RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. Margaret Olson. Mrs. Margaret T., wife of Captain C. Olson, died suddenly in Brooklyn (N. Y.), Thursday, Dec. 23. The deceased was a native of St. John but removed to the States several years ago. Mrs. Olson was a sister of the late J. Sullivan, who died a few months ago. She is survived by her husband, one daughter and four sons, all of New York; one brother, Richard Sullivan; and two sisters, Mrs. L. Olson, of Halifax, and Mrs. M. Shaw, of this city.

Manchester, N. H., Dec. 30—Sister Saint Jerome, mother superior of the Grey Nuns, conducting the Notre Dame Hospital, died suddenly tonight. She was Miss Elise Laroche, daughter of a wealthy farmer of St. Victoire (Q.).

TWO LITTLE ONES SUFFOCATED

Taunton, Dec. 31—Left alone in their home at 82 Wales street, while their parents were attending a wake, James and Hilda Murphy, six and four years old, children of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Murphy, in some way set fire to the bed in which they were lying and were suffocated by the smoke.

Mrs. Murphy returned home about two a.m. and found the house full of smoke, coming from the room in which the children lay. With the aid of neighbors the bodies of the children were taken from the room and fire headquarters was notified by telephone. The fire in the room was confined to the bed.

The body of the little girl was scorched by the heat from the fire and the boy's face was slightly burned. Drs. Hayward and Crandall found that the children had been dead about two hours and that death was probably caused by suffocation from the smoke.
