VICTORIA TIMES TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1899.

the city treasury. "By doing so the al- enforce their views upon their aldermen dermanic board," he added, "would be when they would not be treated with district in fighting for the rights discrete to us and a kindly act contempt as they had been treated, as of Victoria West. to the gentlemen interested." (Ap- the refusal of the council to attend, afpiause.)

ter being politely requested to do so, He hoped that the council would take abundantly proved. (Applause.) a sensible and a just view of the mat-ter. All Victoria West wanted was a speaker, "and we will see whether measure of simple justice from a large Mayor Redfern or Ald. Kinsman, or any and important part of the city to a grow- one else, will be allowed to tyrannize ing young member of the community. over us. I have said nothing of which I am ashamed or for which I should He gathered from the speech of the apologize. (No, no.) But I do resent mayor, or one of the aldermen, that he as a Britisher the tyranny which had held that Victoria West had received been exercised by the council in regard back in expenditures all she had payed to Victoria West. The speaker, however, would

Rev. Mr. Knox asked to be excused like to ask how many of the debentures from speaking as he had been in the for the good of the city in electric light- meeting but a few minutes.

ing, sewerage, constructing a reservoir, Mr. S. Okell also resented AM. Kins etc., had been paid for by Victoria West, man's remarks. If he were a gentleman which benefitted nothing by them. he would certainly apologize. He had been surprised at the expression used,

Capt. Jas. Gaudin mentioned fire prodrill hall last night somewhat militated tection as one of the crying necessities had found his noighbors such her shid had found his neighbors such law-abidagainst the size of the audience in of the place, as most of the places which had ever caught fire in the suburb had ing people. He was sorry the mayor semple's name, out there was no lack of interest among those who were present. The Craigflower road matter, the "King pin" of suburban matter, the "King pin" of suburban would the people be placed? They had R. J. Stiles recalled the remarks made grievances, was last night relegated to a some iden of their predicament in the by the mayor and aldermen who attendfire which destroyed the steamers a few ed a meeting in Victoria West last speeches being one of the most intense months ago, and to which the engines spring. When asked for his opinion the mayor said: "Gentlemen, I have no Then the suburb required a recreation opinion. I have formed none. I have ground. At present if a man took his come to hear your views and to be guidfamily to the parks it cost him consider- ed by them." His subsequent conduct able in car fare. Surely the people were was a strange commentary on his re-

The sidewalk across Craigflower road is what is sticking in our gullets," said Ordinarily no policeman was seen in the speaker. He mentioned the expense the suburb, but on the night following which had been entailed up to the point the laying of the sidewalk almost the of the quashing of the by-law by Judge whole force was there and they arrested Drake, with which the people of Vic- the youngest boy in the crowd.

ing an appeal, the mayor and a majority wanted a friendly suit with the people of the council had worked a hardship over in Victoria West. His appeal of on the people. They had got plenty of the case did not indicate much friendliness

The courts had decided that the fe was in the grown which meant that it was public property. Revs. McRae and Barber then moved:

"That the report published in the local press of the proceedings of the municipal unanimously carried. council of the city of Victoria at its meeting on Monday evening last remain-tion. He promised assistance from his that private considerations had influence-Mr. Thomas F. Gold moved, seconded by Captain Gaudin: "That in view of recent serious ac cidents arising therefrom being narrowly averted, the city council be requested to again remove the obstructions placed had said that a light had not been asked by them across the Craigflower fload. for opposite Mr. Dunsmuir's gate. The As "the father of a family," the chairman suggested the following resolupeculiar way of putting things, has not ion, which was fathered by Messrs. placed the council in the possession of Okell and Redding: the information he possesses on the sub

"In view of the absence of any recreaiect tion grounds in the northern portion of Ald. Williams here asserted that Ald the city, it is highly desirable that a por- Humphrey's statement was that no such tion of the Indian reserve, above Esquipetition had been presented in the last malt road, should be rented for such two years. He favored the spending of consider urnose.

Continuing, he said it was well known able money very soon in the way of that the council could not purchase the erecting a suitable school building. A land mentioned, but he had reason to loan must soon be floated for a consid know that for about $50 or $100 per an- erable sum for school buildings. um a fine. flat, clear space could be obtained. The young men of Victoria West had taken steps for securing a West was only a portion of the North gymnasium, and it was unfair to expect Ward. This ward had this year secured them to go to Beacon Hill. Phil R. Smith brought up the matter of school house accommodation in Vic- ed by the Sorby harbor scheme. toria West. The grounds were small and anfit for a playground, while the building Rev. Mr. MacRae sugggested that the ommittee call another meeting at an

plause.

tion held by him with J. G. Tiarks in

JUR'S

War.

