FRUIT PROSPECTS GOOD. FRUIT PROSPECTS GOOD.

Hamilton, June 22.—Not since 1914 have the crops looked better in Wentworth than at present. Spring grains, including wheat, oats, barley and rye look well. The rain of the past week has greatly improved the timothy, fall wheat and fodder crops. With the exception of English cherries, the fruit crop is an exceptional one. Plums will be a glut on the market. Strawberries.

fact that a hallstorm two weeks ago played havoc with this year's growth on the bushes.

The heavy rains of the past few days have put new life in the root, tobacco and corn crops. As a result the Warne tobacco leaf is good, but the recent dry spell somewhat stunted the growth of the Old Burley leaf, which constitutes is an exceptional one. Plums will be a glut on the market. Strawberries, apples and cane and the crop will be considerably lighter raspberries, peaches, apples and cane ruits promised well. Grapes will be an average yield. Field vegetables, retarded by the drought, are improving. Potatoes, in some sections are a failure, and in some cases it has been found necessary to replant. Garden ound necessary to replant. Garden ruck is showing up most favorably. Varm weather will make the crop an

IN BRANTFORD DISTRICT. Brantford, June 22.—Not for some ears have crop prospects been so right in Brant County. While fall theat suffered from lack of rain, and the fall the suffered from lack of rain, and the fall the fields were thinned out, and hay suffered likewise, copious rains of the past two weeks have brought past two weeks have brought along what fall wheat remained; the hay crop promises big, and spring grains are all doing well. The corn borer has been at work, but in most cases the ravages were noted in time, the corn plowed by the state of the corn plowed by the corn plant plowed by the corn plowed by the corn plowed by the corn plow under and a second crop sown.

RAIN HAS HELPED.

Toronto, June 22.—Plenteous showers during the last week have worked wonders in the agricultural and horticultural districts centring on Toronto and throughout Central Ontario. Fields which were given up as dead, following the unusually dry month of May, have suddenly changed to green, and the tardy and withered fall wheat crops have put on several inches of growth. Oats, barley and wheat promises big yields; potatoes and roots are

Paris, June 22.—Recommendation that an international financial conference be held in Brussels to mobilize ence be held in Brussels to mobilize German money and issue international loans based on German revenues has been decided upon at the inter-Allied meeting at Boulogne, according to a special correspondent of Havas.

Discussions at the meeting, it is said, have resulted in a decision that if Germany manifests bad faith concerning the execution of the Versailles treaty the Allies may employ other means of coercion than those already considered, occupation of parts of Germany being possible. Another point decided by the Bou-
