

Between men's and boys' clothing we make no difference in the care and finish and attention to detail. There is no sweatshop work in our clothing. We know where it's made and how it's made.

Is not this worth the thoughtful consideration of mothers? Isn't it worth paying a trifle more to have your boy's clothes made in a healthful place?

This week we are clearing boys' Reefers, Ulsters and Overcoats at a discount of from 15 to 20 per cent. off regular prices.

Boys' 3.00 Coats for 2.50
Boys' 4.00 " for 3.25
Boys' 5.00 " for 4.25
Boys' 6.00 " for 5.00
Boys' 7.00 " for 6.00

FUNERAL OF DR. CROWLE.

The Founder of Markham High School Has Passed Away at a Great Old Age.

Markham, Ont., Jan. 10.—The funeral of Edward T. Crowle, M.A., Ph.D., who died on Monday, took place today, the remains being laid to rest in St. Andrew's Church. The funeral being very largely attended. The pallbearers were: H. E. Corson, H. H. Wiles, F. A. Brown, A. B. Brown, H. H. Speight and P. Crosby. The high school staff and pupils sent a beautiful floral wreath and a body.

An impressive memorial service was conducted in the Methodist Church by the Rev. Joseph Yonke, W. Blair and H. Martin, after the burial service.

Edward Truscott Crowle, M.A., Ph.D., was born in Cornwall, Ont., in 1820, and notwithstanding a accident that made him a cripple and set him back for years, at the age of 20 he had qualified himself to teach in one of the most important educational institutions in England.

He came to Canada in 1857, and became a successful local preacher. In 1857 he founded the foundation for the now celebrated Markham High School. He was generally esteemed in all classes.

Deceased in 1933 married Annie Collier, who has been a faithful wife to him, of whom only two survive, viz. Rev. P. W. Crowle and Mrs. (Rev.) C. T. Cocking. Mr. Crowle was a member of the Masonic Order.

THE LATE SIR GEO. KIRKPATRICK
Movement in Kingston to Erect a Memorial to Him.

Kingston, Jan. 10.—A proposition is on foot in Frontenac County and Kingston to erect a suitable memorial in honor of the memory of the late Sir George Kirkpatrick. It is proposed to erect a memorial building at the Court House. The County Council will grant a sum towards the same, and this will be more than equalled by private subscriptions and a grant from the City Council.

Men's Fur-Lined Comfort.
The story of our fur-lined coat stock for men stands a lot of telling without growing threadbare," said the head salesman at J. W. T. Fairweather & Co., 84 Yonge-street (successors to J. & J. Lusk), and we guess he's right, for go into the men's fur department most any time you will and you'll find one or more gentlemen "trying on" some one or another of the lines between $20 and $200 and cheaper, great values.

Dalley's Perfect Coffee will give you a delicious drink. Good coffee is a whole-some drink. Give it a trial.

HAMILTON NEWS

THE HORTICULTURISTS MET.

Report Showed That the Society Lost Money on Their Two Exhibitions.

BALANCE ON RIGHT-SIDE, HOWEVER

Proposed Board of Park Commissioners Discussed—Franchise Society Functions—General News.

Hamilton, Jan. 10.—(Special.)—The third annual meeting of the Hamilton Horticultural Society was held this evening, President A. Alexander in the chair. Secretary Dickson presented the annual report. The report showed that the society had done good work during the year. The two exhibitions in June and November resulted in a loss of $142.51. There were distributions of premiums. The paid-up membership was 115. The year's receipts were $700.53, and expenditures $843.04, leaving a balance on hand of $141.03.

The following officers were elected: A. Alexander, president; James Ogilvie, first vice-president; Frederick H. Lamb, second vice-president; William Hunt, W. P. Burroughs, James Kneeshaw, John Knox, S. Aylett, James Anderson, Rev. A. MacLaren, J. O. McCullough, J. J. Eves, Board of Directors; T. B. Greening, M. J. Little, auditors.

The Parks Commissioners.

A long discussion followed on the personnel of the Board of Parks Commissioners. The opinion was expressed that the society, having a direct interest in the matter, should make known its preference of names from the long list nominated by Mayor Teetzel, and it was finally agreed that the names of 12 men, from whom the six commissioners, in the society's opinion, should be chosen, the officers and Board of Directors to choose the 12. They accordingly met after the business meeting and selected the following: A. Alexander, B. E. Charlton, John Knox, Frederick H. Lamb, W. P. Burroughs, John A. Bruce, J. G. Bowes, J. Eves, H. P. Dyer, C. O. Dexters, Geo. Rutherford and J. G. Y. Burkholder.

Rev. A. MacLaren, James Kneeshaw and J. O. McCullough, were appointed a deputation to lay the names before the City Council.