When

Being Male for trouble was that Ald. Williams, in his Search is the Murderer in Seattle.

Murder

The Murderer Took a Broad Black Belt and the Victim's Rings.

Interest is revived in the atrocious Ald, Brydon thought that some of the murder of Mrs. Bings by the search that udience seemed to forget that Victoria s now being made by the police in S. attle for a man who is thought to have as much money as all the others combin-been implicated in the horrible crime The bridge question would be solv The Seattle Times of yesterday says There is some reason to believe that the He strongly objected to the city coun human fiend who murdered Mrs. Agues il's action re the Craigflower road. He afterwards mutilated her body after the manner of "Jack the Ripper," is in Seattle. At least that is the opinion of one of the officers of the provincial point He thought that the statement that of British Columbia who has been in Seattel on two or three occasions recently, stopping for lengths of time varying from three days to a week. On his last visit he stopped at the Butler hotel, where he registered unle the name of Beauchamp. He does pay the usual fraternal call to po headquarters, but always makes presence known to British Consul Peak though the latter refuses to talk about the matter. The province of British Co umbia has offered a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the murderer, to which the city of Victoria has added $250, making a total of $750 reward, which it is quite possible the Victoria detective does not wish to share with his Seattle brethren if his search should prove successful. All that could be learned about the matter is that short. er court they would win. "I see," he ly before the murder was committed a coal miner who was working in one of Cant. Gaudin-I am simply smiling at the mines near Nanaimo suddenly disappeared and was seen in Victoria about the time of the murder. He had been acting in an eccentric manner for some time, though nothing would have been The meeting broke up with votes of thought of it if he had not left behind thanks to the press, the aldermen who him in the company's care some $1,100 accumulated pay that he has so far NEWS FROM CANADIAN TROOPS.

made no effort to claim, though he left without any notice nearly three months ago. What other evidence the Victoria Canada posted about the Canadian police have beyond the fact that he apparently slightly demented and was in troops has been solved by the Family Victoria at the time of the murder is Herala and Weekly Star, of Montreal, not known, but they are making every sending a special war correspondent, effort to get hold of him and claim that who sailed on the Sardinian and whose he has been seen in Scattle several times sole business will be to keep the Family during the last mouth. Herald in touch with the troops in ac-At the time Mrs. Bings was murdered

dian police officials, and though they ion. The Family Herald's correspon she was wearing a broad black belt dent goes thoroughly equipped for his which her fiendish assailant took, to work. He has a photographic outfit, gether with her wedding ring and a narwill be mounted on the field and will row gold ring set with a dull red square have a mounted orderly. The Family cut stone setting, the stone set flat in the Herald's correspondent goes by permisring, which was of German make, and ion of Dr. Borden, Minister of Militia, it is by either of these articles that the and with instructions specially cabled identity of the murderer can be satisfrom the War Office by the Secretary of factorily established. Pertinacity is the strong point of Cana-

SOUTH AFRICAN RAILWAYS.

came by Cape St. Vincent, I came by

'O race of tireless fighters, flushed with a Right well the wars of Freedom befit the no man's will; bugh all the world forbade them, they him that ci

The London Morning Post publishes tiations in London have resulted in an agreement between Great Britain, China

Sea-king's brood:

counted not nor cared.

cursed no

did the thing they dared.

had attended and the chairman.

