

The Statement of arrears is not an unsatisfactory one, shewing only the sum of about $100 outstanding—not a large sum considering the amount of our subscription list and the financial standing of the contributors. This amount your Committee is confident will soon be paid up.

In placing their resignation in your hands the Members of the Committee feel that they are warranted in the assertion that at no time since the erection of our present Church, has the Congregation stood in a better position, with more reason to be hopeful for its future prospects. Whether or not such a state of things shall continue must rest with the members of the Congregation individually. Should they continue constant in their faith, diligent and faithful in the discharge of their duty, they will surely find their burdens becoming lighter, and as they gradually ascend to a higher and higher plane of Christian life and work, they will in their progress bear our Church along with them.

May each one so work and trust, that when earth's pilgrimage shall be ended, and life's fitful fever past, he may hopefully expect to hear the welcome greeting, "well done, good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

All which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN HENDERSON,

Chairman.

JAMES CAMPBELL,

Secretary.
