TWELVE STARS OF THE TURF TO START IN KENTUCKY HANDICAP

Richest of All Races for Thoroughbreds Over Three Years To Be Run Today—Cudgel Favorite, With Pif Jun. Formidable Rival.

LOUISVILLE, May 31.—Twelve stars of the running turf are to be run today at the post at Douglas Park tomorrow to struggle for fame and fortune for their owners, which goes with winning the sixth running of the Kentucky Handicap, the richest of all American races for thoroughbreds, 3-year-olds and over. The distance is at a mile and a quarter for a purse of $10,000 added money, and will be worth approximately $15,000 to the winner. Horsemen pronounce the field the most unequal in quality in the history of the event. It includes such horses as the mighty Cudgel, the crack son of Broomstick, which will carry top weight and go to the post the favorite under the colors of J. K. L. Ross, the Canadian turfman; R. L. Baker's King Gort, which won the race last year, and probably will make another bid for it; Mr. Baker's Elf, which made a new

MANY PLAYERS OF OLD OTTAWA TEAM IN KHAKI

OTTAWA, May 31.—The majority of the ball players who helped Frank Shaughnessy bring the Canadian League pennant to Ottawa for several years when the Ontario circuit was booming have exchanged their diamond spangles for khaki uniforms.

Manager Shaughnessy is now second in command of the 74th Battery, which has gone to the front at Etoswara, and he will soon go overseas. Frankie, who played shortstop, is with the American forces in France, while Artie Schwind, also an infielder, who fought under General Pershing in Mexico, has also gone over to the fight.

Pitcher Urban Shocker was recently called from the St. Louis Browns to the colors, and word was received today that he had been called to the front. Shocker, who played for the Browns in 1914, went overseas the following year and has since been promoted to a lieutenant and decorated with the military cross for gallantry under fire.

FINE BOXING BOUTS AT ARMORIES WILL DRAW LARGE CROWD

Everything in Readiness for Big Program—Sergt. Palmer in City.

Final arrangements for the grand military boxing tournament have been completed, and from present indications it will be one of the most successful athletic exhibitions ever staged in this city. Sergt. Palmer, ex-welterweight champion of Canada, is in London for his match with Capt. Dyer, the local boxing instructor, and is expected to make a sensational first round combat with the former champion of the British army and navy.

Sergt. Palmer's never before decision in Canada. He went overseas with the 17th Battalion, and while in England he knocked out Jim Sullivan, and made a draw with Pat O'Keefe, the champion welterweight of the British Isles.

From a pugilistic standpoint the record of Sergt. Palmer is little to be desired. He delivered a beating to Sam Campbell in thirty seconds, via the K. O. route some years ago, and among his best known fights was a match with Clayton Wilson, whom he trimmed in eight rounds.

Palmer is representing Capt. Lou Scholtes, who is in charge of athletics in the military. Capt. Scholtes, who is also noted for his activity in other directions of sport. He has promised to coach local military sportsmen for future bouts, and it is owing to the opening of a new soldier baseball league in Toronto that he will be unable to attend the boxing tournament to be held here tonight.

Tickets are selling at a fast rate, and the armories is certain to be packed.

IT SOMETIMES HAPPENS. The following original and sage utterances are from the script of a play by James H. Snodgrass, under the general head, "You will notice that."

First. When a man makes a great play in the field, retiring the third man in an inning, eight out of ten times is the first man up when his side comes to bat.

Second. An infielder makes most of his hits by throwing the ball a lot of time and holds the ball before letting it go.

Fourth. An umpire invariably calls a man out who should be added to first base on an infield hit.

Fifth. When a player is stalling he passes the ball to the umpire, a pebble or a spitball.

Sixth. The best player on an opposing team always is a discard of the other.

Seventh. The original baseball broomstick is a strike-out after a testimonial horseshoe or baby buggy.

TO SHOW THEM HOW. A finely equipped sports ground is to be opened in a few days in England for the use of the Canadian military and naval forces. The ground is at Norbury, on the south side of London, and will be used by the military and naval forces. The ground is at Norbury, on the south side of London, and will be used by the military and naval forces.

Italian's Good Work. An Italian newspaper to hand gives a glowing account of an international exhibition between Italy and America held recently at Villa Umberto. In the 100 metre sprint, the most popular contest of the day, the winner was an Italian named Croci, who won in 10 4/5 seconds, a figure which established a new record for Italy. Another Italian, named G. G. Mackey, won the 200 metre race in 2 1/2 minutes, and Lieut. George S. Mackey of the Canadian sportsmen can do.

AMATEUR BASEBALL MAKES SEASONABLE BOW TO FANS TODAY

Baseball in London will make its seasonable bow today, when the Ontario team is scheduled to play the Y. M. C. A. team of the Inter-Club City League and the Blue Labels are slated to battle with the Manhattans of the same organization.