-0-

The question of keeping the people of

have not the reputation of being as bright as the detectives on this side (Associated Press.) the line they never fail to follow up Berlin, Nov. 10 .- The agreement signed the faintest clue that may lead to the on behalf of Germany and the British detection of criminals and the cost is South Africa Company, binding the comnever counted if they are rany not to conti its railr the While it may be that the coal miner West coast from Rhodesia south of fourentirely innocent of the crime and may teenth degree, except from a point on the be able to prove himself so, he is the Anglo-German frontier, has been approved. only likely person they have fixed on as Germany also will not construct a railthe probable criminal, and until they are way north of fourteenth degree to the satisfied that he had nothing to do with West coast until a railroad is constructed south of that degree, through German it he will be tracked until found. southwest Africa. The New York police are hunting for Germany has signed an agreement per mitting Mr. Rhodes's Cape-to-Cairo teleome clue to the whereabouts of Rev. William Hart Dexter, principal of the New York Naval Academy at Nyack, who has been missing since Nov. 2nd. The above agreement means that Ger-In introducing London's new Lord many intends that any westwardly exten-Mayor, Mr. A. J. Newton, at the Law sions of Rhodesian lines shall connect with Courts yesterday, the Recorder referred the proposed lines in German east Africa. to certain charges against Mr. Newton probably starting from Swakop, near Walin connection with company promotion. fish bay, which will be a much nearer and assured the justices that the Lord route from England to Rhodesia than via Mayor courted the fullest inquiry. The Capetown. Lord Chief Justice said he had heard the statement with considerable relief, add-THE SAILING OF THE LONG SHIPS. ing that the community would "heartily October, 1899. rejoice when the Lord Mayor had cleared y saw the cables loosened, they saw the gangways cleared, y heard the women weeping, they heard the men that cheered, off, far off, the tumult faded and his reputation." They three batterie munition colu bia with thre Guards and Northamptons This brings forcements to 6,000 are alr ban. The Art troops belong probably also Nine troopshi are due at Ca Esteourt dis graph commun with Ladys has been recei vember 9th. that everyone but food was ing at three s Colonel Bade ties at Mafeki that the Briti western border At Kimberle ing 8,000 men, making, as a De Aar advie berley have go and are const the dynamite h have been blo

60000000

$1.50

.....

VOL.

Bomb

Boers Ar

Little Dam

Reinforcem

Cape--Rei

London, Nov

patch announ

day of the ecute

Eith

Range

From Brusse General Jouber have been end the capitulation failed to come

Boers Ret Estcourt, Nat An armored tra the Royal Dub 1:30 this after break in the ra a mile from Col Captain Hens connoitered and

While this conv

the Boers opene but did no in thereupon retire which the Fusi fort. As there

sumption was

The armored

at 6 o'clock

Captain Hens

tives that the

the Ladysmith

During the a sation of the h

The Surrende

Lorenzo Marq

9.-Particulars

Irish Fusiliers

Regiment are hews, chaplain iers, who has a but that some structions hoiste

own responsibil

"We were sent mained but to thews, "to occup

ject of preventi joining. We sta

Sunday evening,

got to the hill ah

tain battery stam whole lot of mu again and gaine

The guns were go munition. I do 1

It was pitch day

ed the mules.

sleen.

"The first mish morning.

He says the fo treated.

smith.

rla.

Boers wer

dermen in regard to the "tar and feathserve it. It appears," he continued, odium of his ignorance. This alderman "that we are the Uitlanders of Victoria, said that it was not the mayor and the and that we are to be danied our rights other members who were wanted hereby the Paul Kruger, who rules at the only himself. He thought that at the

of the aldermen would have them ap- drove over the same gravel that the ment of receipts, and expenses incurred half as good as at Oakandes, much vic-in connection, as the chairman put it, not nearly as important a suburb. Vic-"of asserting our rights." It showed an "of asserting our rights." It showed an toria West was obliged to pay a higher toria West was obliged to pay a higher insurance rate, and this was an injusdeficit of 85 cents, which would be covered by outstanding subscriptions. The tice. chairman did not know whether the A park established in Victoria West meeting intended to ask the city council would benefit not only this district but Rock Bay, by which it also could be to meet this expense or not. Ald, Williams, Beckwith and Brydon, used.

entitled to a reasonable amount of re- marks. creation with other parts of the city. The sidewalk across Craigflower road Coming to the Craigflower road, "that was not a sidewalk, but an obstruction. toria were generally satisfied. By carry- The mayor had said that he merely at the remarks made by one of the aldermen in reference to tar and feather-refusing to attend the meeting. Several on the Craigflower road and then digging them out. What was the city of the members were opposed to appointing a committee to wait on the playing at? They are treating the peocouncil, but finally a representative body consisting of Beaumont Boggs, C. J. Jenkinson, T. Redding, Thos. F. Gold, supperless to bed.

