"The way the Germans find excuses for submarining merchant ships reminds me of Johnny, the office boy," said Senator Lodge.

"Johnny's employer said to him jocularly one spring day:

"'Well, John, inasmuch as your grandmother died four times last year, I don't see how you'll manage to get to any of the ball games this season.'

"'But, sir,' said Johnny, quietly, 'haven't I told you that grandpa has married again, though it was much against the wishes of the family?'"

Notre Dame University of Wisconsin has a Grand Army post composed entirely of priests. After the war many of the priests who had taken part met at Notre Dame and organized the post. The first commander was Very Rev. William E. Corby, chaplain of the famous Irish Brigade of New York.

BIG SALARIES IN REVUE.
C. B. Cochran, who knows more about revues and what they cost than most people, says that so fierce a competition has been set up that disaster is threatened. Here are the salaries which in his circle are being spoken of as being paid to the leading actors and actresses:
Miss Ethel Levey, £600 a week.
Miss Gertie Miller, "not far below."
Mme Gaby Deslys, £500 a week.
Miss Shirley Kellogg, 200 a week.
George Robey, £250 a week.
George Graves "at least this figure."
Harry Tate, "in the same neighborhood."
Mr. Cochran adds, says the Yorkshire Evening Post, that there is some talk of Harry Lauder appearing in revue, with £300 a week plus a share of the profits.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

"ON TRIAL," OPERA HOUSE MONDAY NIGHT

"On Trial," the sensational drama which had such a phenomenal success in New York, is a melodrama of absorbing interest, gripping and thrilling, while its novel form adds to its appeal. It will be presented for the first time in St. John, at the Opera House on Monday night by Klark Urban Company.

It is distinctly a play of surprises, with many new and novel ideas in the way of scenic settings, surprises that made even blase New York sit up straight and take notice. The Klark Urban Company have endeavored to copy the original production as cleverly as possible, so far as scenic environment is concerned.

The story of the play is one of intensity—good straight drama, with the punch—with a mystery very much like a Conan Doyle story, one of those plays that takes you right into the atmosphere at the beginning and keeps the interest firmly tensed until the last moment. The fact that "On Trial" had a run of almost a year in New York speaks well for its merit as a play.

It will be presented here for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights and Wednesday matinee. Seats are now on sale for all performances.

MONDAY'S SHOW AT THE IMPERIAL

St. John Boys in England—Trip to Philadelphia — Lovely Fiction Picture

A hushed court-room, an old soldier on trial, a scar on the judge's head, and then the story. Twenty years before, a rival captain in the war, took away the beautiful young wife and curly-locked baby boy of the man before the court. Both are near him now. His wife sits beside him; his son is prosecuting him. The scar on the judge's forehead tells the tale of the secret duel of bygone years. Come recognition, pleadings with the political boss and a touch of pathos, a heart-felt bit of sentiment—delicate, appealing, and a happy ending through a veil of tears. Such is the sweet and touching tale "According to the Code," in which the eminent metropolitan star, Lewis S. Stone, will appear in the Imperial Theatre Monday and Tuesday.

The additional pictures will be "A Visit to Philadelphia,"—one whole reel—and the British Gazette will show among fifteen patriotic pictures, the Fourth Canadian Division at Bramshott Camp in England, on review before the King and Queen. This film will show a lot of St. John boys.

GEM PROGRAMME HOLDS PATRONS ENTHRALLED

"The Dividend," which was shown at The Gem last evening and will be given its final presentations at two performances tonight, held all intensely interested through five reels of a most intense heart searching story in which was revealed the evil of parental neglect of the boy. Parents seeing this picture must have been aroused to a realization of their responsibilities. In addition there were striking scenes depicting the lures of the underworld. The comedy "Willie's Wobbly Ways," showed Willie Collier in one of his best in the Keystone comedy series that is making the Gem noted for its superior laugh-raising pictures. See this programme tonight.

