Jay Wilkes Defeats Buchanan and Paddy Bangs Wins in Three Straight - Talk of More This Week

The much talked of horse race between William Kiernan's Buchanan and Jay Wilkes, owned by Ross Bros., of Musquash was run off on the speedway at Millidgeville on Saturday afternoon, and resulted in an easy win for Jay Wilkes which carried off the money in three straight heats.

Upwards of 1,000 people were on the ice long before the race started. Every conceivable mode of conveyance was present in service—autos, buckboards, sledges and carriages—to take the crowd out of the track was in fairly good condition.

WAS TERRIBLY AFFLICTED WITH LAME BACK. COULD NOT SWEEP FLOOR. Three Boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills Cured Her.

It is hard to do housework with a weak and aching back. Backs come from sick kidneys, and what a lot of trouble sick kidneys cause. But they can't help it. If more work is put on them than they can stand it is not to be wondered they get out of order.

Weak back is simply a warning from the kidneys and should be attended to immediately so as to avoid years of terrible suffering from kidney trouble. Mrs. N. Larmon, Smith's, Ontario, writes: "I take pleasure in writing you, stating the benefit I have received by using Doan's Kidney Pills. I was afflicted with lame back and was so weak I could not sweep the floor. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, which I did, and with the greatest benefit. I only used three boxes and my back is as good as ever. I highly recommend these pills to all who suffer from lame back or kidney trouble."

DEPOT HOTEL IN SUSSEX IS BURNED

People in House Escape by Ladders and Jumping Into Blankets—Drug Store and Ticket Office Destroyed

Sussex, March 13.—The Depot Hotel was destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning, and the people in the house had narrow escapes from death. The fire started about 1:30 o'clock, and spread with great rapidity, so that guests sleeping in the upper rooms, found themselves trapped. A number had to jump from windows and were caught in blankets held by the crowd that quickly assembled.

Others waited until ladders were placed up to the windows, and were rescued in that way. Some of those staying in the house saved anything, so quickly did the flames spread. Mrs. Arthur McLean, who owns the hotel, was carried out in her night clothes.

Through the firemen arrived early on the scene they could do little to stop the fire and their attention was given mainly to protecting the adjoining buildings owned by Dr. White and Miller Bros.

The origin of the fire is unknown and the loss is estimated to be in the vicinity of $80,000. D. J. Sharpe, who conducted a drug store on the ground floor, lost everything, and the C. P. R. ticket agent, who had an office in the building, also lost everything. The Depot House was built about ten years ago and was conducted under the management of A. D. Pugsley. There were about twenty-five staying in the hotel at the time of the fire.

The hotel and furniture were insured as follows: Hotel, Queens, $2,000; British American, $2,000; Liverpool, London, Globe, $2,000; Western, $2,000; Furniture, $13,000; D. J. Sharpe carried $2,000 in the Queen on his stock, and $2,000 in the same company office fixtures.

WEDDING MARCH WAS SHOCKING

A young girl who had never heard of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, but was familiar with the most popular parody on it, was a witness to a wedding. As the betrothed pair walked with dignified tread towards the altar to be wed and the organ pealed forth Mendelssohn's inspiring march, the young girl was plainly shocked. When she arrived at her home she told her mother of the wedding ceremony and innocently exclaimed: "What do you think, mother, they played 'Wedding'! I'm glad I'm free."

Many a man who like a genius when all that sits him is indignation.

THAT FEELING OF FULLNESS

Disappears in Five Minutes After Taking a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet

A Trial Package Sent Free on Request

All of the unpleasant sensations attend, not upon eating too heartily, but upon eating too fast, and upon digesting it properly. The reason is simple and easy to understand.

When you take food into a stomach that is tired and over-taxed the gastric juices do not form fast enough to digest it properly. So the food becomes sour and acid and begins to throw off gases. Your stomach becomes bloated and you feel as if you had a toy balloon to a gas jet.

Now all this condition is changed almost instantly by a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet. This little white tablet gets into your stomach and acts like a gas jet.

Try a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and you will see how you ever get that feeling of fullness. They are sold at all drug stores everywhere. A trial package sent free on request to F. Stuart Co., 159 Street Blig, Montreal, Mich.

A SON OF ERIN

"Kit," who is responsible for the warm department in CANADA MONTHLY tells in the March number a characteristic story of Dublin. "Old White" says "Kit," "one time house-steward of the Mansion House, Dublin, was a well-known character. He had a hot temper and a sarcastic tongue—a very Irish combination and the Lord Mayor himself often felt the sting of both. White was once guilty of some neglect of duty, and was summoned before the mayor, who said: 'White, I have borne with you in many things, but this complaint goes beyond my power of endurance. I've just heard it from two members of the Corporation.' 'Faith,' retorted White, 'if I believed all that twenty town councillors, an alderman say about you, it's little I'd think you were fit to wear the fouch chain of the Lord Mayor of Dublin.'"

A rather funny story is told by Madge Macbeth, in the March number of CANADA MONTHLY, of a young mother who was calling at a house where Lady Laurier was also paying a visit. After an unusual short stay, the mother rose and pleaded her boy as an excuse for leaving. "I must get back to that young man of mine," she said, with conscious pride. "Lady Laurier rose, too," she said, "I have that same trouble with my dogs, you know," she added, much to the young mother's secret indignation.