He noticed that $85 had been recom-Capt. Gaudin, J. Coigdarripe, Revs. Barber and McRae, J. Ramsay, S. mended by the city engineer to improve Shore, Percy R. Brown and Thomas Russell street. How many people used it? Even with the obstruction on the Nicholson was appointed to lay the resolution passed before the aldermanic Craigflower road, expressmen and others drove over the sidewa'k instead of going round, and there would yet

The chair was taken by Beaumont Boggs. In explaining the reasons for serious accident at that point owing to the meeting Mr. Boggs said it was for lack of lights. The candidates had last year promised purpose of meeting the mayor and aldernien and discussing with them to conserve the interests of the people questions affecting Victoria West. Un: of Victoria West. They had done s fortunately a misconception had arisen attempting to impose two hours' addiamong some of the aldermen regarding tional walking per week upon the peothe objects of the meeting. Some of ple here. (Applause.) representatives had expressed the Chas. W. Jenkinson objected to the fear that they would be tarred and fea- insulting remark made by one of the althered. Laughter.) "Now I am sure," continued Mr. ering" process. The speaker would take Boggs, "that no one desires to do such his share of the charge of crankiness if a thing, much as some of them may de- the member referred to would take the city hall." (Laughter and applause.) next election the alderman would find The chairman then read the list of that the people did not want him at all subjects which it was proposed to dis- The people were in the same position cuss, and added that there was nothing so far as benefits were concerned as in it to indicate that the people of Vic- when they entered the corporation. They toria West were such hoodlums as some were still walking the sidewalks, and

12

Will Meet

at Phillipi

(Applause.)

in taxes.

(Loud Applause.)

Electors of Victoria West Will

Organize to Fight for Justice.

Strong Speeches at Last Night's Indignation Meeting in the Suburb.

The big patriotic demonstration in the subordinate position, the tone of all the

to be studied neglect of their district

It is unfortunate that the mayor and romain away from the meeting, for it would have afforded them an excellent the people who reside there. There were common nurnose to make their influence at the hands of the city council.

municipal election.

board.

plause.

dignation at what the residents believe could not be got.

Secretary T. Gold then submitted a statement of receipts, and expenses incurred half as good as at Oaklands, which was the majority of the aldermen decided to opportunity of discovering the temper of no violent measures suggested, but the. whole audience seemed animated by a distinctly felt at the polls in the coming The striking feature of almost all the speeches was the indignation expressed law but no justice.

ple of the surburb as though they were naughty children who have to be sent the only representatives of the alder- He moved in manic board present, were invited to the Mr. Fawcett: He moved in conclusion, seconded by "That this meeting is strongly of the platform, and took their seats amid apopinion that steps should be at once The question of improved fire protec- taken to erect a suitable fire hall in this tion for the suburb was then taken up, western suburb, and equip it at least and Rev. Rural Dean Barber was call- with a chemical engine.'

ed upon. He first of all expressed his Rev. D. MacRae felt with many other surprise that such a large and respect- residents of Victoria West the greatest able portion of the city as Victoria sense of indignation at the slanderous West should have such a slur cast upon remarks-as slanderous as they were unit as was implied in Ald. Kinsman's warranted-that the people intended to now celebrated "tar and feathers" subject any member of the council to in-The speaker had lived in Vic- sult much less violence. (Applause.) speech. toria West for some time, and had seen He thought steps should be at once the necessity for improvements which taken to repudiate these imputations. the city council had never thought of at He had been in thorough accord with all. Numerous instances of this had everything which had been done in contaken place. Take for instance the case nection with the Craigflower road case, of the fall of the Point Ellice bridge. excepting a few steps at the outset. He Very indifferent steps were taken at that also believed that the judges had ruled

Then there was the question of fire protection. He had been ashamed to ple of the district. But he believed the sent in for a light at the point mentionshow a gentleman from the Northwest the little shanty which represents the vesting the council with such powers, es-waste paper basket? fire hall of Victoria West. The growing pecially when the administration of afpopulation of the district demanded at fairs fell into the hands of men who least a respectable building.

He had been a silent but very deeply their powers as the tyrannical men who interested spectator of the Craigflower compose the majority of the present road difficulty. His understanding of it council. (Cheers.) The community had was that many years ago a gentleman suffered, not only in pocket, but in feelhad cut up one of the city wads into ing. The community had been the viclots. This had been done illegally, and tims of this tyranny on the part of those it was only natural to suppose that the who we e supposed to represent the peocouncil would oppose it. But this had ple.

