LOCAL NEWS

CONSTELLATIONS CLASH
The Hazen Avenue Stars defeated the Exmouth street Stars by a score of 10 to 8. The battery for the winners was Mikkelsen and Dritz, and for the losers, Higgins and White. The big feature of the game was a home run by H. Dritz.

CAMPING PARTY
Messrs. Royden Barbour, Clarence Edgcombe and Lawrence Schofield, of St. John, and a number of others left this morning for Robertson Point on Grand Lake. The party will spend about two weeks camping at that place.—Gleaner.

GEORGE M. McDADD
It is understood that George M. McDade, who acted as publicity agent for the Board of Trade in connection with the Old Home Week Celebration, is to be permanently situated in this city as the secretary of the board. Mr. McDade at present engaged in compiling a book setting forth Fredericton's many advantages as an industrial, commercial and residential centre.—Gleaner.

OLDFIELD-PERRY
A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Perry, 88 St. James street, west end, last night, when their daughter Miss Senath May Perry was united in marriage to Waldo E. Oldfield, of Kings county. The bride was given away by her father, and was attended by Miss Elsie Perry. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. R. Robinson in the presence of a few friends gathered in the room. After the ceremony a tempting luncheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. Oldfield and their friends throughout the province, and on their return will reside in St. James street west end. Both the bride and groom received many handsome presents.

HORSE DISAPPEARS FROM MAIN STREET
Another case of "driving a horse that didn't belong to him," occurred this morning in the North End, when a horse and sled owned by Alexander Clark, which he had left standing in the roadway outside a barber store in Main street, was driven away while he was inside.

When Clark noticed the horse missing, he telephoned to the North End police station asking for assistance in rounding up the culprit. Several people saw the saw a young boy driving the horse off, and heading it up Adelaide street, and that of that street, however, failed to give any signs of the missing beast.

Clark seems to have quite a little trouble with horses during the last year. Only a few months ago, while he was in the employ of a firm on Main street, his horse was "spirited away" and was found off Murray street.

ORPHANS TO ATTEND TOMORROW'S GAME

The management of the Marathon baseball team have kindly extended an invitation to the orphans of both the Catholic and Protestant Orphan Institutions in the city to attend the ball game on the Marathon grounds on Friday afternoon between the Marshalls and the Woodstock Colts. It is altogether likely that the boys from the Protestant Orphan Asylum and those from St. Patrick's school at Silver Falls will attend the game. The boys of the Wiggins' Orphan Asylum are spending their vacation in the country and will not be able to be present.

In many of the big league centres the orphans are invited to attend the games quite often, and much credit is due to the management of the teams for remembering the little ones in St. John.

SUES MARATHON CLUB FOR MONTH'S SALARY

In the civil court this morning Larry Connolly, an ex-Marathon ball player, entered a suit against the management of the Marathon team for one month's salary, which he claims is due him. Connolly played with the Greeks for some time, but was released and went to the Halifax Socials. Before the arrival of George Winter, Connolly acted as manager of the team for several weeks.

George H. Y. Belyea appeared for the plaintiff, and Daniel Mullin, K.C., appeared for the team management. Mr. Mullin produced an affidavit sworn to by D. B. Donald setting forth the fact that Connolly was a resident of Providence, R.I., and only a temporary resident of New Brunswick. Mr. Belyea contended that the plaintiff was a professional baseball player and that wherever he went he made his home for a certain time. The question arose as to the matter of arranging for the security for costs and the case was adjourned until next Thursday.

LIGHTNING'S PRANKS

The chimney was almost knocked through the house when a window was blown out and some plaster sent in all directions in the home of John C. Fulton, 88 Mecklenburg street during the height of the electrical storm last night.

It was about midnight when a particularly loud clap sent the kitchen window, seat and all inward at the same time the plaster on the ceiling and walls came down with a crash. Shortly following the chimney in the rear was sent off close to the roof, some of the bricks going through into the room below. In the flat below where the Custom Credit Clothing Co. are located their electric light system was put out of business and soot and plaster spread all over the carpet. The electric light system in Colman's grocery store on the corner of Mecklenburg street was also blown out.

BEAUTIFYING THE STREETS OF ST. JOHN

Arboricultural Society Planting New Trees—Total Now of 600—Market Square Plot

The Times this morning interviewed W. E. Foster, president of the Arboriculture Society, relative to its work for this year. Mr. Foster said:

"In a view of the Times recently it was suggested that the Arboriculture Society should consider the advisability of planting some trees on St. James and Wentworth streets. This suggestion will, I am sure, be placed before Mr. Gould, the forester of the society, by the directors in their next meeting. It is most desirable to meet the views of all who wish trees planted in various localities, but we hope in time to meet the requests that have been placed before us.

Relying upon the generosity of the citizens to assist in the work, the society ordered 200 trees, which, during last spring, were placed in various parts of the city, making a total of nearly 600 trees. The society has planted in various parts of the city in the short term of existence; and it is gratifying to know that 90 per cent. of these are thriving. Some preliminary work has also been done on the Market Square plot which, next year, we hope to improve by the addition of shrubs and flowers.

"The collector for the society is now calling upon the members for their subscriptions, which the directors hope will be met with a ready response."

DR. SIMPSON'S ANNUAL MISSIONARY COLLECTION AMOUNTED TO $51,000

That the annual offering received by the Christian and Missionary Alliance at Old Orchard Sunday will amount to about $51,000 was the statement made by the leaders Sunday night. According to the announcement at the close of the morning service, the sum of $28,000 was pledged in just 20 minutes, or at the rate of $1,700 a minute, but later in the day it was found that a slight mistake had been made in figuring the total and that it would be necessary to go over the cards again.

In the afternoon $17,000 was pledged, and had the figures at the first service held good the total for the day would have been $45,000, but the Rev. Dr. A. B. Simpson, the leader of the alliance in this country, and his co-workers were confident that they would leave Old Orchard with promises of at least $51,000. This is about the same as was received last year and considering the state of the weather it is a good showing. In fact, the alliance people are much pleased.

For the first time in 30 years the jinx pursued Dr. Simpson in the shape of bad weather. Usually when he comes to this place with his band of followers the people take it for granted that the weather will be excellent during his stay. But this season the meetings started in with rain and Sunday the people were forced to go into the laboratory. The picnic was packed to overflowing, about 1,500 being present, and all remained to the close of Dr. Simpson's sermon, in which he compared the sums contributed for missions annually to the money paid for chewing gum, soda, auto tires, hats and shoes, jewelry, cigars and tobacco and intoxicating liquors. The Rev. Charles Inglis of London opened the morning service by reading the scripture lesson and prayer was offered by the Rev. P. Forrest Atlantic, of Miramichi. Margaret Simpson of New York, daughter of the leader, sang a solo, and this was followed by the annual missionary sermon by Dr. Simpson.

FLAM WAS FLIM-FLAMMED

Sweetheart Stole His Money as Well as His Heart

Chatham, Aug. 15.—(Special)—True love did not run smooth in the case of Edward Flam and Katie Epotion of this town. Flam had been courting Miss Epotion and the courtship had reached the stage where a ring was demanded and in response to his sweetheart's wishes Mr. Flam states that he gave her the money to buy the ring. She did not buy the ring and the did not return the money, and now Flam is suing her in the civil court for the return of the money. The amount involved is said to be $5. The case was started this morning before Magistrate Connors and was adjourned for a week.

Store closes evenings 6 p. m. Saturday's 11 p. m.
