

MT. ROYAL HOTEL BUSINESS GROWS

King Edward Report Also Good—Admiral Beatty Tenders Discussed

Comparative reports for the first five months of each year presented on Monday at the meeting of the Mount Royal Hotel Company, Limited, Montreal, says the Montreal Gazette, showed an increase of business at that establishment during the period just terminated as against the similar part of 1923. The general business was better and the report indicated an increase in the net earnings in comparison with last year's experience. The meeting was held at the offices of the Mount Royal Hotel and there were present Frank A. Dudley, president of the United Hotels of America, who was in the chair; General J. Leslie Kincaid, New York; and the following local directors: Wm. Birks, Senator Beaulieu, E. R. Decary, Senator Smeaton, White, Lord Shaughnessy, K. C., Gen. H. O'Neill, Toronto, general manager of the United Hotels in Canada; and D. H. McDougall, secretary-treasurer of the hotel. In reviewing the business of the Mount Royal it was said that conditions were excellent, the booking being exceptionally heavy. It was pointed out that the hotel has booked six conventions during June, and for one of them, that of the New York State Bankers Association, 700 reservations have been accepted. Before returning to New York last night Mr. Dudley said that prospects were very good.

Mr. O'Neill was very enthusiastic regarding business in Toronto, and said that the King Edward Hotel would do a record total during this summer, the list of conventions being unusually large. After the meeting of the Mount Royal directors, Messrs. Thomas and Bell, of St. John, N. B., met Messrs. Dudley, O'Neill and Kincaid, who are directors of the proposed Admiral Beatty Hotel at St. John, and discussed matters concerning that establishment. Tenders had been received for the building, but it was decided to defer a decision a few days to allow some changes and amendments proposed by the architects.

Many June Brides Today

Gray-McLaughlin

A wedding of much interest took place in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception this morning at 9 o'clock when Miss Agnes Bernadine McLaughlin, youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Gray, of Junce road, Halifax. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Warren Leo Gray, manager of the north end branch of the Provincial Bank of Canada, and son of Mrs. Catherine Gray and the late Warren Gray, of Junce road, Halifax. The event was particularly noteworthy on account of the fact that brothers of both the bride and groom officiated at the services. Rev. Joseph L. McLaughlin, C. S. R., performing the marriage ceremony and Rev. Vincent Gray, of St. Joseph's church, Halifax celebrating the nuptial mass.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, William J. Mahoney. She presented a very charming appearance in a wedding gown of white satin, with train of the same material faced with fish georgette and a veil of silk tulle with coronet of rose point lace and wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses, and a train of the same material. The groom was dressed in a dark brown suit, with imported and hat, and shoes, stockings and gloves to match, and carried a beautiful bouquet of Ophelia roses. She was unattended. Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Gray left on the steamer Empress for a wedding trip through the Annapolis Valley, Kentville and Wolfville. On their return they will reside at 284 Guilford street. A large number of costly and beautiful presents, including china, silver, cut glass and linen, testified to the popularity of the bride and groom. The groom is employed with the engineering staff of the New Brunswick Pulp and Paper Company. Many friends wish them every happiness.

Green-Smith

A pretty wedding was solemnized in St. George's church, West St. John, this morning at 7 o'clock, when Rev. W. J. Sampson united in marriage Miss Annie Flood Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Smith of 284 Guilford street, West End, to Harold Edward Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Green of Manawagonish road. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a dark brown suit, with imported and hat, and shoes, stockings and gloves to match, and carried a beautiful bouquet of Ophelia roses. She was unattended. Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Green left on the steamer Empress for a wedding trip through the Annapolis Valley, Kentville and Wolfville. On their return they will reside at 284 Guilford street. A large number of costly and beautiful presents, including china, silver, cut glass and linen, testified to the popularity of the bride and groom. The groom is employed with the engineering staff of the New Brunswick Pulp and Paper Company. Many friends wish them every happiness.

McGinnis-Trainor

Miss Elizabeth Trainor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Trainor, of Clifton street, West St. John, and Francis Joseph McGinnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McGinnis, City Line, were united in marriage at the Church of the Assumption this morning at 9 o'clock, Rev. J. J. Ryan officiating. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. and Mrs. William Donahue, uncle and aunt of the bride. Miss Trainor wore a white tulle gown with a navy blue hat to match and carried a white prayer book. Included amongst the guests were several relatives and friends from the city. The bride received many beautiful gifts and best wishes from a large circle of friends for her future happiness. Mr. and Mrs. McGinnis will make their home in Clifton street, West St. John.