not been done. The council here had It was an unfortunate thing that sitbeen invested with somewhat extraor- uated as Victoria West was this interdinary powers-powers unthought of in esting suburb should be united with the England. There seemed to be no doubt city. The ward was unrepresented, al- was the doctor's bill of $25. that through some influence the legis- though their taxes were collected to lature put in the Municipal Clauses Act carry on city government. That was disa section giving the council power to tasteful to Britons and Englishmen, and its proper care and lighting. The close roads, and immediately, what was (Loud applause.) It was as a protest city had acknowledged its Mability by at first an illegal act, became the law against this very principle for which asserting its authority over it, because

This brought up a serious question. It south Africa to-day. He felt that the to allow the Indians to fence it. Had the press should draw the attention of the power to close even the main arteries of great majority of fair-minded people of have been used by Mrs. Bings instead travel. Of course this would be very the city to the gravity of the case. He of the railroad and the murder would unwise, because there the bulk of the felt that they did not appreciate the not have been committed. They didn't voters lived. But it was different in real importance of the matter. This ask the city to approve the road, the suburbs, and it meant that the public right might often through interest-tradesmen of the city, the best custo- petitions had hitherto been tabled ed manipulation be made to suffer for mers which the retail merchants have. If certain people had bought this land Yet they had not a decent bridge to with their eyes shut, it was no reason had himself been obliged to stand five why the city should reimburse them any had himself been obliged to stand nive minutes waiting to get over the miser. the Manitoba speculator who able bridge at Point Ellice, and but for found his land submerged in water. the sufferance of being allowed to go If these people had suffered loss the over the railway bridge traffic would be city council should balance against it the congested.

loss to the public by closing Craigflower He would like the merchants to feel road and pay them the balance out of it in their pockets, and then they would

THE COON-"Wonder kin I get in on this new ladder.'

ing uncontradicted, this meeting takes which that gentleman said that his ob this, the earliest, opportunity of repudiating the charge of Ald. Kinsman to the effect that the design of the ratepayers of Victoria West in inviting the board of aldermen to a conference with respect to local municipal questions was to subject the said board of aldermen to insult and violence: and hereby calls upon Ald. Kinsman to retract his slanderous charge." Mr. Fawcett took up the matter of electric light. Over a year ago he received over a hundred signatures to a petition for an electric light opposite J Dunsmuir's gate. He was then told that there was not sufficient power for a light there. He had asked Ald. Wil hiams to bring the matter up a few time to provide means of transporta-tion to the city from a store where the start of the store where the store to the city from the store where the store whe injustice had been worked upon the peo- asserted that no petition had ever been legislature had made a mistake in in- ed. Did all these petitions go into the Rev. Mr. Barber spoke for the district in which he resides, so far as electric would make such an arbitrary use of lighting was concerned. There was no hight there at all. He hoped the ward representatives present would make a note of it.

A protest was also put in by another speaker regarding the fire service on Esquimalt street. He was thousands of yards from any hydrant, and if a fire broke out there nothing could save the buildings from destruction. A child had broken its wrist on one of the defective sidewalks, and all the city had paid The chairman brought up the matter

Britons were shedding their blood in the Indian department had threatened was the residence of the artizans and but to protect their lives. Their Rev. Mr. McRae suggested legal means to compel the city to make the reserve road passable. At present it was impassable

Phil R. Smith understood that in a a large area like Victoria West it was impossible to get a sidewalk to every-one's door, but it could not be denied port. He felt that the wish of 90 per that the district was unfairly treated. was only recently that Mary street should be kept open. had got a sidewalk, and lights were urgently needed, especially at Russell sta-ject in bringing up the matter . of the Point Ellice bridge was not to cause un- graph lines to be carried through German necessary alarm, but to lead to the east Africa, in accordance with the provipledges made by the council years ago sions recited in the reichstag in March. eing carried out. The speaker also referred to the bad advertisement the Point Ellice bridge was for the city, as almost every press visitor took a snap shot of the broken bridge, and dilated upon it at length in their papers. Rev. Mr. Barber thought that the in timate relation of Esquimalt and Vic toria West should not be lost sight of. especially in view of the possible increase the force at the former place, and that the means of communication be kept in good repair. Rev. Mr. McRae strongly urged the es ablishment of retail stores in Victoria Far off, far off, the turnult faded and dled away, And all alone the sea-wind came singing Far West. This would bring aldermen in all the wards to time. up the Bay.

The chairman drew a parallel between the causes which had led to Her Ma esty's ships to go to Comox to perform their firing, and the defective means of ommunication with the city, which might result in some other untoward act on the part of the admiralty.

