ing address on public health matters, for which he was tendered a vote of thanks moved by Miss Dodge, seconded by Miss Barbour. The matter of affiliation with the Local Council of Women was again brought up for discussion and by a majority of one on motion of Miss Alward, seconded by Miss Wales, it was decided to join. Misses Alward, Sherwood, Crowley and Dick were appointed delegates to the council. The association decided to be responsible for fifty tickets for the approaching concert under the auspices of the G. W. V. A.

Thanks were expressed from Major H. H. Donnelly for greetings on behalf of first contingent men at the Ypres anniversary, and from Mrs. H. Lawrence for aid given in needy cases. A vote of $20 was passed to help a convalescent girl in medical treatment. Many other needy cases were voted grants. Miss Upham reported as convener for the Seamen's Mission canteen and her report was received with much applause. A resolution of sympathy was ordered sent to Miss Brock, ex-president, in her bereavement. Miss Barber reported as convener of the ticket committee to help the anti-tuberculosis society. Miss Ailce Fairweather presided at the meeting, which was well attended.

SOME 500 OR 600 ON STRIKE IN MONCTON

Moncton, N. B., May 7—With an additional number of journeymen carpenters, mason, plasterers, plumbers, etc., going on strike yesterday, it was estimated that between 500 and 600 men were out last night. At a meeting of the building trades council J. A. Macdonald, of Amherst, was chosen as the strikers' arbitrator. It was said the builders' exchange will meet today to appoint a committee to meet Mr. Macdonald.

VETOES BEER BILL.

Boston, May 7—Governor Coolidge yesterday vetoed the bill intended to legalize the manufacture and sale of beverages containing not more than 2.75 per cent of alcohol in this state. As the supreme court has yet to speak on the constitutionality of the Volstead act, the governor said it was "better to proceed with candor. Wait until the supreme court talks."

IN PARLIAMENT

Marine Estimates Under Fire Yesterday

Hon. Hugh Guthrie on Classification of Department of Militia — Pensions Matter Out of Order.

(Canadian Press.)

Ottawa, May 7—Yesterday in the House of Commons a bill to provide for the standardization of interchangeable parts of agricultural machinery was introduced.

There was further discussion in committee on the franchise act and progress was reported.

Some estimates of the marine department were passed. Wm. Duff of Lunenburg said the men on government steamers were the poorest paid in Canada. Hon. Mr. Ballantyne said they would receive an increase under the civil service re-classification.

Papers in reference to the ice-breaker J. D. Hazen were promised.

A. T. Leger of Kent urged more pay for lighthouse keepers. Mr. Ballantyne said they would benefit under re-classification.

R. W. Wigmore, St. John, accused the maritime Liberals of wasting the time of the house and delaying the estimates.

Mr. Duff put in a plea for the Nova Scotian coastwise trade which sought better facilities for sending help to steamers in distress.

Mr. Ballantyne told Dr. Chisholm of Inverness that the new range light asked for on the Inverness coast could not be built for reasons of economy. Dr. Chisholm and Mr. Duff both protested that this was not a good reason for leaving life and property in danger.

Hon. Hugh Guthrie, minister of militia, said that a classification of the department of militia and defence had been submitted to the civil service commission. In every case where a returned soldier held a position which it was proposed to make permanent, his name had been submitted for appointment. With regard to the other positions, it had been suggested to the civil service commission that these positions should be thrown open to competition, thereby giving returned soldiers an opportunity of obtaining the appointment.

That 151 employes, of whom 108 are temporary employes, constitute the staff of the civil service commission was set out in an answer today to a question of H. C. Hocken of Toronto West. The payroll of the permanent staff shows $65,120 a year and of the temporary staff $87,970, a total of $153,094 for the last year.

The speaker ruled out of order a statement of Hume Cronyn of London, chairman of the parliamentary pensions committee, on Colonel Peck's resignation from that committee and the circumstances surrounding the incident. The whole matter will likely be debated within a few days.

In the senate the bill to confirm the government's agreement for the purchase of the Grand Trunk Railway was reported from committee.

A special committee reported recommending the investigation of the whole question of steamship service to the Magdalene Islands.

Senator Robertson announced a pension scheme for the employes of the new national railway system as soon as the various lines were consolidated.

The trust companies act and civil service insurance act received third reading.

ENGINEERS IN ANNUAL MEETING

G. G. Murdoch Succeeds C. C. Kirby as President — Encouraging Reports.

At the annual meeting of the St. John branch of the Engineering Institute of Canada last evening officers were elected and reports for the year submitted. The financial report and the report of the retiring secretary, A. R. Crookshank, were encouraging, while much interest was taken in the report of C. C. Kirby, retiring president. F. G. Goodspeed read a paper on "The Improvement of Navigation in River Estuaries," which was well received. Reports were submitted from G. M. Hatfield for the employment bureau, G. G. Murdoch for the town planning committee, A. Gray for the concrete in sea water committee, and H. Bennett for the civic centre committee. Mr. Kirby's reports on legislation and harbor commission were read.

The following were elected and took office last night for the ensuing year: Chairman, G. G. Murdoch; secretary-treasurer, H. F. Bennett; executive committee, F. P. Vaughan, the balance of the committee being the retiring chairman, C. C. Kirby, and C. O. Foss and G. G. Hare.

KILLING OF BABY IS CHARGE AGAINST BOY

Bradford, Pa. May 6—Leo Kelly, aged sixteen, was arrested yesterday charged with the killing of ten months old Ruby Gemmell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Gemmell. The police say Mr. Gemmell had reprimanded Kelly, who is the adopted son of James Gemmell, brother of Oliver. According to the police, the boy, a few minutes after the scolding, removed the baby from her crib, took her into another room and killed her. Authorities said that Kelly has twice been an inmate of an institution for feeble minded.