ENGAGEMENTS ANNOUNCED
Mr. and Mrs. David H. Ryan, of Newcastle, announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Miss Mabelle I., to John T. Hogan, of Brownville Junction, Me., formerly of Blackville, N. B. The wedding is to take place the third week of this month in St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Jessamine, of Douglastown, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Belle H., to Capt. Asa P. McLeod, the marriage to take place the latter part of the month.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Snow-McDonald.

At the residence of Mrs. James A. McDonald, Campbellton, on Wednesday afternoon, September 6, her eldest daughter, Miss Stella Marion McDonald, was united in marriage with Dr. C. Montague Snow, of Rexton, N. B. The bride entered the drawing room with her brother, J. C. McDonald, who gave her in marriage. She was attended by her sister, Miss Neita McDonald. The groom was supported by Gordon Black, of the Bank of N. S. staff in St. John. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wellington Camp, B. D., pastor of the Campbellton Baptist church, under a floral arch, with gates, and in the presence of a large number of relatives of both bride and groom. The wedding march was played by Mrs. McAleese, of New York.

The grooms present to the bride was a wrist watch, to the bridesmaid a cameo ring, to the best man, a tie pin with pearl settings, and to the pianist a gold pin with pearl and ruby settings. The large number of beautiful presents testified to the popularity of the couple.

After a dainty repast in the dining room, which was beautifully decorated with cut flowers, Dr. and Mrs. Snow took the Ocean Limited for Montreal, Toronto, Niagara Falls and other Canadian cities. On their return they will reside in Rexton, where Dr. Snow has a large practice.

Wetmore-Snell.

Wednesday morning in the Baptist church, Harvey, N. B., Rev. J. D. Wetmore united in marriage Miss Bessie Katherine, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. F. T. Snell, of Harvey, and Cyril B. Wetmore, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Wetmore, of Victoria, N. B. Those present from out of town were Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Wetmore, of Victoria, N. B., and Mr. and Mrs. James Wetmore and son Kenneth, of Moncton. Following the ceremony, the happy couple left by car for the North Shore. On their return they will reside at 254 Main street, St. John. They were the recipients of many valuable presents, among which was a substantial check from the Smith Brokerage Company, St. John. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold chain with diamond pendant. The groom is an employe of the Smith Brokerage Company, St. John, and the bride is late assistant superintendent of the General Public Hospital.

Andrews-Evans.

The chief event of interest this week at Perth was the marriage of Miss Reama Evans, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Evans, and John E. Andrews, manager of the local branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, which took place on Wednesday at noon, at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. K. Reid, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The bride wore white crepe de chine, with hat, and was attended by Miss Janet Curry, of Andover, who wore blue charmeuse and white net. The groom was supported by F. W. Pirie.

Higgins-Loney.

Cecil J. Higgins and Miss Nellie Loney, of Marysville, were married Thursday, the ceremony being performed by Rev. A. F. Newcomb at the Brunswick street United Baptist parsonage, Fredericton.

Higgins-Loney.

Fredericton, Sept. 8—Cecil J. Higgins and Miss Nellie Loney, of Marysville, were married here yesterday afternoon, the ceremony being performed by Rev. A. F. Newcomb at Brunswick street United Baptist parsonage.

Woods-Little.

A quiet wedding of interest took place last evening at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. F. H. Wentworth, when Miss Mollie Little, of 228 Brussels street, was united in marriage to Pte. Arthur James Woods. The happy pair will spend their honeymoon at Grand Lake (N. B.)

McTavish-Simpson.

On Tuesday afternoon, last week, at St. Stephen's Manse, Redbank, Allan Alexander MacTavish, son of the late John MacTavish of Cassillis, led to the altar Miss Evelyn A. Simpson, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Simpson of Redbank.

Rowe-Matthews.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Matthews, Moncton, Thursday evening, their daughter, Miss Margaret, was united in marriage with Clifford Hollis Rowe, of the C. G. R. offices.

THE ONLY PLEDGE OF PEACE

From the Rochester Herald.)