Ald, Beckwith commended the interest lisplayed by the people of Victoria Wes n municipal affairs. They undoubtedly had grievances, especially in the matter Yet as ye go forget not the fame of yon-der shore. The fame ye owe your fathers and the old time before. of the Craigflower road. The first invitation was accepted and there was nothing then said of tar and feathers. He believed the object of the meeting "Long-suffering were the Sea-kings, they were not swift to kill, But when the sands had fallen they waited was to draw attention to their grieve ances. Although he thought the council should have attended, yet he advised the audience to send a commit They weighed not help or hindrance, they man to represent them at the city council would avail but little. Victoria West should unceasingly agitate for the removal of the Indian reserve, and he be-They honored all men duly, and him that faced them first; lieved there was some influence behind the Indians keeping the matter open. The time was coming when the Point Ellice bridge would be insufficient to They strove accommodate the traffic from Esquimalt. If the reserve was done away with a fame's on Vigo Bar. Far-flashed to Cape St. Vincent it burns from Trafalgar; oridge could then be thrown across the Mark ye go the beacons that woke the world with light, harbor at the foot of Johnson street, and streets made to commeet with it. Personally the speaker had agreed with

When Jown their ancient highway your fathers passed to fight." -Henry Newbolt, in London Spectator. the contention of most of the speakers in regard to Craigflower road. He had been a member of the special committee appointed to look into the matter, and the following from Washington: "Negoport. He felt that the wish of 90 per cent, of the ratepayers was that the road and the United States to maintain the 'open door' in China, which power will Rev. Mr. Macrae-99 per cent. undertake to develop both British and Continuing, Ald. Beckwith said he felt American trade.

NOTICE. IN THE MATTER OF THE GOODS OF SAMUEL GIRDLESTONE LEWIS LATE OF CHEMAINUS, VANCOU-VER ISLAND, BRITISH COLUMBIA, DECEASED.

All persons who are indebted to the above estate are required to pay the amount forthwith; and all persons who have any claims against the above estate are required to send in their accounts, duly authenticated, on or before the irst day of December, 1899, to Fell & Gregory, Board of Trade Building, Victoria, B. C., Solicitors for Arthur Howell Lewis, the Administrator with the will approved of the

Trafajar,
Swept from Torres Vedras to golden Vigo Bar,
I saw the beacons blazing that fired the world with light, When down the ancient: highway your fathers passed to fight. Administrator with the will annexed of above named deceased, after which d the Administrator will proceed to dis bute the estate to the parties entitled th to baring scened to, having regard only to such claims as ay be sent in. Victoria, B. C., 11th October, 1899.

NOTICE. NOTICE. Notice is hereby given that 30 days after date I listend to make application to the Honorable the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works for a special license to cut and carry away timber from the foi-lowing described lands situated in Carlboo district: Commencing at a stake planted two chains north from French road and six miles in an easterly direction from the Carlboo trunk road, thence westerly 100

"The Sea-kings loved not boasting, they six miles in an easterly direction from the Cariboo trunk road, thence westerly 100 chains, thence southerly 50 chains, thence easterly 100 chains, thence northerly 50 chains to the point of commencement, con-taining 500 acres more or less. JOHN J. MASON. Quesnelle Forks, B.C., Nov. 1st, 1890.

"Their fame's on Torres Vedras, their WANTED-We will pay $12.00 a week sal ary to either a man or woman to repr sent the Midland Monthly Magazine as subscription solicitor. The Midland subscription solicitor. The Midland is the same size as McClures or the Cos-mopolitan. It is now in its sixth rear and is the only Magazine of this kind published in the great Central West. A handsome premium clurated West. A handsome premium: given to each sub-scriber. Send 10 cents for a copy of the Midland and premium list to the Twen-tleth Century Publishing Co., St. Louis.

AGENTS-"Light of Life." Latest boo out. Bonanza for canvassers. Latz book. Low price. Big profit. Freizi paid. Credit given. Outfit free. Brat lcy-Garretson Co., Limited, Brantford.

"The firing break, being some bat finally the B then the firing bee made a breastwo "Soon after twe general crv of 'C lows would not st came up and co then the bugle s "In our locality that a white flag officer who though were the sole sur 900 alive. We ha 1.000. I think m escaped. "Our officers an the surrender. T to be in great nu I heard that the ed off. Our men arms, and the offic mondant Steeneka ordered the men Self Governme Bristol, Nov. 1