INTEREST TO WOMEN

Chinese Woman and Dress.

"Chinese women are far ahead of their American sisters in adopting sensible styles of dress," says Margaret Robinson, who plays the role of Sing Wee in "A Broken Idol," which is announced for an engagement at the Princess Theatre, after she had been assisted in procuring a pair of Chinese trousers in Chicago's Chinatown. The trousers are the kind worn by Chinese women, and, according to Miss Robinson, have much more to recommend them than the director's gown and other fashionable garments of the Chinese woman," she declares, "has enough not to go tripping about with a clinging gown that catches the dust, like we Americans wear. She is not so intent upon showing her figure as the American votaries of fashion, and she may crumple her feet and she would not endure the discomforts that our dresses cause. I would go right on the street now, wearing them, if I didn't think some busybody would interfere and have me arrested."

A Toronto Girl's Success

It will be gratifying to the many Toronto friends of Miss Edith Miller to know that on her first tour of Canada she is meeting with very warm receptions everywhere. In Kingston, where she sang on Monday, her success was such that an extra concert was given the following evening. In Montreal, where she appeared at His Majesty's Theatre on Friday, the two main floors of the house were practically sold out in advance. It may be reasonably expected that in Toronto, where this most distinguished Canadian contralto received her musical education, she will be greeted by a bumper house on Monday evening, especially as one of the most attractive programs of the season will be given.

Part 1.
The first portion of Miss Edith Miller's program on Monday evening will be selections from "Samson and Delilah" by Saint-Saens. Miss Miller, Alfred Heather, tenor, and Thorpe Bates, baritone. Cast as follows: Delilah—Edith Miller; Samson—Mr. Heather; High Priest, Mr. Bates.

The selection to be performed begins immediately after the defeat of the Philistines, when Samson has been captured by the victorious Hebrews as their deliverer.

1. Trio between Delilah, Samson and the aged Hebrew—"I come to render my homage."

Delilah comes to greet Samson, the aged Hebrew prays him to turn on her path while Samson calls on God to take away the unknown power Delilah holds over him.

2. Delilah and Arie (Delilah)—"O, Love From Thy Power."

Delilah, knowing that Samson is coming to visit her, calls on the Deity of Love to grant that Samson may fall to her wiles captive to her.

3. Delilah and the High Priest of Dagon—"I have Come From The Valley."

A few bars of descriptive storm music lead from the preceding scene to this most dramatic duet. The front is cut in Princess style and fits close to the figure. A pretty shaped bib extends out over the shoulders in a manner very becoming. Gingham was used for the making, but percale, linen and Holland are suggested. The medium size will require 4-5 yards of 56-inch material for the apron with 5-6 yards extra for the cap and sleeves.

Influenza Coming from Europe
If a Wave of this Disease Sweeps Over Canada, Thousands will die.

Be prepared—now is the time—to-day you should commence to protect yourself.

Influenza or La Grippe invariably seizes upon those who have coughs, colds and sore throats.

An important Montreal physician states that the epidemic can be minimized if the people will only guard their colds—stop them before they grow large. Nothing better for the purpose is known than "Nerviline."

In connection with the above warning the story of Mr. Ernest E. Eckhart, of August, will serve to illustrate how valuable Nerviline is. "Early in the winter I contracted a stubborn cold and until it grew severe I did little for it. When I saw I was in for an old-fashioned attack of Influenza, I went to the drug store and got a large 2-cent bottle of Nerviline and a box of Porous Plaster. I rubbed my back, throat and chest three times with the Nerviline, and then put the Nerviline Porous Plaster over a very sore, congested spot on my chest. Before retiring I took half a teaspoonful of Nerviline in hot sweetened water; next morning I was feeling a new man—that is, I was free from the burning fever, the sensation of choking and tightness in my chest and throat had disappeared. There was no ringing in my ears, no fever left, and not a trace of a cold."

This is but one instance of thousands of cures from Nerviline which has no equal in curing all winter ills such as cold, quinsy, hoarseness, bronchitis, lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism. See advertisement and order Nerviline—refuse any substitute. Sold by all dealers.

New Health for School Girls

Is a girl's health to be sacrificed in order that she may pass high at examination time? Is her future happiness to be risked for examination marks?

Too many pale, weak girls are to be found in our schools and colleges, over-strained, exhausted, organs which were feeble and irregular in action assume their normal state after a rest and letting their rivals get ahead of them and this is not necessary if Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food is used, for this treatment has no equal as a means of forming new, red blood and new nerve cells.

Mrs. S. A. Beney, 52 Charlotte St., Brantford, Ont., writes: "My daughter was going to school and the close confinement and she was easily irritated and excited. I procured a box of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for her and we soon began to notice a marked improvement in her health. Her color became better, the headaches were entirely cured and her nervous system was strengthened and built up. I consider Dr. Chase's Nerve Food splendid medicine for children."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food

This great restorative is not a quick cure but a natural and certain one. Every dose goes to the formation of pure, rich blood—the foundation of all health and strength. Feeble nerve cells are aroused to new vigor, wasted tissues are restored. 50 cents a box, 6 for $2.50, all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto, Ontario. The genuine bears the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., the famous Receipt Book author.

NORTH BAY FAILURE

Brennan Department Store Assigns to N. L. Martin.

M. Brennan & Co., for 35 years established at North Bay, and one of the largest departmental firms in the north, have made an assignment to N. L. Martin & Co., West Wellington-street.

The firm did a big business in outfitting for the mining camps. A meeting of the creditors is called for Monday, May 3, in Mr. Martin's office. The creditors are largely Montreal houses.

The Canada Neckwear, Limited, of this city and Port Hope, has assigned to J. P. Langley. The assets and liabilities are yet to be ascertained. The creditors, it is said, are principally English and Swiss silk manufacturers, and the Canadian wholesalers are interested only for small amounts. The stockholders are five Toronto men and one from Rochester, N.Y. The firm has a three-story factory at Port Hope, where about 50 hands were employed. There were seven travelers on the road.

The president of the company is C. Brodigan of Port Hope, and the secretary T. J. Ardagh of this city.

STORMT CUTS LICENSES

Eight Cut Off, Six Being in Cornwall or Vicinity.

CORNWALL, April 23.—The Stormt license commissioners refused to renew the licenses of eight hotels in this county. Four, the Queen's Hotel, Empire Hotel, Central Hotel and Stormt Hotel, are in Cornwall; two others, the Maple Leaf Hotel and the Broderick House, are in Cornwall Township, just across the street from the town. The other two are Kennedy's Hotel at McMillan's Corners, and Brunet's Hotel at Moose Creek.

Last year Cornwall and its suburbs had 16 licenses, but considering the reductions, and the burning of the Windsor Hotel, the number has been reduced to nine, six hotels and two shops, all within the corporation, and the G. T. R. refreshment rooms outside.

It is likely that a bylaw will now be submitted to increase the license fee from $450 to $1000. Cornwall has a population of about 7000.

PLUSHING, L.L., April 23.—Only seven jurors have yet been chosen in the case of Haine and all are married. Captain Haine has maintained a stolid indifference throughout the week, and has spoken to no one in court, except to his father, General Haine, nor his brother, Major Haine, both of whom have sat near him each day. To a layman he appears to go and come when told like a child.

The two new buildings are to cost a total of $240,000, divided as follows: Library addition, $180,000; faculty of education, $160,000.
