"KILLED 20" WRITES ST. JOHN SOLDIER HOME

Mr. Whitworth Gets Further News From Her Wounded Husband

"I killed twenty of the enemy and wounded many more, so I guess I will have to put up with what I got from them." is the way in which Private A. E. Whitworth, of this city, who was wounded in action in France, sends a message to his wife, who resides in Brussels street.

Yesterday's English mail brought a great deal of good cheer to her home, as in it were two letters and two post cards for the soldier's wife. Although the cards were in the nurse's handwriting, Private Whitworth was able to pencil the letters himself. In one of them he stated that he was laid low with a bullet wound in the chest the morning after he had passed right through his body. Although at the time of writing he had been lying on his back for more than three weeks, he was gradually regaining strength and was able to sit up to write.

He appeared to be doubtful as to his chances of getting back again on the firing line, and thought that as soon as he was able to get out of the hospital he would be sent home. Private Whitworth was with the Worcestershire regiment and left St. John's on the outbreak of the conflict. His wife and friends are greatly pleased with the news of his increasing good health and hope to see him in the city before long. He is now in the town hall at Torquay, which has been converted into a hospital. One of the post cards shows a picture of the building, which is a very substantial structure, about the size of the local custom house.

The Best Quality at a Reasonable Price Diamond Dirt $3.00 a Ton.

That is about what it is worth in the Kimberly fields. Each ton is a gambler's bet. A ton hoisted half a mile or more, it lies out in the fields for six months to a year to be disintegrated by the weather, so that it can be "washed," and then the average Diamond yield is only a small fraction of a carat. Many tons of Diamond dirt yield no stones at all.

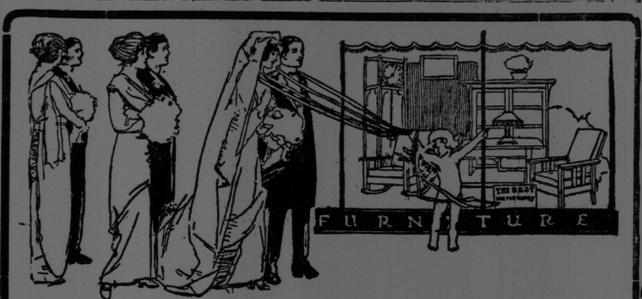

The carat—374 grains, Troy weight—not the ton, is the basis of Diamond value. Diamonds perfectly cut in the "brilliant" form can be had ranging in weight from about 1-32 of a carat up, at Sharpe's.

Fortunately we are well stocked with Diamonds of all sizes, and you can make a selection at prices that prevailed before the war began.

Christmas gifts selected now will be laid away until wanted on payment of a small deposit.

FRANCE AT WAR WITH GOVERNMENT OF TURKEY NOT WITH THE PEOPLE

Paris, Nov. 10.—A despatch from Bordeaux says that a formal declaration of war signed by the five allies, was issued on Monday against Turkey.

The French declaration is remarkable. After mentioning the Black Sea episode, as the direct cause of war, it says that the German submarines, were waiting for German officers, without due cause had bombarded Russian ports, a state of war existed between Turkey and the five allies. It then continues:

"It is not the French republic's intention ever to forget the cordial friendship which for many centuries has linked France with the Ottoman Empire. In view of this fact, it will not consider the great many Turkish subjects at present residing within the French borders as hostile enemies, but in the light of true friends."

BOYS ARRESTED

Four boys, each fourteen years old, were arrested last evening charged with "beating" their way into the Imperial Theatre. The boys were taken before the magistrate in the juvenile court this afternoon. W. H. Golding, manager of the Imperial, said this morning that a gang of boys had been making a practice, even in the old Nickel Theatre of getting into the picture shows through exits and that this was an offense not only against the management of the theatre but also against the regulations of the fire underwriters, as these doors were meant to be used only as exits and should not be obstructed by anyone coming in. The management decided to put a stop to this practice and laid a trap for the boys last evening with the result that four of them were arrested.

IMPERIAL VAUDEVILLE VERY SUMPTUOUS Krelles a Fine Act—Splendid Pictures—"East Lynne" Tomorrow

The Krelles vaudeville act, which appears at the Imperial this afternoon, night and for the remainder of the week at the regular programme time, offers a most elaborate musical programme on the violin, cello, piano and vocal. Their stage setting is of a very sumptuous character and quite eclipses similar settings seen in the big house since its opening. The programme of pictures for tonight includes a two-part Viennese drama, a two-part Lubin comedy-drama, a Slim Jim comedy and the Heart-Slig Weekly which contains the war news.

Tomorrow Mrs. Henry Wood's immortal romance of love, hate and ambition "East Lynne" will be produced by a noted English company in six engrossing reels. This good old favorite is played by a distinguished cast of notable players and was staged in the beautiful and historic Severn River Valley of western England. The leading roles will be played by Miss Blanche Forsythe, a London favorite who is to be Lady Isabel and the Richard Carleton of the story will be enacted by Fred Paul, noted as a matinee hero throughout the British Isles. "East Lynne" will be shown Wednesday and Thursday starting at 2, 4, 7 and 9 o'clock.

There will be no increased prices whatever for the production of "East Lynne." It will be wise, nevertheless, for persons making up theatre parties to engage their reserved seats during the day and not leave until the last moment when the rush is on. Advance tickets of all kinds will be sold in the imperial stores throughout the day and evening.

SUGGESTS WINTER

Last night made a supreme effort to break October's temperature record of twentyfour above zero and did so, but only by a fraction of a degree. This morning was more like the genuine winter article than we have seen so far. A little after nightfall last evening, the mercury began to drop and went to a little below the 24 mark. A few flakes of dry frost snow all morning made the weather look real homelike.

GOOD HUNTSMEN

Theodore Roosevelt may have hunted in South American wilds and discovered an unnamed river, Paul Hainney may have explored the jungles of Africa in search of game, Mr. Whitney may have won fame in his hunting exploits in the "silent places," but three local sportsmen who returned home from the Miramichi last night feel that in the vernacular of the day the three distinguished gamblers referred to "have nothing on them. Many a sportsman goes to the woods in search of the big game to be had and returns with a few birds in his game-bag, but to D. J. Corr, Dr. D. J. Logan, and P. E. Whelan, who came home yesterday after a ten days' hunt along the northwestern branch of the Miramichi, was given the honor of each one filling the allowance of his license, in moose and deer. Big game they reported to be particularly plentiful and each brought two fine deer and a moose. The only possibility on their certificate which was not attained was a caribou. They were accompanied by P. E. Whelan of Renous as guide and speak most highly of his ability and territory.
