SUNDAY WORKING IN NEW ONTARIO
May Be Stopped by Lord's Day Alliance—Executive Meets.

Rev. Dr. Potts presided at the meeting of the Executive of the Ontario Lord's Day Alliance in the Confederation Life Building yesterday. The Dominion Alliance reported that a committee had been appointed to secure the passage of a Dominion Lord's Day Act. A. E. O'Meara presented his report as counsel on the test case recently tried before the Privy Council and it was referred to the Committee on Legislation. J. A. Patterson, K.C., was present and made an informal statement regarding the case, and a letter was read from Fox and Preece, solicitors of London, England, in which they said "that in the absence of Hon. Edward Blake, the case of the Alliance could not have been better presented or more plausibly defended." A resolution was adopted commending Mr. O'Meara for his fidelity and conscientious ability with which he conducted the case.

The Committee on Organization reported that it was possible the county executives be charged to represent the constituencies of the Dominion parliament, that the assistance of volunteer helpers be secured to visit coun., executives and hold public meetings in various parts of the province and urged upon county executives the importance of holding as many public meetings as possible in the present session within their territory before the end of the present Alliance year.

The secretary, Rev. T. Albert Moore, thanked that work was being done of the Lord's day in the construction of the new smelter at Copper Cliff and in repairs to many mills and industrial concerns, and also that ferries were being run. He had interviewed the heads of several of the industrial concerns, and his report was referred to the Legal Committee for action.

The Banner Route.
There is nothing more assuring to the traveler than his knowledge of the fact that he is traveling on a firm road, under which is laid the heaviest of steel rails, made true in all their curves, and that the train which carries him is of the highest standard of excellence known to railroads and is being guided to its destination by experienced minds. These are the conditions which become apparent to the frequent traveler on the Wabash Line and which have made that line justly famous. The Wabash has its own

HE MAY GET OVER IT.
True Tale of Yesterday, Minstrel, Little Man and Barber Shop.

There was only one chair vacant in the King Edward Hotel barber shop yesterday, and Lew Dockstader and a little nervous-looking man made for it together. The little man got the best of the start, and without seeing Dock-stader behind, threw himself into the chair. The minstrel had taken off his coat and was wearing a soft summer shirt and belted trousers, and the little man looked at him curiously and said:
"Once over and hurry up."

The barber was at the desk making change, and anything on the seized the mug and began lathering his unconscious rival.

"In for the fair?" he asked, as he lathered the little man's head into the rest.

"No."
"Pleasant after the rain."
"Yes. Don't shove that brush in my mouth again."

The barber was back by this time, but Dockstader waved him away and continued his work.

"You're hair's a little thin," he said, s suggestively, applying the man's head.
"I like it thin. I hate fat hair," was the spluttered reply.

"Ever put anything on it?" pursued the pseudo-barber.

"I put my hat on it," and there was asperity in his reply.

"Better take some of that liquid hair restorer," murmured the minstrel hair restorer, rubbing in the lather with a Bowers five-cent parlor movement.

"I don't drink." The relations were settling strained.

"Come to this shop often?"
"No, thank heaven—can't you keep that brush away from my mouth?" The bystanders thought they could see a fight coming.

"Wonderful the business we're doing," said the minstrel, meditatively beginning to stop a razor.

"It's a wonder your doing any. Hurry up," was the sharp rejoinder.

"You'll wonder more in a minute," returned the minstrel, trying the razor's edge on his thumb.

"What's that?" and the patient began to wriggle uneasily.

"I was just wondering if I couldn't sell you something for that hair."

"You can sell me one shave, and you better get busy, for the little man thru the layers of lather which stood out on his face. "You're the worst I ever saw."

"My but I'm anxious to know the ball score today," and with that Dock-stader stepped to the mirror and began to touch up his own hair with a brush.

"Say," shouted the little man, "I want you to take this razor off my face. I'm going to a shop where I haven't got to listen to a gibbering idiot. I've stood for this long enough.
And don't you slap me on the head again, either."

Every one was enjoying the fun now, but the hair barber came hurrying down the shop and took in the situation at a glance. He sent Dockstader out, told the faithful customer that the man would be discharged, and ordered the other barber to his place.