The indictment of the Kaiser as the cause of the war we believe to be valid, and we took the ground that he, or the militarists' group guiding his course, was responsible for it, at the start of the war. But it is not so important now to fix his responsibility for the war as it is to perceive that he is the person who, if left uncurbed, is likely to keep Europe and the world in general at odds even after the war is over. The Kaiser has often been reported as having said that he would like to be another Napoleon. Whether he ever did say so or not, it is not to be questioned that he has had dreams which were inconsistent with the ideals of peace, and that the greatest war in history is, in a large measure, due to the nature of those dreams. We believe that so long as the Hohenzollern family rules Germany, these dreams are likely to continue as factors disturbing to the peace of the world. If the Allies should succeed in dethroning the Kaiser, we feel confident that between the German people and the rest of the world there will remain no long-lived enmity.

EASY STYLES THAT FASHION FAVORS

For young men, easy styles fashion favors — coats with soft rolls, natural shoulders, no padding, coats cut to fit the figure, not to disfigure it.

Some rather striking patterns, appropriate and in good taste.

Prices $10 to $32—finished in an hour.

Fall Overcoats, too, ready-tailored, "live ones," at $12.50, $15, $18, $20—and a splendid assortment of the conservative greys and black, $12 to $28.

Science Saves Sight

The eyes almost always seem stronger than they really are. When doubt arises the safest course is to have the eyes scientifically tested so as to PROVE whether assistance has become necessary or not.

Our method of testing is the most scientific yet known, and it has been the means of saving many people's eyesight.

RECENT DEATHS

Dalhousie, N. B., Sept. 7—The death of Archibald Henderson, aged eighty-four years, occurred yesterday at his home, Charlo (N. B.), after an illness of over two years. Mr. Henderson was born in Scotland and came to New Brunswick when he was a boy and resided in Restigouche county ever since.

Rexton, Sept. 8—The death of Marcel Arseneau, a well known resident of Peters' Mills, occurred at his home there Saturday after a long illness at the age of seventy-three years and six months.

Harvey Station, Sept. 6—John Pagan, who for some time past has made his home at the residence of his brother-in-law, Councillor Robert Thompson, died there this morning after a few days' illness of paralysis. In early life deceased resided in St. John and afterwards in Fredericton. Forty-two years ago he came with his family to Tweedside, where he carried on farming and trading for some time. He afterwards moved to Harvey Station, built a store and carried on business for a few years. About thirty years ago he went to New York and engaged as bookkeeper and accountant by prominent firms there. After the death of his wife, who was the eldest daughter of John Thompson, one of the pioneers of Harvey, he came here to reside. He is survived by two sons, John T. and Frederick Pagan, of New York. He was in the 77th year of his age, was a man of sterling character and integrity and had many friends here and elsewhere. Both of his sons were with him when he died.

QUARTER'S BILL BIGGEST FOR FRANCE SINCE WAR BEGAN

Paris, Sept. 8—Alexandre F. Ribot, the French minister of finance, announced today that the appropriations committee of the chamber of deputies will introduce a law next Tuesday authorising a new national loan.

M. Ribot, explaining to the appropriations committee of the chamber the requirements for the last quarter of 1916, amounting to 8,847,000,000 francs, said the totals for the different periods of the war were:

"Five months of 1914, 7,000,000,000 frans, 1915, 22,000,000,000 francs; 1916, 32,000,000,000 francs. The finance minister said there was considerable difference between the sums appropriated and payments made because of delays in the deliverance of orders.

"The finance minister informed the committee confidentially in regard to the payments which France must make abroad, and upon the arrangements made with the British treasury and the Bank of England to maintain sterling exchange."

"Where is your lawyer?" inquired the judge.

"I have none," responded the prisoner; "haven't any money."

"Do you want a lawyer?" asked the judge.

"Yes, Your Honor."

"There are Mr. Smith, Mr. Brown and Mr. Green," said the judge, pointing to the young attorneys waiting, briefless and breathless, for something to turn up, "and Mr. Alexander is out in the corridor."

The prisoner eyed the budding attorneys and, after a critical survey, said, "Well, I guess I'll take Mr. Alexander."
