son will be "From the Mamertine Prison to Glory."

—Mrs. R. M. Graham, who has been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McLellan and Mrs. Elmore Richards, in Hamilton, has returned to this city.

—Strathroy Correspondent.—The next presidential election in the United States will be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1908.

—Rev. D. S. Hamilton, who attended the ordination and installation services in connection with the settlement at Embro, of Rev. W. D. Spence, has returned home.

—John Warrel, of 81 Colborne street, had his hand caught in a press while at work in the pressroom of the London Printing and Lithographing Company yesterday afternoon. The fingers were pinched, but the injury is not a serious one.

—A Vancouver paper of a recent issue contains a notice of a concert given by the "Messiah Chorus" of that city, in which Mrs. Kenneth Black (nee Rossiter), formerly of this city, is mentioned as having taken part.

—A pleasant event took place on Tuesday evening at the Dundas Center Methodist parsonage, when Miss Katie Milton, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Milton, of 582 Grey Street, was married to Mr. George Hayman, formerly of Montreal. The bride looked charming in her traveling suit. Rev. E. B. Lancelotti officiated, Mr. and Mrs. Hayman will reside in London, on their return from their honeymoon.

—The Unitarian Church (Chapter House), which has undergone extensive decoration, will be formally opened tomorrow. The building has been repaired inside, and the auditorium is being seated with arm-chairs. The pulpit furniture is of weathered oak, and curtains of Carlisle, built into a scheme of decoration, have given this well-known auditorium a very cosy and homelike appearance. The opening services, as indicated in the church column, are conducted in the morning by President Southworth, and in the evening by Rev. George H. Badger.

Mr. Barron has kindly consented to give piano music at both services.

—On Thursday last a party was given in honor of the ninth birthday of little Nepha Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bennett, of 307 King street. A large number of the friends of Miss Nepha were royally entertained at her home, and later the little ones occupied boxes at Bennett's Vaudeville theater in the afternoon, they being chaperoned by Mrs. Bennett, assisted by Mrs. Edwards Davis.
