THRILLING FILM
IS "NIGHT PATROL"

Richard Talmadge at Unique
Witwer's Series and Talkers
in Program

The Unique program last night was a banner one in every respect. The show opened with the season's laugh treat, H. C. Witwer's Series, "Bill Grimm's Progress," starring Al. Cooke and Kit Guard.

The next feature on the program presented Richard Talmadge as a swaggy young policeman in "The Night Patrol." The story, by Frank Howard Clark, gives the star many of his most thrilling stunts to do; in fact Talmadge discloses several new and amazing antics, several of which are shown in the mad race to the rescue of the brother of his sweetheart as the boy faces death in the electric chair. While the story has its measure of drama, it is filled with buoyant comedy and more subtle humor as well, with bounding Dick ever the good-natured agile youth whom the world admires. Talmadge clearly establishes himself as an actor of scope and understanding, evincing a dramatic power of expression. The cast presents, besides the star, a splendid group of players including Mary Carr, Gladys Huette, Charles Clary, Grace Darmond, Victor Dillingham and Arthur Conrad.

The program was concluded with Ben Bernie's Broadcasting Orchestra; also Brooks Johns and Goodie Montgomery in a banjo and dancing vaudeville act in the talking pictures.

Y. M. C. A. Staff Defeat
Dormats At Volley Ball

Members of the Y. M. C. A. staff defeated the Dormats in a game of volleyball in the gym last night. The Dormatory team were minus the services of several of their star performers and were forced to rely on "Smoky" Watson and "Red" Campbell to fill the gaps.

Three out of five games were played, the "Y" team winning three in a row by close scores.

Good Inter-Society
League Games Tonight

Two good games are expected in the Inter-Society Basketball League this evening on the floors of the Y. M. C. A., when the St. Rose's and St. Peter's meet in the first game and the Y. M. C. A. and St. John the Baptist immediately afterwards. The leadership of the league is at stake in the second game. Interest is running high in this league and the crowds are increasing at each game.

AFTER ZACH WHEAT.
NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Chicago Cubs, Washington Senators, New York Giants and New York Yanks all are seeking the services of Zach Wheat, 39-year-old baseball veteran, recently given unconditional release by the Brooklyn Robins.

20 Hold Ski Races
Here Next Saturday

With plenty of snow here now the Saint John Ski Club will hold a series of races at Lily Lake on Saturday, commencing at three o'clock. There will be events for men and women as well as girls and boys, and it is expected that many will participate. It is probable that there also will be a jumping exhibition by William Schulz, instructor of the club. The club house will be open and provision made for the comfort of the members.

A Stinging Satire On Divorce
WHEN A BEAUTIFUL, DIGNIFIED GENTLEMAN is married to a roistering rounder, marital difficulties are likely. When a beautiful, temperamental, siren actress is married to a serious-minded, pedantic author, difficulties are more than likely; but when into both marriages, a posing, egotistical stage director intrudes, linking both couples in impending scandal, the tragedy of mismatched lives is turned into comedy.

Carpentier Appears
Again In Roped Arena

PARIS, Jan. 12.—Georges Carpentier, French heavyweight pugilist, came back from fistic retirement last night to fight an exhibition bout with Jack Walker, of the United States, for the benefit of the Association of War Maimed. He delighted the spectators with a lively encounter but no decision was rendered.