At the sight of the boss the men at the other chair straightened their faces and the barber recommenced work.

The barber was led off to another chair to be shaved.

"Most impatient little man I ever saw," he said.

"And this is no press agent's yarn, either."

MONTREAL MILLIONAIRE DEAD.
Samuel Finlay Passed Away Suddenly Yesterday Morning.

Montreal, Que., Sept. 1.—Samuel Finlay, one of Montreal's millionaires, died today. This announcement, coming so soon after the death of A. P.
Gault, his brother-in-law and associate in business and philanthropic enterprises, caused surprise and regret throughout the city. A native of Ireland, Mr.
Finlay had become a thorough Canadian, and was associated in many enterprises for the advancement of the country and the uplifting of its people. The late Mr. Finlay arrived home from England by the Transatlantic on August 15 looking in the best of health.
He had caught a chill on the passage, however, and in a few days he began to feel indisposed. His condition was not considered serious, however, even a week ago, when pneumonia developed, no danger was anticipated. As the family were spending the summer out of the city his friends were not aware of his serious illness, and his death, which occurred at 8:45 a.m. today, came as a complete and painful surprise. Samuel Finlay was born at Drumclough House, County Tyrone, Ireland, June 21, 1825.

MUSCULAR CHRISTIANITY.
The Central Y.M.C.A. experienced a run yesterday, the applicants for membership being so numerous that the secretary was kept busy all day.
The outlook for the future is very promising, and there will be as many members as can be accommodated. During August there were four times as many applications for membership as during the same month in 1902 and in July there were twice as many. It is intended to give a series of popular Saturday night concerts in Association Hall, beginning about the middle of October. Canadian artists will be engaged exclusively, and the tickets will be placed at so low a figure that none will be debarred from attending by the cost.

URGES A TRUE BILL.
St. John, N.B., Sept. 1.—In the Circuit Court today, J. G. Landry presiding, the case of the Goodspeed, charged on four counts, was brought up and His Honor charged the jury strongly to bring in a true bill. The defendant, who is 15 years of age, was just a year ago party to a murder in Rockwood Park here, his chum, Higgs, being condemned to death, but afterwards the sentence was commuted to life imprisonment. Goodspeed got 30 months in the reformatory and a month ago he murderously assaulted his guardian in trying to escape. The four charges are: Attempted murder; attempt to do bodily harm; attempt at absconding, and attempt to escape, an indictable offence.

of August amounted to $280,470, an increase over August, 1902, of $103, is greater than last year by $300,- 000.

CHURCH JUBILEE AT OAKVILLE
FATHER O'REILLY JUBILARIAN

First Time in the History of the Local Catholic Church
A Local Priest Celebrates the Fiftieth Anniversary of Its Birthday.

Oakville, Sept. 1.—(Special).—In this the prettiest town on Lake Ontario, a unique event occurred today.

There has been a Catholic church here for considerably more than half a century. This was the first time an Oakville priest celebrated an ecclesiastical jubilee. The jubilarian was Rev.

Frank O'Reilly, the highly esteemed pastor of St. Andrew's Church, who commands the respect of all his fellow-townsmen without distinction of creed.

The celebration, the informal, was of the happiest character. A mission conducted by Father Urban, C. S.
S.R., Toronto, was closing in the church in the morning, and the missionary spoke of the pastor's jubilee and launched into a hearty eulogy of his priestly character.

An Address and a Prayer.
The congregation came in the afternoon with an address and a prayer of gold. Thomas A. Reynolds was chairman, and L. V. City secretary. On the committee also were H. S. Rose, P. Shaughnessy and James McDermott.
Mr. W. W. Wolf attended with a Milton delegation and an address, Branch 288, C.M.B.A., headed by the president, John J. McDermott, read the address.

The annual general meeting of the shareholders of the Bank will

MONDAY, the 10th OF OCTOBER, next, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

By order of the Board,
JAMES ELLIOT, General Manager.
Montreal, 28th August, 1903.

