887, a new order was formed, and the old order