Race-Week Attractions at Dineens Fashionable Hats and Furs

We have prepared a most elaborate and highly interesting display of imported fashions in fine Hats for Ladies and Gentlemen, for the special inspection of visitors from out of town. The hat styles of all the best English and American designers are shown in every variation of shape, shade, size and price. We are, and always have been, the exclusive Canadian agents for the famous Dunlap hats, made by Dunlap, New York, and the celebrated Heath hats, made by Henry Heath, hatter to the Royal Family, London, England, and our facilities to meet prevailing tastes for other kinds of hats include the most extensive assortments of the newest styles of Christy, Knox, Tress, Stetson, Buck, Carter, Young, Woodrow and

Lincoln-Bennett hats. The ladies' hat parlor, a distinctly separate department of the establishment, is filled with newest and choicest creations in straws and felts of the leading French, English and American men-milliners—and our prices are not high.

Ladies Furs Alaska Seal and Persian Lamb

In our Fur Parlors we are showing advance styles in Ladies' Alaska Seal and Persian Lamb Jackets, designed for next season, just finished by our own furriers, on our own premises, for this race week reception, and the exhibits also include many choice novelties in fur neckwear and many different designs in fur collarettes.

Rev. W. Lloyd, D.D., of New York City has consented to preach the anniversary services of the Elm-street Methodist Church Sabbath School to-morrow, Sunday, May 21, both in the morning and evening. A large platform has been erected in front of the organ to seat the entire school and the scholars will take charge of the singing, assisted by the choir of the church, under the leadership of Mr. Carnahan. We understand that Dr. Lloyd preached in Toronto some years ago and those who heard him were delighted with his efforts. He is a Christian gentleman of great power and magnetism, and one that preaches the Gospel with great fervor.

Heavy Cunard Travel.

The following telegram received by the Toronto agent of the Cunard Line, from the New York office, speaks for itself:
"A. F. Webster, Toronto.
"Campania, 20th May, absolutely full. Lucania, 3rd June, nothing vacant to offer at any rate. Vernon H. Brown & Co."
When it is refinembered that these steamships are two of the largest affont, and have accommodation for 558 first-cabin passengers each, the above telegram gives a very good idea of the heavy rush of travel to Europe this season.