Howard-Sterritt

A pretty wedding was solemnized this morning at 7.30 in St. David's church when Rev. Hugh Miller united in marriage Miss Hazel Sterritt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Sterritt, R. N., and John E. Howard. A large number of the friends of the contracting parties were at the church to witness the ceremony. The bride was gowned in a navy blue tailored suit and fawn hat and carried a bridal bouquet of roses. She was unattended. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Howard left on the American boat for a trip to U. S. cities. On their return they will reside at Pandemonia for the summer months.

Said-Daves

The marriage took place Monday afternoon in St. Matthew's church Notre Dame de Grace, of Miss Jessie Pihel Daves, daughter of Mr. William E. Daves and the late Mrs. Daves, to William T. Said, son of the late William Said and of Mrs. Said, of St. John, N. B., Rev. E. P. Judge, performing the ceremony, and the wedding music was played by Mr. E. H. Morgan, organist of the church. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white flat crepe made very simply, with narrow flounces of Corrick-croch lace, and her veil was arranged under a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and lily of the valley. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. G. A. Eise, a matron-of-honor, who was gowned in powder blue flat crepe made with panels of broad georgette and a hat of the same color.

Mealey-Maxwell

A quiet wedding was solemnized at 7.30 this morning in Centenary Methodist church by the Rev. R. G. Fulton, when Miss Margaret Rice Maxwell, daughter of Samuel Rice Maxwell and the late Janet Watts Maxwell of this city was united in marriage to Frederick Stanley Mealey, also of this city. Many beautiful presents were received among which was a handsome silver service from the staff of the Furness, Withy Co., Ltd., where the groom is employed. Mr. and Mrs. Mealey left on the "Empress" for Digby thence to Halifax, where they will embark on the R. M. S. P. S. S. Claudiere for Bermuda.

WILL INTEREST HOUSEWIVES.

Housewives who, about this time of year, have been the habit of preserving rhubarb and using therewith a quantity of pineapple, will find that nature has been kinder to them in bringing on the two crops at their abundance at practically the same time. A canvass of fruit and vegetable prices in the city today resulted in the information that both commodities are now on hand in plentiful quantities and at reasonable prices. A coincidence that has not been frequent in recent years. Rhubarb prices today averaged 3 cents a pound and pineapples ranged from 15 to 20 cents each.

DEMPSEY KNOCKS OUT 3 IN A ROW

Gives Slashing Exhibition and Raises $35,000 For Milk Fund.

Los Angeles, June 4.—Jack Dempsey knocked out three heavyweights in the entertainment of a capacity crowd at Vernon Arena last night. Dempsey, coolly and tastefully attired in a dark suit, laid out his men with ease, grace and precision, and incidentally added in raising an estimated total of $35,000 for the milk fund of the Los Angeles Philanthropy and Civics Club which promoted the affair.

Rocco Stragaglia, impulsive Italian, who last summer was credited with blackening Dempsey's eye during a training camp bout, was the first to enter the ring against the champion. Dempsey belabored him with both fists, assailing him on all sides, and had him crawling for cover before the gong ended the round. Stragaglia came up groggy for the second session and was again clouted relentlessly. He seemed anxious to avoid further punishment and Dempsey humored him for a time, but after a minute had ticked off he put the Italian to sleep with a solar plexus punch.

Joe Ryan, Los Angeles heavyweight, was the next person served. Tall and strapping, he looked the conquering hero until a handful of Dempsey's vigor smote him. He was on the canvas in a few seconds, and seemed inclined to stay there, but the champion courteously lifted him to his feet. Later, Ryan was back on his feet, and Dempsey stood the big lad on his feet and that time Ryan stood up until the bell. He refused to come out for the second round, however.

Then Eli Stanton danced lightly in the ring and began dancing about the champion. Dempsey let him dance, then backed off, measured his man carefully, and with painstaking precision placed a smashing left hook on Eli's chin. It was a knockout.
