An enthusiastic meeting of the Lancaster Red Cross Society was held last evening. There were more than forty ladies present and considerable work of a practical nature was accomplished. The society is now quite extensive, a committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. Murray Long, announced that arrangements had been completed for a concert on Thursday evening in the school for the deaf, Lancaster, which has been offered by the officials to the society. Some excellent talent has been secured and through only a short notice has been given to the public a generous response is looked for.

Mrs. J. V. Anglin, president of the society, read a circular from Red Cross

HERE IS WAR TAX POINT SETTLED

Definite Instructions as to Railway and Steamship Tickets

Since the first announcement of war taxes on railway tickets interest has awaited further details in St. John in regard to the suburbanites. Today official word was received, applicable to the L. C. R. Co. P. R. that "a commutation ticket is taxable on the whole amount paid for it at the time of purchase whether it covers ten trips, forty-six trips or fifty-five trips," and the same rule is applied to mileage books. As regards excursion or party tickets they are taxable on the whole amount paid for the movement of the party or gang and not on the separate fare for each individual.

The tax applies to all kinds of tickets for an amount above $1, so that it would not only include regular passage on trains but traffic on river steamers where the fare is beyond that sum, children's or half tickets, commercial travelers' tickets and all other tickets. Ten cents is the tax on each berth in a sleeping car besides the regular fare and five cents on each seat bought. On a drawing room in a sleeper the tax is thirty cents for three berths or six seats, or twenty-five cents where it contains but five seats.

The tax on a graduating scale on the straight fare, ranging from five cents to $1.50 in accordance with the amounts ranging from $1 to $150 with five cents for every $5 or fraction thereof additional, in excess of $150. Purchasers are warned that neglect or refusal to comply with the regulations will cause a penalty not exceeding $50.

SAD NEWS COMES BY WIRE TO R. B. TRAVIS

Death of His Brother George D. Occurred Yesterday in Vancouver

The death of George D. Travis, formerly of this city, occurred yesterday in an hospital in Vancouver, following an operation from which he did not rally. Mr. Travis, who was in the fifty-sixth year of his age, was a commercial traveler and was prominent in the L. O. F. He had many friends in St. John as well as in the west, who will hear of his death with deep regret. He left St. John twenty-two years ago and he is held in kindly remembrance by many in his old home.

Surviving are his wife, formerly Miss Cora Climo, of this city, one son and one daughter, four brothers, R. B. Travis, druggist at North End; John S. in St. Louis, Hamilton G. in Boston, and Charles W. in Whitehead, Kings county; also two sisters, Mrs. Harold Climo and Mrs. Atkinson Morrison of this city. Mr. Travis' death makes the third break in the family of five brothers. The burial will take place in Vancouver.

CORPORAL WILSON WRITES OF DANGEROUS PATROL WORK

Thomas L. Wilson of Chesley street, received a letter from his brother Corporal Walter Wilson, who is with the British force in France. He said that he was in the best of health. Shells were constantly bursting all around their quarters. He had been assigned to patrol duty, which meant a constant look-out for spies, snipers and carrier dogs. He narrated one of his night adventures while endeavoring to detect a night signaler and told about being fired upon by the enemy although it was quite impossible to tell from whence the bullets came. He said it was most exciting work although unquestionably dangerous. They were scouting around the greater part of the night and had met with considerable success. No lights, he said, are allowed in any of the soldiers' quarters as they would make an easy mark for the German gunners. He mentioned two other St. John boys who are billeted near his company, Fred Carson and Walter Logan. Both, he said, were in the best of health.

BOMBARDIER SHEAR HEARD FROM

Writing under date of March 27, Bombardier F. H. Shear, who is now on the firing line, says:—

"I am in the best of health. We are still giving big and little Willie a few lessons in right and justice, and I don't think they will forget them in a hurry. I am still in the same outfit, No. 3 Section, Divisional Ammunition Column, First Canadian Division, British Expeditionary Forces. I hope the boys in St. John are all doing their bit to help the cause of old England. We are not going to come back to St. John without letting the Germans hear from us."

FROM THE FIRING LINE

Mrs. Woodford Stephens, of Sackville, received a letter from Private Jack Ayer who is fighting in the British lines in France. Private Ayer's letter was written on the 16th of March and was received on March 29th. He is a Point de Bute boy. He says the British are driving the Germans back and taking well established positions. Every day sees new positions established.

"The French people," he says, "have every confidence in the success of the Allies and without hesitancy are putting in their crops almost directly under fire of the Germans."

TO RESUME WORK

Sackville Tribune—The Fawcett foundry which has been closed for some months will it is expected, resume operations on Wednesday. The same number of men will receive employment and will be employed for the same hours each day as previous to the closing down.