Mr. Frank O'Reilly was born at Laragh, County Cavan, on the 25th of September, 1854. He was educated at the "Old College," and at the New College, under the Very Rev. Bernard Finigan, afterwards Bishop of Kilmore. As an ecclesiastical student young Frank O'Reilly attracted the attention of the late Bishop Crinion during a visit which the latter paid to Ireland in 1874, and he invited the young seminarian to come to Canada.

Here he entered St. Michael's College, Toronto, where he finished his course in philosophy and then entered the Grand Seminary, Montreal, where he spent three years, and was ordained to the priesthood. On the 1st of September, 1878, he was ordained in St.
Patrick's Church, Hamilton, by his friend, Bishop Crinion. Some of his charges as priest during the five and twenty years that have since elapsed were in Arthur, Mount Pleasant, Macdon, Caledonia, Hamilton and Oakville.

Father O'Reilly was a delegate to the Irish Race Convention held in Dublin in 1896, on the suggestion of the late Archbishop Walsh of Toronto. He delivered a series of addresses in Dublin, Belfast, Cork and the west country.

Father Frank O'Reilly comes of a family identified with the Church by unbroken record since the penal days of the old Celtic territory known as Breifne O'Reilly.

Students of Irish history will recall the Three Primitives who followed the first martyr, Columba, to Ireland. One of the three primitives was an O'Reilly, known as the "Piper Bishop of Kilmore."

Bishop Farrell O'Reilly was appointed to the diocese of Kilmore after the removal of the penal statutes. He came from the continent, where he was educated, and brought with him to Cavan a great love of learning. He built the "Old College" at Cavan and established the "O'Reilly Bursary." The Oakville jubilarian is a great grandson of the founder, Bishop Farrell O'Reilly. Very Rev. John O'Reilly, P.P., of Langan, County Cavan, died last month. He was president of the "Old College."

MINERS GOING SOUTH.
Shamokin, Pa., Sept. 1.—Four collieries of the Union Coal Company, employing 5000 men and boys, were closed today for an indefinite period on account of the overstocked coal market. The decision of the company to close the mines for a period of months has caused the great distress of the miners to the south. One company has engaged 1000 for its operations in the South, and a colored man there is following suit.

THEY'RE COMMON CARRIERS.
Washington, Sept. 1.—Wireless telegraph companies are common carriers and must, therefore, receive from any source and transmit to any destination all messages offered to them. This conclusion, which foretells any monopoly, was reached by the Berlin International Conference, and was the gist of the only important resolution adopted at its session, which lasted nine days. Germany, Great Britain, France, Russia, Austria-Hungary, Spain and the United States participated.

THREE KILLED IN A SEWER.
Milwaukee, Sept. 1.—Three men were asphyxiated by sewer gas in a sewer near the Chicago & Northwestern tracks today. They were: R. J. Hickey, sewer contractor; Superintendent Schunk of the city Water Department; and a colored man, name unknown. Several others had narrow escapes.

"Great Prairie Investment Co." At a meeting held at the office, Manning Chambers, 31st St., a resolution was moved and adopted by the board, sending Mr. Joynt, president, to Winnipeg, Manitoba, offering having been made for certain portions of lands conveyed by the company in the City of Winnipeg. He goes to investigate advantages of accepting, and as to what effect, if accepted, such sales would have on balance of property. Mr. Joynt expects to be gone a few weeks in the interest of the company generally.

GRAPE-NUTS

In which the starch of Wheat and Barley is transformed by scientific cooking into sugar (shining on the outside of each little granule of Grape-Nuts).

One can have the delicious ready cooked food, enjoy it, obtain the value and energy of the carbohydrates and yet not in the least tax the digestive organs.

Don't let any one deceive you by saying the stomach and bowels need hard and indigestible oats and wheat to give them exercise!!!!

They get too much exercise usually with the other food.

Never fear that the organs of digestion will get weak from lack of exercise.

Tax them a little further than you are doing at present and you may join the Johnny bears, with ears in the daisies and feet to the stars.

There is sober fact worth careful thought in the tremendous mistake made in the selection and use of indigestible food.

Bodily health and increased strength follow the use of Our trade competitors have insisted that our signs be

BRILLIANT IDEA, ISN'T IT?
Our competitors don't admire our signs, or love our combut the above resolution.

Nevertheless, Mr. WINTER and a staff of salesmen will
