

MEDICAL OFFICER'S REPORT FOR 1886.

As the Superintendent has reported so fully the circumstances connected with the operations of the House, I need only say that six men and two women have died in the House during the year, one aged 51, one 62, one 67, and all the others were between 70 and 86.

Respectfully,

UZZIEL OGDEN, M. D.