

MISS ESMONDE GETS MOOSE
Hon. Patricia Esmonde secured a splendid moose on a recent hunting trip in this province. The moose head which had a 56-inch spread, was seen in the city market yesterday. It will be sent to England to be mounted there.
It is said that the world's richest area lies in East Sumatra, in the East Indies.

Turning Leftovers into savory dishes

The French people—famous for thrift—used to say that they could feed six people with what the average family on this side of the Atlantic threw away.

It is almost inevitable that there should be things left from yesterday — yet the remains of roasts and steaks, the spoonfuls of vegetables, the food that has lost its taste, are no longer wasted, nor are the "scraps" turned into "stews."

The sprightly "OXO" CUBES with their supreme flavour of prime beef, have come to the rescue of those who want to be sensibly economical. Now you find "OXO" CUBES in thousands of homes and the French have changed their ideas about our extravagant cooking.

Minced Meat on Toast

2 cups of minced beef (left-over steak or roast)
2 "OXO" CUBES
1 cup boiling water
2 tablespoons flour
1 tablespoon butter

Mince the meat, removing all gristle and fat. Dissolve the cubes in the boiling water. Blend the butter and flour and stir quickly into the dissolved cubes. Pour over the meat and let simmer two or three minutes (long enough to cook the flour and heat the meat). Pour over six or seven slices of hot toast.

Where any gravy is left over, use but one "OXO" CUBE dissolved in ½ cup of boiling water and add the gravy. Season to taste.

Our Free Cook Book tells you how to do it

Many other attractive ways of utilizing left-overs are included in the "OXO" COOK BOOK. The recipes are simple and practical — the results well worth your trying. You will delight in the new dishes, too, that are economically made with "OXO" CUBES. Write for a copy to Oxo Limited, 214 St. Antoine St., Montreal. It will be mailed to you FREE and postage paid.
